SUPPORT OUR DEBATERS

Perhaps the greatest medium of mental development offered through participation in College activities is debating. To be successful in the field of argumentation one must be physically fit in addition to having a strong and versatile mentality, otherwise the hard grind cannot be kept up.

Considering the talent and work necessary to be successful in this mental "game" we do not believe that debating gets any thing like an even break with some other student activities; football, for example. Both develop courage, sportsmanship, college spirit, and foster school loyalty. Athletes are profusely advertised, debaters are rarely heard of. We can no more afford to have losing debating teams than we can have losing athletic teams, but during the past five years at least there has been a decided lack of support and interest in debating.

This year the class debates were very unsuccessful. The freshmen and sophomores who usually enter the strongest teams were not represented; the result being an unsuccessful year in class debates. The trouble perhaps lies with all of us. We worship a one-sided man, we idolize the athlete, forgetting that physique is only one-half of proper development. We have propagated one branch of activity at the expense of another.

We believe that a proper balance between the mental and physical activities will come only through a change in student opinion which will result in securing and maintaining a proper balance between all student activities.

AN ISSUE OF THE HOUR

Is the library the gathering place of a gang of idle gossipers? The stage has been reached where students commonly say, "If you don't want to study, go to the library." We believe we are safe in saying that in no other college library in the country is there such wanton disorder as exists in our own college library. At Cornell and other eastern schools students enter and leave the library on tiptoe, and whispering among students is not tolerated. And yet in the College library loud talking is going on all the time.

Students, we must face this thing fairly. We are each in part responsible for the condition. We know that it exists and that it is to our discredit. That much is evident, and does not need to be discussed further. In the words of the quick-politician, "what we need now is a few sledge-hammer blows that will hit the nail of disorder on the head and drive it out of sight." More to the point, what we need is for all of us, when we enter the library, to shut up and get down to business.

THE FORUM

Editor, Student Life:

The "Y" is filling an important position in our school. Its chief value lies in the service it performs. May I ask a question, why does the school leave such things to others? Why should the students be called upon to supply means for such work when it is as clearly the state's duty to the citizens to provide these things, as it is to provide a library or book store?

Sincerely,

R. NUFFER.

A number of things might be said in reply to the interesting letter given above. Perhaps the following may be suggestive.

(1) In many state colleges where the College "Y" runs the student employment bureau, secures the lists of available rooms for new students and serves in other ways, some money is received directly from state funds. In addition the friends, Alumni, parents and others scattered throughout the state help support the "Y" by their voluntary subscriptions; so that indirectly at least this comes from the state.

(2) From the experience of College Young Men's Christian Associations in hundreds of American colleges since the beginning of this work at the University of Virginia in 1858, certain principles and methods have become crystallized. One of these is the support of the "Y" by voluntary subscriptions. There are many reasons for this; one of the most obvious being that those who give of their meagre savings are more interested in the work they are sacrificing to support.

WORK PROGRESSING ON COLLEGE QUAD

Area East of Main Building Will Be Chief Beauty Spot on Campus.

The quadrangle just back of the Main Building is to be made the most beautiful part of the campus. Now one of the most attractive college campuses in the country, the work planned and being carried out at the present time will result in very greatly adding to the attractiveness of the college grounds. The plans as outlined by the Campus Committee, of which Doctor Merrill is chairman, and being supervised by Mr. Emil Hansen, superintendent of grounds, include numerous improvements, the most important of which is the transformation of the quadrangle just back of the main building from a weed-grown, makeshift athletic field into the most charming part of the entire college grounds.

Four water pipes are being run east from the main line over this quadrangle and as soon as these are laid, work on laying off walks and roads, planting lawns, trees, and shrubs will be pushed forward.

The old road leading around the south side of the hill from Fourth North is to be widened and greatly improved and will be extended around the Ag. Engineering building, to the road running up past the Animal Husbandry and Plant Industry buildings.

It will be remembered that the seniors recently voted a fund to place a large marble bench in the quadrangle, which will greatly add to the beauty of the spot. The area will be cut by numerous paths, horizontal and diagonal, and on one of these walks the seniors will erect their bench, a marble slab six feet long and eighteen inches wide. The idea is to establish a precedent which, if followed, will result in continuous line of benches, a veritable senior walk.

