PAK HELLIC COSMICAL DRAMAS

New Organ Accepted
By Greek-lettered Men of Campus.

Unsolvable Disputes to Be Placed in Hands of Institution President.

At a recent meeting of representative of the Greek-letter organization of the College, a revised Pan-Hellenic constitution was drafted. The new organ is changed only in small from the one heretofore in force and contains the signatures of the following fraternities: Sigma Phi, Phi Kappa Alpha, Phi Kappa Uta, Delta Nu, Alpha Delta Epsilon, Alpha Gamma Phi, Omicron Tau and Psi Beta Beta.

The general spirit of the drafting committee, which consisted of one representative from each fraternity, was to approximate the Greek lettered men of the campus, but in previous breaks in Pan-Hellenic has been to misunderstandings and the lack of power in the institution to enforce its rulings. To remedy the situation it has been agreed that all such activity in so far as that activity affects Pan-Hellenic members, shall be governed by the council in case a satisfactory solution cannot be reached, the matter shall be referred to the President of the institution. This is a relief, the way of the revised constitution.

According to Professor Robinson who has been connected somewhat with the council since it made its debut in 1916, the breaks in Pan-Hellenic have been almost perpetual. He expressed the view at an early meeting that if a general and outside concern had power to enforce rules and regulations made by the council, it would go far in reducing to a minimum those periodical breaks.

During the series of meetings following, the remedy suggested by Professor Robinson was adopted and out of the confusion to place unsolvable matters in the hands of the President, was reached. The new constitution was referred to the fraternal fraternities for ratification Sunday and according to what can be learned, has been unanimously adopted.

SPENCER TAKES HIGH HONORS

Davis Caps Second.

George Spencer, Delta Nu and member of the Student Body executive committee carried off high honors as popular man, while Dave Davis, Psi Kappa and Student Body president and Earlie Hulse, Phi Kappa and football star, returned as second number of popularity. The popularity of the two was in the limit for the W. S. Ball Saturday night.

"Chor up follows every one can see the first and second place and one of you have been chosen the affections of several girls on that your name was honored in preference to any other fellow in the crowd. And don't you be so modest in the W. S. Ball. Not only just one boy, but he has preferred you over all the others." It was by this that they manifested it by handing your name to the committee.

The campaign which seemingly has been carried on by the freshmen of the fairer sex, was not made public. The truth of the campaign is not so much for the freshmen as it is for the seniors as a reality.

ATTENTION FLOSH!

The nomination of Freshman officers will be held on Friday, Sept. 16, at 1:00 p. m. in the assembly hall. The election will take place on Friday following Tuesday at 1:00 p. m. in the assembly hall.

In every old college town there is at least one store you think of when that magic word "Style" trips off the tongue. The store which, by past performance, has gained the confidence of students in the presentation of authentic style. A store which has won that confidence fairly by displaying unusual judgment and resourcefulness in gathering and selecting exclusive models to delight the hearts of discriminating style followers. In Logan, Stockton Christensen Co., is such a store.

"Abie's Irish Rose," the comedy sensation by Anne Nichols, which is at the Capitol Friday 15, is now in its fourth year at the Republic Theatre, New York, and is the outstanding hit of the metropolitan. It has played to capacity audiences in record-breaking engagements in Washington, Buffalo, Baltimore, Montreal, Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Toronto, Chicago, Cincinnati, Kansas City, St. Louis, Louisville, Los Angeles and San Francisco, etc., etc. It has demonstrated that the public heartily enjoys clean, wholesome entertainment, for there is nothing suggestive in any action of the play. It is a problem. It dispenses pure, clean humor from the rise of the curtain until its fall, and elicits roars of laughter every minute. It will be presented by a cast of well-known metropolitan players and a few of pretty bridesmaids.

Seats are now selling at the box office.

GREAVES AND HIRST REVIEW FLOUR BULLETIN

Chances Which Occur During Ageing Process Not Definite; Review in American Miller.

An extensive review of the bulletin, "The Influence of Storage on the Composition of Flour," written by Dr. Joseph E. Greaves and Professor C. T. Hirst of the Utah Experiment Station, published in the October number of the American Miller.

This review says, in part: "The general belief among millers and bakers that flour improves on ageing, prompted these investigations which have been in progress since 1921. An attempt to find the basis for this belief revealed that there is no definite information as to the time requisite for this improvement nor whether it reaches a maximum and then deteriorates. The information is no more exact as to the changes which occur during the ageing process or the conditions which govern them."

