"TWEENTH NIGHT" SELECTED FOR COLLEGE PLAY

Play Will Be Read This
Week And Cast Selections
Made Soon; To Be Given Spring Quarter

Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" has been chosen as the college play for this year, by Miss Ivy Maud Pratt, director of Dramatics. Miss Pratt expects to read the play at the end of this week or the beginning of the following week and hopes to have the try-outs before the end of this quarter, so that rehearsals can begin immediately after the beginning of the Spring quarter.

There are a great many excellent parts in this play and many contestants are expected. Miss Pratt advises that all students intending to act should acquire a book and read the play over before it is read by the actors so that they will have a part in mind.

There is a very timely suggestion in the introduction to the play, "This year we have many who tried out for the various parts for the first time after they had been in the college several times before the final selection was made. "Alice Smith" of the "Twelfth Night" play, who was in the college last year, and all those who will remember to see it one of the first times when at the College, and who so merited the admiration of each of those who took part.

It is not necessary that the contestants have a long training period to try for the various parts. In fact those who try for the first time after they have been in the college several times before the final selection was made. "Alice Smith" of the "Twelfth Night" play, who was in the college last year, and all those who will remember to see it one of the first times when at the College, and who so merited the admiration of each of those who took part.

Salt Lake Attorney Is Chapel Speaker; Patriotic Services

H. L. Mulliner Pays Tribute to Washington, Lincoln, and the War; Will Give Chapel Speech Last Monday

Attorney H. L. Mulliner of Salt Lake was the speaker at the regular weekly chapel exercises held at the College Monday afternoon. The service took the form of a tribute to George Washington, the commander-in-chief of the United States Navy, and the late President of the United States.

Attorney Mulliner took for his text the quotation from Emerson: "That country is the fairest which has the noblest men." He gave examples of the noble men who had led this nation to the present state among the nations of the earth.

Washington, Lincoln, and Wilson, were the examples given. He spoke of the noble men who have led this nation to the present state among the nations of the earth.

Committee Appointed To Take Charge of Annual Day—Governor Ball Discusses Basketball Awards For Third Year

"A" day is to be held this year on Friday, April 25, according to a decision of the Executive Committee at its session last Saturday. No definite program for the day was decided upon but a committee composed of Pearson Ballinger, chairman, John Croft and Ray Gardner, was appointed to draw up tentative plans. They should have in mind to find something that needs doing on "A" day, the big problem being as in former years to decide that improvement is the most needed on the campus.

The problem of the third-year award in basketball and track was also discussed. It seems that the sported solid title robe cannot be obtained at a reasonable price. The matter was turned over to Mr. Croft for further investigation.

Paving Expert Ross Lectures To Students

In the lecture hall Thursday to the Agricultural Engineering students of the College, District Engineer R. E. Ross, of the Warrenton, Ore., Multnomah County Paving Company, explained the principles involved in the pavement carried on the company represents, and pointed out the conditions to which it is best adapted. He also gave some valuable information on the methods of testing material used in pavements.

Flowers At Formal Dances Out of Date In Eastern Schools

At a recent meeting of the National Association of Business Men, it was found fashionable for co-eds to wear corsages at formal dances, according to information received last night from a River and Gold correspondent in the East.

A story is told of a visiting woman at a large university in the Middle West. The visitor had been invited to a large formal dance, and where he could obtain flowers for his date. The ladies expressed surprise that anyone should buy flowers for such an occasion. It was explained that at that university it had long since ceased to be the custom for corsages to be worn at dances.

Tryouts
For Wrestling
Team
This Afternoon

Aggie Hoopsters Will Close Season With Games In Salt Lake This Week

The Aggies after two disastrous encounters with the B. Y. U. have two more chances in Utah to redeem themselves and finishing the season. As the Brigham Young Cougars have already won the championship of the only bearing the games will have to do to terminate second and last place, Utah, at present, trailing her other competitors in going to put forth one final effort to lift themselves aloft from their lower berth and sink the Aggies into the shimmering rank of the season.