In speaking of the work to be done, Doctor Merrill said, "The quadrangle will be absolutely the prettiest part of the campus. You think it beautiful in front of the Main Building, but this will far exceed that. We plan to make the drive up the south side of the hill, around the Ag. Engineering building, past the quadrangle, and down the north hill one of the most beautiful around—a drive every tourist will want to make."

CROSS COUNTRY RUN TO BE STAGED IN APRIL

merchants of Logan to contribute prizes for each of the men that finish in the race. These prizes will be assembled and exhibited in one of the down town store windows for a couple of weeks before the race is run. The prizes presented by the different Logan firms will undoubtedly be worth working for.

The race will be run early in April. Every man has his own class spirit and two good legs should get out and train for this big event. The coach intends that the race shall be an annual event. Under the Agricultural College's supervision the B. Y. C. and all the high schools of Cache valley can be invited to enter teams another year.

Some of the distance men that will undoubtedly show strong in this long race are Jacques, Wayman, Jackson, Bowen, Hart, Richardson, Christensen, Edwards and many other athletes that are just starting to get in shape for the track season.

"Yep, no spirit."

"None, no spirit."

"None of the boys here know anything about college spirit."

"None, the poor boobs."

"D'jsh hear the rotten cheering at the game?"

"None, I didn't go."

"Neither did I."

"What's the use, there ain't no spirit."

"No spirit."

"Frog" is visiting in Bingham.

Doug Cannon spent last week end
in Salt Lake.

Connie Nelson was a visitor at the college on Saturday.

Mr. Fay Schank visited his folks
in Salt Lake last week end.

Carl Jonsson, '17 is in Logan
visiting friends at the college.

Harold Nagie visited Logan
and friends at the college on Saturday.

Merlin Cook has discontinued school and returned to his home in Willard.

Marie Day spent last week end in Salt Lake visiting with her mother, Mrs. John Day of Sandy, Utah.

Julia Hubbard who has spent the last three weeks at her home in Willard, has returned to school.

Rulon White spent last week end visiting in Brigham with his parents Mr. and Mrs. James White.

James Taylor spent last week end
in Ogden visiting with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Taylor.

Gwen Nielsen, a former student conducting extension classes in sewing.

PROF. HATCH SUSPECTED OF BOOTLEGGING

Ed. Note—This article appeared in the "Boleshevik" issue of the "Tatler," the Pleasant Grove High School paper. A notice appearing in the issue read: "To any person who finds in this 'Tatler' one article which is the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, a reward of ten dollars will be given." We suspect, therefore, that this little tale about our old friend and classmate "Sam" Hatch, '19, is "not the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth."

Mr. Grey, a detective has been summoned from the east for the sole purpose of finding out what Mr.
Hatch carries in his satchel.

We don't like this man Hatch. His coming into our school has given us no end of trouble. The perpetual grouch that he is blessed with gets on our sensitive nerves. Never once since he left the A. C. has he been known to smile or offer one suggestion to us.

The fact that his wife leaves him
about every two months is sufficient evidence that he hates her.

We know that he is a shark at gambling because the other day he won ten dollars from Miss Jorgenson
in a game of "Bug."

The work of Detective Grey will likely put an end to him by revealing
the contents of the aforesaid satchel.
So it is with high hopes that we hail
the coming of the Easterner.

Can You Write?

A new and interesting College publication is now in Student Life office, and may be read there by anybody and everybody. It is "A National Monthly for the Undergraduate," entitled THE COLLEGIATE WORLD. It appeals to us as something very fine, for entertainment and education as well as general good reading. Besides, there are some interesting opportunities for ambitious college scribes. A reprint of a part of the foreword expresses the idea of the paper:

"THE COLLEGIATE WORLD will publish any article, human interest
story, item of importance, cartoon,
or humor that it feels will interest
the college man. Moreover, it will pay for such material if used. Matter of only local interest cannot be accepted. No fiction will be used.
* * * We will protect all matter used, and try to find a market for any contribution of real merit."

