LABOR WILL DO IT

"Patience and perseverance overcomes all obstacles" says an old saw and very true it is as shown by the winners of the conference pennant. Regarding the season with several war recruits Dick Romney has proved that "We're sure got the men and it's only our grass that's green."

Everyone expects a leading team to win but when a "rank" team, (as our friend Hancock says) steps in and worthily receives the laurel wreath position more thrill comes to the players and supporters of such a team.

Scries will bring in the gridiron history that Utah Aggies were the first to bring an undisputed championship to Utah. To have the distinct honor of being a member of this already famous team is an experience more worthy of note than it may seem at the present a great deal of personal as well as general satisfaction comes to anyone who aids in placing his institution to the fore in its past history one of which is to be proud and an inspiration to those that follow.

EDUCATION IS WHAT WE MAKE IT

Paraphrasing the well known line, "Life is what we make it" is not real, "Education is what we make it." Being born into the world with consciousness, it may be said that we have a certain stream in that consciousness which will carry us along thru life in a narrow sense, but the enlargement of our knowledge thru hard work, and the attainment of certain forms are set to follow when we enter college and altho we may glide along on a easy path so far as marks are concerned we may have many thorns to pick out of our conscience when we do the cap and gown. Many opportunities may be knocked but few were answered. Too often the college student fails to harken to events that are common outside the idealistic world in which he lives and consequently when he is pushed off the nest his air castles crumble under the weight of the world of care. The ideal, materialistic duties that no time can be spared to attend to are really after all the character builders in gaining an education.

KEEP THE HALLS CLEAN

Are you proud of the Thanksgiving victory? Do you ever sense a thrill of joy when you read of the standards of the A. C. Why then wouldn't you feel the same joy when you notice that the halls and premises are clean? Do you know what a hall littered with dirty boxes and papers does to the students as they are forming life long habits. It denotes carelessness in manners and most of all a lack of respect for the institution.

Are you forming well in college a careless, slovenly habit? A habit that may knock down where others may stand in advance. A habit that will eventually grow to be a part of your nature. If you don't care about your nature let your respect for the school predominate. While you are demonstrating your admiration for the school's higher achievements, give a little for the lesser essentials. Make your campus one that you would be proud to show to the conference at Washington.

SHOW THE HOOP GAME IN!

Following close in the wake of the gridiron sport comes the king of indoor attractions, the heated hoop game.

From rumblings heard and overheard, when Dick sounds his trumpet for aspirants to become knights of the abbreviated toss a royalty will turn out that will make it extremely difficult to choose but one first quintet. Several former high school stars will run up close to the veteran varsity representatives making competition the keenest perhaps, in the history of the sport at the College.

A THREE DOW STORY

"Teacher—What shall we say this morning?"
"That—That song about a little doggie."

"Teacher—We don't know one about a little doggie."
"Tom—Oh yes we do. Don't you know, that one that 'Up tip in the sky'?"

"Fanny in Spanish—Chas—Mr. Clark, what is a pronoun?"
"Cyril—Why is it?"
"Fanny—Mr. Clark, don't you know a pronoun is a little-servant device used by heaves?"

PLAPPER SONG

Delta kappa Kappa, Kappa Gamma Mu, Pearl River and wild yams, Pine flavored blue—Chas. Phi. Delta and time, Delta Sigma Nu, Delta Sigma Nu, Delta Sigma Nu—LIFE.

Dude: What do you do, doing with that coat?"
Teacher: Looking for Pearl.

After the, the last argument is faded of universal brotherhood is gone line.

Who's Who In College

Harold Mitchell, called the playful title of "Dedication" by offering with his doll on the stage of the Thess House a few years ago after which he became a B. Z. The fellow at the house all pick up in which whenever there is a job to be done instead of making, when he does come out, he is in a hurry, when the much talk said, when the egg was fresh, and in short, everything that came across his mind, he says one of these mornings there will be a new world and then they'll be gone. They're played on him, he's very touchy, but he's a good fellow, a lot of writing on tables, at which time he recites the gratuity.

