The Amendment

The constitution amendment before the student body for consideration last Wednesday received only fifteen negative votes—an indication that the student body is not in favor of handling student publications of years past and were strong for a remedy.

Being the subject of discussion, this column was content to stand by and trust to the discretion and exalted judgment of fellows. In analyzing the amendments incorporated it is found that you placed the editing and publishing of the faculty in their hands, and required of Managers a yearly and eight monthly financial report in addition to the regular reporting. For the work you offered fifty dollars a school year.

Not with the spirit of dissatisfaction, it is believed that although the amendment is a departure from what was originally contained in the constitution, it is not all that it might have been. Since Student Life and the Buzzer are distinctly on a separate plane as far as Managers are concerned, much better would it have been had the two publications not been given equal recognition.

Of the entire populace of western colleges and universities, ours has been the least student body to come under the form for the work done on student publications. At time passes, perhaps you will be fit to distinguish between our two publications—such distinction is desired.

Three Story Men

One story man, two story men and three story men with skylights, with specific illustrations of each type, was the essence of a chapel speech delivered some time since by E. C. Branson, professor of sociology. If delivering the speech did nothing else, it accomplished that which at the time was little realized, namely, furnishing a significant term to be coined by no less than those of our subsequent chapel speakers.

The term "three story men with skylights" was used here much as the name of those who reached success through the medium of this or that mode of living. Whether or no we accept the suggestions in our conquest of higher learning is left with us. Accept or reject, the fact that we have a new term for "great" and "successful" still remains and to Dr. Branson goes the glory. Would that another such be uttered by an originator of terms the most recent becomes time worn.

Satire

The editorial page today contains a column of satire under the heading "College Caricature" in which it is the purpose of the staff to "give vent to its feelings concerning a few things in general and everything in particular." We hide nothing and offer you the same privilege through the "Letters to the Editor" column. Perhaps we write to get you to writing or because we feel that all is not well in our sacred halls of higher learning. Whatever the motive, it makes little difference and all that is asked is that you read it and look for more some other time.

The column will be published just so often as subjects appear to write about it. It looks as if it will be a few weeks—it is hoped to be the direct antithesis, however. Don't take it as bunk. At times it will make an attempt to be clever, more often it will be terse and conspicuous with the absence of haughty terms. Suggestive subjects will be welcomed heartily.

COLLEGE CARICATURE

Print it and shame the fools.

"Throughout my vast experience,"—Page 1—have noticed to be the cause, which statement, from the lips of Virg, has about come to be the college pun-wort, and get, phrase of the squads who do their down on the tip to the case on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Truly, from the swabbing of rifles to the maneuvering of the troops Mr. Norton's abundance of "experience" is the sole savior of the U. A. C. army.

Egotism may be characterized by an undue desire for publicity. It is characterized by no organization of the campus will not allow such a voice to corrupt its standards and injure its popularity. A representative of the Theta society requested that she be given Student Life space for a feature article on the subject of page one across the bottom, and writing for me less than ten minutes, he seemed that her Society dictated to the student paper.

It is not intended to deprecate the qualities of the person who is at least passively interested in having some publicity, but the student body is not so easily duped, and a majority would not likely deem it advisable to do promiscuous broadcasting concerning any specific social functions, branding it, for instance, as an important event in the College's history.

If this publication of Student Life uses pseudonyms due to inferior material, why blame will society have to rest on the many shoulders of the revered president of Phi Delta Theta, Mr. Alfred, who in his sentiments of some time ago stated he would be too busy to put out an issue this quarter.

You other members of the forum, also fraternally seem to be an unnecessary list, and since my fair one and other matters equal importance come first, we shall not give the students a treat until next quarter.

Letters To The Editor

Professor N. W. Christensen, leader of the College Orchestra, wants to get in touch with you people underground, he mused; one he will teach to play the bass tub and the other the drums. All that is needed is a knowledge of music. Two students will be granted the free tuition.

Applications for Assistant Manager of Basketball will be received by Professor Roland this week, Friday at 12 o'clock of this week.

The Elks Federation of Women's clubs has a few $20 loans to make. No interest charges are made, but two signatures with those desiring the loan are required. Applicants may see Mrs. E. G. Peterson for particulars.

Eight typewriter pages on the "Use and Preservation of Harvard Manuscripts" have been lost by Dr. Greaves of the Undergraduate Department. Finder will please return to him at Student Life office.