"Baking tests in these phases of the problem," Greaves and Hirst, in 1921 selected various samples of flour milled from new wheat and stored them in a moist room and analyzed when first obtained and also at the end of one, two and four weeks. Standard methods of analysis were used throughout.

"From the results recorded from these analyses, the investigators felt justified in concluding that high milled flour, made from sound wheat can be stored in dry room free from odors for at least four years without deteriorating, while poor grade flour, or wheat stored under the same conditions for the same length of time deteriorates to such an extent that four years

VARSITY GRID BASKETBALL OPSETS DOPE AT DENVER U

Set Back Coach Dawson's Highly Touted Ministers By Score of 13 To 0

Aggies Display Versatile Attack Before Record Crowd.

Romney Eyes Ops of Sport Lovers With Wonder Team.

The Utah Aggie football team all ways the exemplar of the unexpected—broke into the foremost rank of the Rocky Mountain grid powers Saturday when they set back the highly touted Denver minister by the score of 13 to 0. Administration, with a defeat by the Utah farmers over the brand new ministerial team, the great Denver team, former Nebraska minister, was entirely unlooked for as it was really almost to look to be true.

Probably playing before the conference record crowd the Aggies displayed a more versatile attack and with Hawley, hummering, the center of the line and Thomas and Gendler skirting it they seemed to maintain ample reserve power for the critical moment which brought the victory in the opening Denver game of the new season.

Denver stadium, the largest between Minnesota and the coast and one of the eight best in the world.

On the other hand, Howard and Miller, starting for Denver, had when the same effect but the much needed punch was not, to be had.

Things looked black when in the first few minutes of play Denver got a break when they punned to Utah's one yard line assisted by a fumble. Nevertheless Hawley pointed out of danger and Miller kicked back which brought a 20 yard gain for the Aggies. The ball regained back and north thereafter to Denver territory until a pass from Loddington to Thomas was executed with Thomas making a 20 yard run—touchdown for the Utah club.

Lindford failed to kick goal and the score stood 6 to 0, Denver 6.

After the kickoff the minister machine opened up a brilliant attack that carried the ball deep into Utah territory but was here checked, lost the ball, and shortly after the half ended.

The second half progressed with expenditure of forward passing, running and exchange of punts with but one time for the Utah team when a fumble was recovered by their opponents in dangerous territory. This lasted but a short time, and after getting back to normal for but a few minutes, the crowd broke through in the line for as Thomas darted thru the line for another 35 yard run and a touchdown. Thomas the flashy Utah kick who

Golf Makes Its Debut; Champions Are in Training

Delta Nuts Hold Lead; Hard Pressed in Race by Sigma Alpha.

With the coming of the new school year came the renewing of the famous game of golf. Sometimes during the morning and every afternoon some celebrities of the game may be seen on the green swinging a golf club at a little white ball and yelling at the top of their voices "Fore!" then by some accident hitting the ball (which didn't) always to the right direction) he picks up his clubs and trudges along. There is the life of a golfer, daily training in part of his schedule.

Such is high competition between the President, Professor Arnold, and by the way, the general President can hold his own with any of them.

It is reported that in a game the other day between Professor Arnold and Arla McKinnon, the former got so excited and frustrated that he drove the "tee" with his fist and stung his hands unmercifully.

MEXICAN ATHLETICS

By Tarrus Tossers
OUR WEAKLY BOND HIT is the worst of the United States. Which it was, you soon forget me.

Prof. Arnold, in Latin: "The next game we arrive at in our daily flight—'next! next! next!' etc."

A clergyman was recently conducting a funeral in Arizona when two birds were fired in the street outside the church. The undertaker at once rushed out but returned in a few minutes wearing a satisfied smile. "I've secured both of those funerals," he whispered to the parson.

During a call upon the Delta by the Omega Team, Howard Gunderson was asked if he could play a violin.

"By jove, I don't know—I've never tried," he volunteered.

Tarrus suggests the new name of "Grid Grift" for the Grid Screen.

Ervin Harris announces that he is here to study.

Tarrus just received word of the complaint filed by La Griffin and Miss Backlund against the board of directors of the Delta Xeta, charging them with inadequate passenger service on the freight trains.