Wrestling Tryouts To Be Held Tonight

Couch George Nelson will select a squad of grapplers to represent the Aggies on the mat this year in final try-outs tonight in the Smart gym. Two months of hard training have been spent by the Aggie players to be in the best of shape for tonight's go. Candidates for this event are more evenly matched than

Candidates for the team are: F. J. Decker, 125 pounds; J. V. Gardner, 140 pounds; George Doolan, 175 pounds; Stewart Starr, 135 pounds. In the 145 pound class are: Lector Bishop, Chester Chambers, Frank Stevens, Stanley Clark, W. C. Walter, and T. G. Walters are fighting it out. Milton Price, 150 pounds; Victor Terry, 154 pounds; A. E. Bennett, 160 pounds; Leslie Nelson, 175 pounds; B. G. Childs, 160 pounds; Bert Gardner, 175 pounds; and Lloyd Nuffer, 175 pounds, are other candidates of great ability.

Final bouts are expected between Frank Stevens and Lector Bishop in the 145 pound class; Lloyd Nuffer and Bert Gardner in the 175 pound class; and W. C. Walters and Stewart Starr in the 135 pound class.

From this array of talent George Nelson expects to choose the strongest group of mat artists the school has ever collected to fulfill this schedule. On March 8, the A. C. team men are booked to meet the Idaho College at Caldwell, followed by a dual meet with Utah's best on March 15, and finally the State meet at Salt Lake, March 22nd.

University of California—Two drawings from recent issues of the Pelican, the University of California's humorous publication, have appeared at the same time in a current issue of Judge, national humor magazine. This represents a step ahead in Pelican art work and is the first time any other periodical has received such double recognition. The issue was not a college number.

P. M. G. #24, editor of the Pelican, who has recently returned from the east declares that cartoons, including the Pelican, as one of the leading humorous publications of the country.

The starting "U" lineup will undoubtedly be Collett, center; Robert and Neely, forwards; and Jones and Watkins, guards.

As these two games close the basketball season, Coach Romney will begin laying plans for his track trainees as a number of the men have been working for something in doors. Together with "B" Morrison, captain of the team, the coach is already rounding up the more promising track athletes.

Coach Romney will select a squad of grapplers to represent the Aggies on the mat this year in final try-outs tonight in the Smart gym. Two months of hard training have been spent by the Aggie players to be in the best of shape for tonight's go. Candidates for this event are more evenly matched than

ROMNEY'S CLAN DROPS BOTH GAMES TO SPEEDY COUGAR QUINT; BAKER AND INGERSOLL STAR

Friday and Saturday last, in the Smart gym, Coach Romney's courtiers allowed the Brigham Young U. hoopsters to make a clean sweep on the local floor for the first time in the basketball history of the two schools. The Cougars 26-27 victory in the first encounter clinched the title for the Provoites. With Romney's number 1 tucked away in the "U" monitor matched his second raters against Romney's best in the first half of Saturday's game. In the second half both teams activated the floor, Romney's 7 points vs. "U" variety. With a 7 point lead, Romney's 7 points vs. "U" variety. With a 7 point lead, Romney's 7 points vs. "U" variety.

Friday night, a slow battle during the first half, which ended 15-10 for Provo, turned out to be a thriller. With the count standing at 21-10 at the beginning of the third quarter the blue and white took the offense, and kept the sphere in local territory during the major portion of the quarter.

Clifford Crowther, substituted for Baker at forward and Baker for Hammond at center two minutes before the final whistle. The lanky substitute came through with two sensational goals from the field, bringing fans to their feet on both occasions and raising A. C. stock to its maximum.