"In our April issue we will present an OPPORTUNITY market for students who desire summer work and we hope to be instrumental in placing worth-while students in worth-while jobs. Particulars of this feature will be found on another page. * * *

"Many prominent business men,
college heads, authors and illustrators have promised us material for early issues, but we are mostly interested in hearing from the undergraduate. You can help to make it
"A National Monthly for the Undergraduate."

Chemistry Club Adopts Constitution And Laws

A meeting of the newly organized Chemistry Club was held last Friday at the home of Doctor Gardner, who officiated. Doctor Frank West gave an interesting lecture on the "Spirit of Research" which was freely discussed by the members present. After the discussion the constitution and by-laws were adopted.

The aim of the club is to stimulate interest and a spirit of research in chemistry and physics and related subjects with special references to their application to agricultural problems.

The club consists of "active members" and "members emeriti". The active members are those of the faculty and graduate students who are termed "honorable members" and undergraduate members who will be termed "members elect." The number of honorary members is not limited. All faculty members and graduates interested are eligible.

The number of members elect is limited to ten. To be eligible, an undergraduate must have reached his junior year, have taken at least three courses in chemistry and one in physics, and he must have shown a high order of excellence in these subjects. His name must be proposed by two active members of the club, and be endorsed by the professors of physics and chemistry.

Those members absent without good excuse from three consecutive meetings or from five meetings
during the fall, winter and spring quarters will be put on the list as members emeriti. In the case of undergraduates, membership must be regained by re-election.

Meetings of the club will be held on alternate Friday evenings at the homes of the members. At each meeting a paper prepared by a member or guest shall be read, and a discussion follow.

A. L. Price, Angus Maughan, Eugene Woodbury and George M.
Bateman were guests at the last meeting.

MICHIGAN A. C.
The honorary fraternities of the different courses at M. A. C. have undertaken the task of tutoring delinquent athletes. They intend to make it impossible for any worthwhile athlete to quit college on account of low grades.

Society

Dr. Frank L. West and Kumen Gardner were dinner guests at the Alpha Delta Epsilon house on Sunday.

Pi Zeta Pi held an informal
"stag" last Thursday evening at their club rooms on west First North. About fifteen guests were present.

Harold Clawson is a recent pledge to Alpha Delta Epsilon.

Sigma Theta Phi entertained for their members and pledges last Monday at a matinee party at the Lyric Theatre. This was followed by a four course dinner given on the mezzanine floor of Hotel Eccles.
The long table was effectively decorated in George Washington birthday suggestions. Several musical selections were rendered by Evangeline Thomas and Winona Cherry.
From here the bevy of Thetas adjoined to the sorority house where the rest of the evening was spent in enjoying an informal social hour.
About sixteen girls were present.

Delta Nu's entertained Tuesday evening at dinner. Rulon White was the guest.

Henry Oberhausley is the latest fulfilled Phi Kappa Iota.

Dr. and Mrs. Merrill entertained at dinner Sunday at the Practice Home
for A. C. Cooley. Ardath Price, Clarence Hansen and Ralph Catter, Lavon Sharp and Holly Baxter assisted
Mrs. Merrill.

Mr. Edward Jacobs of Rexburg and Mr. Fred Davenport of Salt Lake were dinner guests at Sorosis House Monday.

Sorosis held initiations for Helen Woodruff, Genevieve Hatch, Marguerite
Judd, Gladys Jones, Viola Salzer
and Maude Anderson Saturday of last week. A banquet at the Chapter house followed.

Heber L. Blood of Malad Idaho, was pledged to Pi Zeta Pi Fraternity
this week.

On Other College Campuses

WASHINGTON STATE COLLEGE

"Flu" apparently did not affect enrollment for next semester work at Washington State College. The registration is reported as normal.

U. OF IDAHO

An alphabetical list of Idaho towns and the names of alumni living in each town is being published in the U. of Idaho paper. It is hoped that fellowship among alumni will be fostered by it.

U. OF WYOMING

Home-coming week at Commencement for alumni is already being planned at Wyoming U. It is intended for the first time a regular get-acquainted Commencement.

A budget for the average college
man recently worked out by a U.
of W. student estimates expenses
for this year at $71 per month.

NEW MEXICO S. C.

A banquet was given by the N.
M. S. C. Alumni association to "future students", a group of the year's high school graduates.

