Bidding for Woodside and position will be Hamilton and Crowther of this years variety and Margdale from the Freshman squad. For the tackle positions Linford, Ricketts, Pratt, and Howe should shine particularly. Jeffs will lead Ken come center with Gardner. Two years old back and line are Gray and Smith. For the Fresh. Halfback, Smith will bid for Wood's berth as fullback and Derzsign, Deddon, Hurren, Sutton, and Anderson run line strong for the half back. Many one left vacant by Knowles. Floyd Gardner from the Fresh. eleven three-years ago will be back. A school next fall and out for the role of fullback.

For the material and the which springs up each year's rotation, Tommy should place a formidable eleven in the field.

The fat girl sat on the strong man's knee
And slap-it was a blunder
He trawls with the circus yet
He's now the legless wonder.

Pink-Jeff:—Hey? What's the matter with this line?
Cassie:—It seemed to work right on the circus.

Quit that.
What are you doing?
Is that the kind of boy you are?
I'll scream.
You're the best fellow who ever got out.
There goes my hat.

that will continue for at least two years in the game held in Ogden each fall. On October 31, the Colorado Aggies will be our guests at the home game. While in Colorado, Coach Romney also made arrangements for several games in the next two years. No date could be found for Denver U. in 1925, but a two-year agreement was made whereby they come here in 1926 and Logan team goes there in 1927. The U. of Colorado was also desirous of a game this coming year but a date could not be set. They will play at home in 1927.

The Aggie schedule at the present time is as follows:

October 2, 1925.....	Open
October 31, 1925.....	Ogden Mines at Ogden
October 37, Montana Mines at Butte
November 24, " " B. Y. U. at Logan
October 31, Colo. Aggies at Ogden
November 4, " " Wyoming at Ogden

5. As a fashion "bobbed hair" is too expensive. It is much like an automobile. The first cost is slight compared to the expense of upkeep. When a girl has her hair "bobbed", in order to be in style, she usually visits the Marrelle shop frequently to have a wave put in her hair. In a climate such as one finds in the Backs mountains a Marcel wave

The doubles' matches are nearing the final rounds. Those players who are failing to play their scheduled matches are having them forfeited. The probable finalists are Baker-Merrill vs. C. Merrill-Harris.

The handball sport seems to have been adaptable to the athletic inclinations of the Merrill family as last year Ray Merrill was the winner of the tournament.

The men who have ridden to the top in 155 pound class are J. C. Trotter and Kilburn. The likely diagonals in the 155 pound section are George Doobla, Butch, J. Tarpes, D. Homer. The 145 pound champions again, Egbert, Merrill, G. W. and M. Homer. The middle weights are Tallant, Harris and T. J. Tarpes. The 135 pounders are Oscar, J. Nelson and Cook and the heavy department are Ness and Pratt. Knowledge, Gardner, M. Harris and Terry have been the star Argie teams and are among the most likely amateurs in the pool. Some of the new men are shown rare prospects.

The new wrestling meet will be held in Lewiston this year on June followed by the conference meet at Laramie on March 7. The winners of the state meet will be eligible for participation in Wyoming. The
