are as to be able to impart it to the student.

The condition is regrettable.

The period of college life is the time in which the philosophy of youth and the maturity of manhood develop. College life is the student's only life during those years. It shapes him in every point and is the chief molding force during what are the most crucial years of his history. All influences exerted during this period are likely to be profound and lasting. The effects of bad mental habits are likely to be disastrous if carried over into his post college, professional, business, or social life. Without the cultivation of a right method of work he remains handicapped from the days as a student to his very last days.

TRYOUTS FOR GIRLS' RIFLE TEAM COMPLETE

Seven Members of Last Year's Team Shoot Second Year; Hanson Capt Matches With Schools of Eastern States on Schedule; 16 on Team

The final tryouts for the Girls' Rifle Team were held last Thursday and Friday, November 13 and 14. Those who made the team, in the order of their scores, are as follows: Helen Spaulding, Iva Smith, Iva Johnson, Gertrude Asperger, Iva Woodall, Rosalind Hale, Eva Loree, Lydia Cummings, and Evelyn Madson. There are seven members of last year's team who will shoot again this year.

Leontia Clayton, House Adams, Lucille Olson, Alice Babson, Polly Rich, Vera Schaub, and Norman Hanson. Miss Hanson is captain of the team.

The first competition of the year with the University of Nevada, will be held the week after Thanksgiving. Challenges have been issued to a number of them accepted from the following colleges: Cornell University, U. of Washington, University of Vermont, University of Maryland, U. of Nebraska, Kansas, Oregon, and the University of Nevada. Two or three contests will take place each month.

A meeting of the team will be held Wednesday, immediately after Student Body meeting, in the Armory. It is important that all members be there.

DOPE SHEETERS BOOST SEASON'S GRID SCHEDULE

Utes Turn Back Cowboys in Closest Tussle in History of Laramie; All Con. 11 Predicted.

The Rocky Mountain Conference gridiron is nearing the close of one of the most successful football seasons ever attained. Almost without a hitch, according to faithful sport schedule has been the closest and most exciting ever staged by the respective teams.

Last week the "Flying Utes" turned back the Wyoming cowboys in the closest tussle ever fought in Laramie. The Crimson brawlers averted defeat by bowing in the lead by a margin of a single point. The score was 7-6 due to the failure of De-faire adding the additional point after a touchdown.

With this victory souled in the Laramie warriors continue in the race for the pennant. They are still tied with Colorado Aggies for the honors as Hagley's men are trampled over the "Mines" by a large score.

The "Cow" contest was again exciting on a terrific shake as the "Provo Cow" downed the Montana State last Saturday. The "Cowboys" led by the powerful "Chuck" Brown fought their way to a well deserved victory.

The stars throughout the conference who look for the "All Myself" players are Floyd Thomas, Cal Hadden, Duane of the Crimson, Hyde and Wagner of the Aggies, and Chubb of the Colorado "Chippies".

THREE VETERAN GRIDDERS PLAY LAST TOMORROW

Leddingham, Thomas and Jeffs Sensations to Conference Fans; "Eel" Finishes Fourth Season

The big Turkey day struggle will mark the leaving from football of three of the scrappiest and most successful players in the Rocky Mountain conference. Captain Clarence Leddingham, tricky Aggie pilot, little Floyd Thomas, the Aggie's Jeffs, the Farmers' "Pinky" Leddingham, has led the Aggies on the gridiron like a veteran general during the past season. He is a powerful line player, and is deadly accurate at passing. Thomas, a prominent halfback, has started four on numerous occasions through his ability to rack back punts and circle the ends for long gains this year.

MEXICAN ATHLETICS

By Taurus Toosers
Our Weekly Song Hit is entitled "I've handled a lot of men in my days, but none takes the Kansas."

"I can hardly stand to do this," said the college man as he looked thru the keyhole.

A girl in the dormitory would like to know what makes a piston ring.

"Take" Harris: "What's a genius?" Mike Cardon: "A genius is a man who can rewrite a red headed jake and get accepted by the Ladies Home Journal."

She: "Sleep are certainly dumb animals." He: "Yes, my lamb."

Tarner wishes to remind the Freshman again that they shouldn't hang around the Gym even if they are dumb bells.

We will now sing the old fashioned drink-song, "Waddle, I do!"

A Few Years Ago
Carmen Diaz says, what do you think of "black" Olcott?

Lillian Yocumson: Come on now, keep your mind out of the gutter.

Lenore Croft: I paid ten dollars for this beautiful embroidered handkerchief.

Dave Harro: That sure is a lot of money to blow in.

Coach: What's the matter with your legs—Charlie Horse?

Jeffs: No, Charleston Horse.

Two students ran into each other in the cafeteria entrance.
First: Pardon me, I'm a little stiff from gym.
Second: I don't give a darn where you're from.

Miss Kyle: What student was so rude as to touch me today?

Ray Hilt: I kiss your pardon, I laughed up my sleeve, but there's a hole in my shoe.

Clarence R. Campbell, the Denver grocer who owes his life to Deakins and other McPhillips, was hunting ducks with a friend when he broke overboard. The two men refused aid, confident in their ability to swim to shore. One man drowned, but Deakins and McPhillips were able to save Campbell who is taken to the Longmont hospital. Reports say that his chances for recovery are good.

Some Box Office Facts

About College Football
Ten million persons witnessed college games last year.

Thanksgiving day attendance at just fifteen games was more than 550,000.

One hundred thousand persons saw the California-Star game.

Seventy-five thousand saw Yale-Army game.

Eighty thousand saw Harvard-Army game.

Only receipts of all games were around $2,000,000.

It costs $25.00 to put a big college team on the field.

On college days 200 bulls in a week at $10 each.

More than 1300 employees are required to handle a game in the Yale bowl at a Harvard-Yale game.

NAT GREENE DARK HORSE IN ANNUAL HANDBALL MEET

First Round Matches Completed; Second Round Matches Played Today

Uppset Takes Milton Webb to Camp in Two Straight Games Friday

With the first round matches in the annual fall handball tournament completed, students are beginning to pick the likely winners.

Most of the winners have been 165 lb. contestants, requiring the three ball to decide the winner. Some of the veterans, however, may give the newcomers a run for their money.

The winners of the first round matches are: Warren, Wade, Howard, Nowell, Evans, Ellison, Johnson, Fisher, John Larson, Carlin, Greene, Clark, S. W. Wheeler, 175 lbs. Hagen, Gustafson, Hutchings, V. Larson, Peterson, P. E. Beecher and Vernon.

The players winning two games are Clark, Greene, Hutchings, and Larson.

One of the "dark horses" appearing during the week was Nathan Greene, who upset the veteran Bill Webb in two straight games.

Greene came back after a days rest and defeated P. Clark and now has a reputation in his credit and will undoubtedly be a strong contender in championship honors. Hutchings, another man who will bear watching, having two victories also under his belt.

One of the most exciting matches of the tournament was the game between Peters and Nowell. It took 2 games to decide the winner and the last game went extra rounds.

Nowell finally put over the two winning points, winning by the score of 24-25.

Manuel Karson, captain last year, will play in the second round matches but is expected to be out of the game.