COLORADO A. C.

A section of the Rocky Mountain
Collegian is given in the last issue
to honorable mention of business houses who have supported the paper
with their advertising.

STANFORD U.

A new club has been formed at Stanford, the name being self-explanatory, "Hoover For President Club." One hundred students and alumni joined the first day.

U. OF COLORADO

The U. of Colorado has been enjoying an enforced "flu" vacation of two weeks. Classes will resume work again this week under strict health regulations.

An extension course in sugar refining is now part of the University's curriculum.

AGGIES HIGH SCORERS IN A. U. MEET

Jackson, Croft, Hansen And Hart Star—Athletes of National Renown Compete—East
High Man High Point Winner.

Utah A. C. ....	42
East High School ..	28
All-star college team ..	20
University of Utah ..	9
Unattached ..	5
Ogden High School ..	3

High-grade performances, close finishes and the appearance in action of several track and field stars of national renown, who will in all probability go overseas with Uncle Sam's Olympic team, marked the highly successful A. A. U. indoor championships run off in the Deseret gymnasium before five hundred enthusiasts last Saturday night.

The U. A. C. under Coach Dick Romney took down a team strong in numbers and performances and walked away with the team prize, scoring 43 points. East High gave the collegians a good contest, amassing 25 points while the all-star college team totaled 20 points, making a clean sweep of every event its members, all famous athletes, entered.

Individual honors went to Oscar Smith, East high captain who copped both the 25-yard dash and the 40-yard hurdles, as well as finishing brilliantly the half-mile relay and assuring the East-High-East High alumni team second place over an improvised Aggie quartet.

Alma Richards won the shot put and the high jump, the only two events he entered, with consummate ease, displaying the same grace and power which made him famous the world over as an all-around athlete.

Other participants who added class to the affair were Creed Hammond, national A. A. U. 220 champion, who confined his efforts to the two relay races and exhibited wonderful speed, clinching the events for his team. His celebrated mates, Collier, Martin and Wilson, demonstrated their worth in both events.

Percy Hanson won his heat of the 240-yard dash in fast time and Jackson, A. C. Miller, uncorked a magnificent finish to nose out Kump, East High miler and Oscar Martin, another Leopard distance man, in a pretty mile run.

Two of the best races of the evening were the 380-yard events. In the first one Hart, Aggie, won out by inches from Leyshon, East High, after a thrilling battle. In the second one Shannon Kerr, "U" phenom, gave a brilliant exhibition, distancing his competitors and beating the time of the preceding race by eight seconds.

Because of the narrow track which precluded main entrants in a single race, two 240s and two 380s were run and each was considered as an event in itself, the place winners scoring points for their teams and acquiring medals.

The medley relay provided a thrill. Jacques, Aggie distance man who looked good for points in the mile and a half, if no victories in both, was held out of those events to participate in the medley. His game run against Martin, on whom he gained yardage after his team had been disadvantaged in the previous relays, won him many friends.

Calder, unattached, won the pole vault after a tussle with Anderson of the U. A. C.

The meet was highly instrumental in getting the Utah track and field performers away to an early start in what promises to be an unusually successful season.

A cup donated by Spaldings will be given the Aggies as a team prize, while medals for first, second and third positions will be awarded.

Results

35-yard dash—Oscar Smith (East High) first; Percy Hansen (U. A. C.) second; R. Croft (U. A. C.) third. Time, 4 1-5.

40-yard low hurdles—O. Smith (East High) first; M. Oswald (U. of U.) second; P. Dorius (U. A. C.) third. Time, 5 3-5.

240-yard dash—First race R. Croft (U. A. C.) first; R. Brady (East High) second; G. Dee (U. A. C.) third. Time, 28 4-5.

240-yard dash—Second race—P. Hansen (U. A. C.) first; Hutton (Ogden High) second; Oswald (U. of U.) third. Time, 28 2-5.

880-yard run—First race—C. Hart (U. A. C.) first; B. Leyshon

CAN YOU WRITE?

When you write a letter to the folks at home or to some friend you OWE a letter, do you confine yourself to such statements as "I am well," "Had a good time," "Guess you are having a good time," "Must close now," or do you tell of matters and happenings that will interest the person you are addressing? If you are one of the latter, you may possess the art of writing about things of interest to all.