ELDER BALLARD SPEAKS AT WEEKLY CHAPEL MON.

It should not be afraid to know the truths of science but should not build their own conclusions on the theories of others. The truth of science and the truth of religion will coincide when all is known about both.

"Work is necessary to life," continued Apostle Ballard. "Those who think they are being trained to get out of work are fooling themselves. Personal joy derived from serving others is far ahead of mere money."

The greatest thing in the world is the noble material reward.

Apostle Ballard remarked that many people, who were remembered in the Hall of Fame, who never saw fame but came to it by helping others. He gave to the students this new definition of success: "A successful man or woman is a man or woman whose line of living is almost parallel to his possibilities."

Apostle Ballard closed his address by calling attention to the fact that our whole national life is built around God, as the power by which we live, although satisfaction cannot be taught in public schools. He congratulated the students for coming to this college where there are no artificial conditions as possible.

Two sermons, "A Mighty Power" and "Grant Us This Prayer" were rendered by the choir and Professor William Peterson offered the invocation.

College Building At State Fair Elaborate

Six Animals Exhibited Table Prices; Owns Two The Ten Places by Each County.

For the first time in a number of years the work of the boys and girls clubs were exhibited at the state fair.

Over two hundred boys and girls brought their products, which represented the best of their summers work, to the fair and from these products eight hundred thirty-two entries were made in the boys and girls club work class.

The entries consisted of sewing, canning, field crops and live stock. The sewing and canning, which made up the big majority of the entries, were placed in the U. S. A. building along with the usual exhibit of pictures of the campus and college buildings. The boys exhibit of the stock and field crops, while not so numerous were of just-as-good-a quality and were placed in the different departments of the fair alongside entries of the same nature.

The live stock exhibit, made by the dairy husbandry department of the college, was exceptionally good. This was exhibited by the college, consisting of four Holsteins, one Herford and one Jersey, took the first prize, two second prizes, one third prize, one fourth prize, and one fifth prize, bringing the college about seventy-five dollars in premium money. The third that makes the winning of these prizes stand out more than usual, is the strong competition the college had. Among the close rivals were the Billwack farm of California, which has a one-hundred thousand dollar barn at the head of its herd, and Prof. A. B. Cook, of Montana, who has one of the largest herds of Herfords in the United States. The Holsteins alone was bigger this year than ever before, the Herford show was the biggest they have had for a number of years and the Jersey show was equal to any of the past.

The college, along with winning the highest prizes, owns two of the animals of the fair which were taken to any of the past.

For the Fresh, Wadsworth, and Gilchrist played consistent ball. The trio proved much trouble to the "V".

Parker and Warburton also played of exceptionally well.

For the Crimson, Everett, Sparks and Capt. Maughan carried the bullpen.

B. Y. C. And Frosh Battle To Scoreless Tie On The Crimson Field Friday

MONTANA STATE GAME POSTPONED

Gives Coach Three Weeks to Prepare For "Three Games in Nine Days."

Due to a conflict of games at Butte, Montana, the game which the Utah Aggies were scheduled to play next Saturday with the Montana State College of Mines, has been tentatively postponed until November 14 and will be played on Adams field. The scheduling of this game for November 14 means that the Aggies will play three games in nine days.

As the schedule now stands they will play on November 5, then on November 11 with the Wyoming University and three days later they will meet Montana. The postponing of this game gives Coach Romney about two weeks to prepare for the game with the B. Y. C. gridders over on October 24.

For sixty minutes Coach Hall's Freshman warriors battled the Crimson minutes to a stand-still, neither team being able to score. This interesting struggle was fought on the B. Y. field last Friday.

The Frosh won the admiration of the fans through their brilliant defense work, especially in the critical moments of the game.

During the first half the playing of both teams was mediocre, which resulted in a punting duel. Warburton receiving the edge.

In second half Coach Crookston's protégés scored a comeback and completely neutralized the opposition to fall as the Frosh defense tightened. In the last four minutes the B. Y. managed to get to the Aggie ten-yard line due to penalties, but were unable to kick it over, and Warburton kicked out of danger.

For the Frosh, Wadsworth, and Gilchrist played consistent ball. The trio proved much trouble to the "V".

Parker and Warburton also played of exceptionally well.

For the Crimson, Everett, Sparks and Capt. Maughan carried the bullpen.