Teacher Alfred: He is that tall, handsome fellow that the girls all go for the first time they see him. However, he is already spoken for. They have been going into the Morton soon, and it is expected that he will play a clean, having played leading man in last year's College play and being a prominent member of the Periwig club. He is living at the Pi Zeta house at present, though rumors are that he is looking for apartments, he says he's got to buy a Pierce Arrow sometime soon day.

MEETING TURNED INTO JUBILEE

Thru his spokesman student body president E. J. Doherty waved his hand over the assembly and gently called the students back to earth. He tried then to again buckle down to serious work but to no avail, our students were not to forget our lessons for future profits.

Judge Bullen was first to expostulate. He did not want to growl all hand over the assembly and gently called the students back to earth. He tried then to again buckle down to serious work but to no avail, our students were not to forget our lessons for future profits. Judge Bullen was first to expostulate. I will now sing you a rollicking new song entitled, "My Old Cow Low the Long Hax to Tim a Look in it."

Pink—"Twas a awful cold in my land." "Well, that's something."

Both Steve Dehl and Judge Bullen claimed we are still celebrating it. We know several fellows who would like to get on the outside of some of us.

The papers have changed everything to suit themselves. They've even left one of the editors off of the list at the top of the conference standing, and gave us a "perfect 100."

Them—Clayde Worley has 12 hours to make in two days. We don't you think he can do it?

History was made last Thursday and yet editors beg to inform you that HISTORY REPEATS ITSELF.

Doc Weston—You must locate the patients. Doc Parkinson—Where shall I set the leg?

Judge Bullen says that Monday is New Year's day. He said he has left the college to turn over to a new host.

Homer Porrett—Now look as if you were looking at a dead man.

Blanche Worley—Before or after?

Ball Lake Moore (to her mother Mary): "Now be good and take your Soothing Syrup, and when you grow up you may mark 'ROTTEN' on their head A. C. boys."

From an old Student Life: To the U. of U.—"There it comes a time some day."

Are Bullen says he got spirit (a) after the game. (Yes) not alone Judge's.

Hahn—"Well, do you think yourself this year anyway?" "vins—Well, to tell you the truth, I'm the best of you."

Dr. Wallace informs us that Dr. Frank Wood has to be a green Green, freshman.

(That's why to believe Frank.)

POOR MAN GOT RESULTS

A Christian in a railroad town just before the service was called to the vestibule to meet a couple who wanted to be married. He explained that there wasn't time for the ceremony.

"But," said he, "if you will be seated, I will give you an opportunity at the end of the service to come for me."

The couple agreed, and at the proper moment the clergyman came to the altar.

"Will those who wish to be united in the holy bond of matrimony please come forward."

Thereseon thirteen women and one man crowded to the altar.

Boast a Free Hold On The Rocky Mountain Conference Title

The 1922 Buzzer Section

It was his first day at school so he wandered what an odd one he was. He knew that it was something about all about it. This is what he told him.

I entered the hall of the main building and without knowing the reason I entered two lights of mine and found myself in a dark, low hall and on the third floor I thought it was all over. I was in a hall as indescribable I entered myself in for a long time, and finally was able to make a few distinctions. I could hear the definite click of a buzzer, the voices of men, the scratching of pens and were down people, the continuous sound of many voices and the quiet move of the quiet bench. Then an awful thing happened. A man came and I went myself on the floor of the door that kept me from seeing things I heard.

In one corner of the room was a table, the buzzer, the man was in his hair, with one hand and more to a pencil with the other. He was the man who was down to the floor.

Wendell Thompson sat near the desk with advertisements and saw the buzzer. He was in a little stall at the side, outside people.

He was busy with the buzzer and was producing a buzz. He was in a little stall at the side, outside people.