Prof. Hofer will talk to the Science Club next Thursday at one o'clock in the faculty room. Students are invited to be present.

TWO WEEKS' DAIRY COURSE OPENS JAN 18

The Dairy department of the College will offer a two weeks short course beginning January 18, for operators and employees of these factories and creameries, according to an announcement made today by the Dairy Instructor, R. L. Hill, professor of chemistry. This dairy course will not take the place of the regular school course, but it is intended for those who have taken a longer course in dairymanship and who desire to return for a short time to brush up on special lines of work, and for those who have not attended a special dairy school, but who have had some experience in creaming and cheese factories and who desire to learn the latest developments of their problems, says Professor Hill. This course will meet the special requirements of those in attendance and, consequently, will be more feasible than the regular dairy course. Special arrangements will also be made to accommodate those who are interested in ice cream manufacture or "milk making."

An extensive teaching force has been arranged to take charge of the short course, including, besides Professor Calkins, Walter H. Daly, expert in dairy manufacturing, Wilford Cole, instructor in dairy manufacturing, E. L. Hill, professor of chemistry, Dr. Ezra Carter, assistant professor of bacteriology, W. T. Thum, assistant professor of accounting, W. W. Aiken, assistant professor of dairy science, and Emil Hansen, landscape architect, all of the College faculty and H. R. Leachy and S. J. Pearce, experts in dairy manufacturing of the United States Western Dairy Division. The College creamery is operated on a central basis and is equipped to give practical demonstrations and training both in the manufacture of dairy products and in the use of modern equipment of the creamery proper, the laboratories furnish facilities for interesting demonstrations.

No registration fee will be required of those attending, but all students of college equipped with white suits and waterproof footwear.

The 1926 football captain will be elected at the annual football banquet to be held Dec. 14.

Eat, drink and be merry—and maybe, tomorrow you'll have to borrow lunch money.

street, and Norman Christensen were appointed to formulate a constitution. One of the important things they will do is decide upon the requirements for entrance.

MAURICE G. HENDUS

MAURICE G. HENDUS is an author, orator and traveler, who is qualified as an expert in his discussions of conditions in Russia. Two years ago he spent Russia, traveling on horseback and working with the peasants to learn from their life how they received in the revolution, the Soviet government and America. His lectures are truly prophetic studies.

Machinery works: Man thinks
According to college tests, man develops one-eighth horsepower for short periods and one-twentieth in steady work. As a mechanic—a worker who uses brains—he is well worth his daily wage. But as a common laborer, matching brawn against motorized power, he is an expensive luxury.
With a fifty-horsepower motor, for instance, one man can do the work of 400 common laborers. He is paid far more for his brains than his brawn.
The great need of this and future generations is for men who can plan and direct. There is ample motorized machinery for all requirements of production and construction. But motorized machinery, no matter how ingenious, can never plan for itself.
And that is precisely where the college man comes in. Highly trained brains are needed more and more to think, plan, and direct tasks for the never-ending application of brawn-saving electricity.

Dr. Pedersen Gives Weekly Chapel Talk

"If you would be a close student of the word, you should, first, faith in God, second, contact with common people, and third, the deep love for the community in which you live," said Dr. N. A. Pedersen in the weekly chapel address Monday, December 7.

Dr. Pedersen gave as an example Theodore Roosevelt who had faith in God who was made better by his contact with the common people.

"There is something wholesome about the common man," continued Dr. Pedersen. The contact with him gives us something real and solid that shows us the way to live.

In continuing he mentioned the fact that the negro is scorned but that shows us the importance of him to realize the brotherhood of man.

"Get acquainted with the milk man and your landlady," he said. "And when you see time, get acquainted with your mother. She knows something to make you a story man."

Dr. Pedersen explained that it was not the money man who traveled farthest, but the laborer who was most great that made the laborer most great but the one who knew his own country. He cited Christ as an example because he did not travel out of a small country he dug down into it.

Dr. Pedersen continued his remarks by quoting Mark Antony who said that a man who has these qualities is a man.

The remainder of the program was a solo, "The Lord is My Light," by Professor Wilt, and a hymn, "O Son of the World," by the choir. Dr. Linford offered the prayer.

Pedersen and Peterson Attend Snow College Leadership Week
Dr. N. A. Pedersen and Dr. Henry Peterson attended the Leadership Week at Snow College, which was held December 2 to 4, inclusive, at Ephraim, Utah.