Friday night, Newell "Red" Saunders was the outstanding performer for the Aggie contingent. "Hot" led the forward line, three goals from the field and sped down the court for two counters himself. Our weekly song bit is entitled: DON'T YOU THINK HEATHER, I HAVE TO MAKE DATES TOO.

I kissed her in the dark,
I kissed her in the door;
But when I saw that face—
I never kissed her more.

Mark—You look sweet enough to kiss.

Who said I did?

Tarras doesn't think that Lamon will see much of his music while playing in the Capitol orchestra during the Biorelle Yacheltine.

Little Willie, punch as well. Shaved his sister down a belt. And his mother drawing water. Said, "I'd had to raise a daughter."

One of the editors says that it is most embarrassing to have a girl remember the line you sprung on her three years ago.

Tarras says that some of the naughty dancers of the college must have thought that the Military Ball was a war dance.

"ERMA, I'VE BOUGHT TWO TICKETS FOR THE 'OLD SOAK'."

"OH, ERN, I'D JUST THAT TOO."

"DON'T YOU WANT HOME TO-NIGHT?"—Ex.

Red Hayward—Way do you think I would make such a good artist.

Dorothy Weisley—You have such good hair to carry a pencil.

Ann Brandwell—Have you taken this way to say other girl?

Grant West—No my love, I'm at my best tonight.

Fish in the ocean
Fish in the sea.
Hair waves and hair nets
Make a fish out of me.

Now that the college political race is about to start, Tarras expects the candidates to get busy and buy him hair.

Prof. Fletcher—I just got my ticket to the Sororia Yacheltine.

My kio—Howat?

Prof. Fletcher—I saw the package the continue came to me.

My dad was never good to me, was never nice and kind, For he would lay me on his knee And stridle me from behind.

NOW THAT SPRING HAS COME, THE COLLEGE LAWNS WILL RUN THE HEATERS A CLOSE SECOND.

"Am I the first girl you ever loved?"

"Well, at least the first red-headed one."

There was a Freshman so dumb that he shaved three times before he found there wasn't a blade in his razor.

Bonhom: "What's that, Bonhom?"

Holliman: "That's the football coach."

Bonhom: "I thought all football coaches had wheels."

GIRLS' AND BOYS' RIFLE TEAMS VICTORIOUS

Battalion Team Defeats Oregon U.; Women Submerge Cornell Rifle Shooters

In a double-header telegraphic rifle shoot Saturday February 16, the Aggies brought home a double victory—the Battalion team defeated Oregon U. by a 2,300-2,024 score, and the women's team halved the Cornell rifleletes to the tune of 475-444.

Webster of the A. C. rifle team opened the day in leading the scores of both teams, with a total of 345. Waldo Osmond came second with 345 points, followed by Peak of Oregon with 240 counts.

In the women's event Miss Benson won high honors, registering 95 of a possible 100.

Wealth of Material In Cinder Path Department For Aggies This Spring

Utah Aggie tracksters are looking forward to a banner year in the Spring sport. Prospects for a winner were never better.

Lead by Hy Morrison, star hurdler and short distance runner, Coach E. L. Romney's athletes are already running in the open, rounding into best possible shape for early intercollegiate competition.

With Jack Croft, and Hy Morrison to run the hurdles; Sterling Anderson, Cecil Baker, and Mortenson at the 100 and 220 yard dashes, Malcolm Linton, Harvey Kirk, Frank Oberhauser, Sterling Anderson, and Bill Godes for the quarter-mile event; and Byron Whitton and Donald Allen competing for honors in the distance races the blue and white cinder-path-men have on hand an array of spectators.

While Croft and Hy Morrison should count out high in the score column, along with an array of invincible field artists.

WESTERN NORTH HAVEN

Henry Webster, Tony Lunt, Dated Knowles, and Jack Croft are the mainstays of the team.

With second place in the conference voting on the shoulders of the Logan athletes, Coach "Dick" cannot help but feel optimistic over present prospects, with practically the same material back with the added year's experience.