Loosen up and be natural on paper and write something you think might interest other people for the Literary Edition of Student Life which comes early in April. If you don't care to write in the humorous vein which the Magpie wants, or writing in the journalistic style of Student Life doesn't appeal to your fancy, then perhaps your own, particular forte is "themes," short magazine articles, wild west stories, biographical sketches, human interest stories, or like literary effort. If it is, you have an excellent chance of getting your work in the Literary Edition.

Remember, the edition will have a circulation of one thousand copies and will go to all parts of Utah and adjoining states, so it will be no small honor to be among the list of contributors.

Hand contributions to any of the following: Lucile Talmage, Thatcher Allred or Pearl Oberhansley, editors of the Literary Edition

What Aggie Alumni Are Doing

J. Howard Maughan left the college in 1916 and took his athletic attainments to Beaver where he was coach for one year at the Murdock Academy. He left Beaver to join the army and was with the Aviation Corps for 18 months. Since his return from the army he has been applying agricultural knowledge to his farm near Lava Hot Springs, Idaho. Mr. Maughan was a man with a record while at college. He was student body president in his junior year. He was dramatic manager one year. He won two "A"s in debating, two in basketball, one in track and he also won a membership into the Gamma Sigma Delta, the National Honorary Agricultural Fraternity.

Floyd Johnson of the class of 16, is teaching in his home town in Preston in the Oneida Academy. Mr. Johnson is a charter member of the Booklovers club.

Willis A. Smith, another 1916 graduate, taught one year at Ricks Academy and is now principal of the city schools of Rexburg. He is also superintendent of the Fremont Stake Sunday Schools. Although a Benedict, Mr. Smith managed to win the Thomas Medal for debating in his Junior year and found time to sing with the Glee club.

J. W. Olsen, '13, is colloquially known as Agronomy Olsen by his students in the Oneida Stake Academy. He also has a reputation for punctuating the end of every sentence with "what not." He married Leona Cowley, who graduated from the A. C. in 1912. Mrs. Olson taught ooking in the L. D. S. U. for one year prior to her marriage.

Since his graduation in 1914 Oswald Christensen has taught Mechanic Arts at the Oneida and the Ricks Academies. Mr. Christensen was a Benedict and an "A" man in tennis.

Stephen R. Boswell, another '16 alumnus, made his start managing the Idaho Experiment Farm. He recently left Idaho to be County Agent for Summit, Utah.

Sport Notes

The third week of March will see the initial games of baseball at the A. C. The "pill artists" of each class will be given a thorough chance to show whether or not they can become "Ty" Cobbs. The class series this year will consist of twelve games. Each class will play each of the other classes two games and the championship will be decided on a percentage basis.

Letter men will be allowed to compete in this. The coach intends to pick from this series a squad of fifteen men to make up the first squad. The games of the class series will be four innings each. The teams will be expected to be on hand promptly at 4:15 p. m. the days that they play.

Coach Romney announced that the following men will act as class baseball and track captains:

Baseball
Freshman—R. S. Belnap.
Sophom—"Luke" Falck.
Juniors—"V" Hansen.
Seniors—Leslie Bowen.

Track

Freshman—Paul Dorius.
Sophom—"Frog" McDonald.
Juniors—Clyde Worley.
Seniors—Stan Anderson.

The following is the class series for baseball:

Schedule
March 8—Sophom vs. Seniors.
March 9—Fresh vs. Juniors.
March 10—Juniors vs. Sophom.
March 11—Seniors vs. Fresh.
March 12—Fresh vs. Sophom.
March 13—Seniors vs. Juniors.
March 15—Sophom vs. Seniors.
March 16—Fresh vs. Juniors.
March 17—Sophom vs. Juniors.
March 18—Seniors vs. Fresh.
March 19—Fresh vs. Sophom.
March 20—Seniors vs. Juniors.

City Lady (down on the farm)—
"Oh, what cute little cowlets!"

"Farmer—"Pardon me, lady, but they are bullets."—Red and Black.

When a farmer wants to say something very disdful about the game of golf he refers to it as cow pasture pool.