Dr. Peterson delivered a Department talk on "Literature in the Home." He also addressed the general assembly on "Relation of Literature to Modern Life." The talks were well received by large audiences.

Prof. Henry Peterson delivered an address on the department meeting on Wednesday afternoon, Philosophy of Adolescence; and at the Department Meeting Thursday morning, Psychology of everyday life. At the General Assembly Wednesday, the subject was Dynamic Human Nature.

In speaking of the annual Leadership Week, Dr. Peterson said that it was a great factor in stimulating education and assisting the people in the Southern part of the state to solve their practical problems.

A close relationship between the U. A. C. and Snow College is established by members of our faculty attending and participating in these meetings.

AM. AFFECTING MANAGER AND EDITORS PASSED
ton on the ground that the Buzzard manager had a large majority of his work to do in the spring of the year which required his staying after the close of school. Thus the temptation of leaving before bills outstanding were collected would get weight the temptation to stay for the last month installment of his salary. The relation suggested was to the effect that no payments be made until the final report was made and all bills in. The motion to adopt the amendment as it stood was made and carried with hundred ninety seven of the student body voting.

The meeting was under the direction of Student Body President, Harold Davis and a special reading was given by Laureate Craft. Ron Richards was chairman of the framing committee and the chief supporter in the discussion.

The Home Economics club held their social meeting in honor of Ellen Rigdon's birthday, Thursday evening at the Home Economics Cottage. Mrs. Richards was the founder of the Home Economics movement. Della Christensen was in charge of arrangements. During the evening a delightful program was carried out, consisting of an interesting sketch of her life by Mrs. Christine B. Clayton, Gena from her writings, by Miss Jean Hite, a voluntary reading by Miss Mary Mair and a vocal solo by Miss Gladys Tyson. Refreshments were served to 25.

Utah Alfalfa Seed Wins Thirteen Prizes at Chicago Show

According to the telegrams received by the Agricultural Culture and Experiment Station from Prof. George Stewart, agronomist, who, with E. E. Smith, of Bonanza, is in charge of the Utah exhibit at the International Grain and Hay Show in Chicago, Utah alfalfa seed won thirteen prizes out of a possible fifteen.

The sixth and seventh prizes, it is reported, were the only prizes not taken by Utah competing seed. Competition in alfalfa seed was open to the United States and Canada, there being 125 competing entries.

Wade Kjerfve of Milton has the honor for growing the seed which won first prize. George Walters of Salt Lake City, grew the second prize seed. Other winners named are: Wall and Alexander, of Jensen; A. A. Hinkley, of Hinkley; J. C. Burrell, Vernal; O. E. Hansen, near Roosevelt; Polkine, Kila; Cross and Garcia, Ft. Duchesne; Nels Nelson, Cedar View; B. E. Robinson, J. O. Riggs, Big Horn; Lapointe; and L. E. Polter, Nyton.

Prof. Stewart and his assistants in agronomic laboratory of the college, prepared the seed for exhibition.

Fish also made a remarkably good showing with red clover, oats, and barley seed. Of the one hundred entries of red clover seed, Utah entered one, which took second place. It was grown by Carter Bros. of Tremonton, J. M. Elch, of Hite, won seventh place with a sample of oats; and Joseph Thomas, of Carleton won sixth place with a sample of Tread Barley.

The exhibit was prepared and installed cooperatively by the State Board of Agriculture, the State Farm Bureau, the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce, the Utah Agricultural College, and the railroads and others.

The Utah exhibit will be installed as one of the features of the October Livestock Show that will be held in January.

INTERORGANIZATION BASKETBALL SERIES BRINGS OUT NUMBER OF FLOOR STARS

Phi Beta, Omega Tau and Sigma Epsilon Victorious in Most Hard Fought of Hoop Matches.

The annual inter-organization basketball tournament at the College began with a whim and a bang last Monday. Twelve sturdy teams representing fraternities, clubs, classes and other organizations on the hill entered the tournament all set to get the game on. Yesterday's games had not reached their finish as this goes to press.

The teams as a whole showed plenty of class and team work for each an early date. In the season, The Phi Beta Rho, Omega Tau and the Sigma Epsilon, which were the most hard fought and closest battle of the day, while the Delta Nu, Phi Kappa Iota and Martindale's teams were high teams with comparative ease. Some of the plays in the first round of play were: Iota, Clark, Walker, Plater, Wade, Martindale, Sanders, Nelson, Stearns and Gibson.

Following are last Monday's scores:
Phi Beta Rho 25
Delta Nu 19
Sigma Epsilon 12
Omega Tau 12
Epitonia 12
Phi Kappa Iota 12
Martindale's team 12
Alpha Gamma Phi 12
Phi Beta Rho 12
Sander 12

COACH NELSON TRAINS WHAT ART- ISTS FOR MEET

Match Scheduled With College of Idaho for January; Many Train

The annual handball tournament has drawn much more interest this year than it has previously. Competition between rivals has become keener this season and unconcerned students have taken more interest in the results of the contest.

Loren Kaven, manager of the contests this year and one of the two competing for championship, is extremely pleased with the attitude taken towards handball this season. Coaches have played their games off quickly and have responded in the advancement of the sport at the college. There was forty-one entries in the contest. Those who were not in the matches are: S. W. Bowler, Parley G. Clark, N. C. Greene, Ernie Cardon, John LaRosa, Edna Baker, M. G. Stevens, J. J. Kassen, A. E. Kassen, Keith Maltby, Huthings, E. R. Kassen, J. Kassen, L. Kassen, Bert Hayward, H. Peterson, J. B. Kassen, "Red" Wade, C. Veinon and Henry Kassen.

Handball matches were won by: Clark, Greene, LaRosa, Baker, Kassen, Huthings, J. Kassen, H. Peterson, J. B. Kassen, "Red" Wade, C. Veinon and Henry Kassen.

U. OF W. WOMEN MOST RESTRAINED IN BIG TEN SCHOOLS

The University of Chicago Women are the first, those of Wisconsin University most restrained in the Big Ten Universities, according to a comparative survey of rules in the Ohio State Letters.

It would be impossible to have uniform rules for all Chicago's women students, according to the Chair men of the Women's University Council, Edith Pratt Flint. She considers the Chicago Women "restrained and respectful" rules are practically impossible because of the variety of training of Chicago's students.

On the other hand at the University of Wisconsin the earliest rules at 9:30.

Several Universities have more lenient rules. At Iowa, Sunday dancing is a misdemeanor. At Purdue both dancing and card playing are tabooed in most houses.

All Big Ten Universities require their Women students to register all their trips out of town including class in dancing. The type of transportation as well as chaperone.

Returned Missionaries Discuss Possibility of Organizing

The returned missionaries of the college met recently to discuss the advisability of organizing a permanent organization of the group. Thirty-five students attended the meeting. They returned practically every field in the world. Two of the group were girls.

Leah Dorek was appointed lecturer on the meeting, and the possibility of organizing was thoroughly discussed with the view in mind of carrying out further steps toward organizing. Mr. Dorek was also elected to draw up a proposed constitution for presentation at the next meeting.

The purpose of such an organization would be to render general assistance in the Logan state, possibly in carrying on the work of the state. Often vacancies occur which the club might stand in readiness to fill. Often the world needs speakers other than their own, in which event they might apply to this organization for assistance.

It is the desire of the returned missionaries would desire to get together to relate their various experiences in so many different fields.

BASKETBALL SERIES DRAWING BIG CROWD

ROMNEY'S HOOP TEAM FACES HARD COURT SCHEDULE

Montana State College Plays With Utah Div, Adding Four Games

Coach "Dick" Romney and his Utah Aggie hoop team face one of the toughest schedules in the history of the college. It will therefore be necessary for the Aggie to be in the best of condition to make the proper showing in basketball this winter.

This year the Utah State college has been added to the Utah division. The Aggie will therefore have four more league games this season than they have had in the past. The schedule for the Aggie team for two games with each school at home and two games on the road in Provo, Salt Lake City, and Bozeman, Montana. Coach Romney has also arranged to play a game with the Colorado University in basketball this winter.

Following is the College Basketball schedule for the 1925-26 season:
Jan. 25-26—A. C. vs. Montana State at Bozeman, Montana.
Jan. 26-27—A. C. vs. Brigham Young at Provo, Utah.
Feb. 5-6—A. C. vs. Utah U. at Salt Lake City.
Feb. 19-20—A. C. vs. Utah U. at Salt Lake City.
March 5-6—A. C. vs. Montana State at Bozeman.
March 12-13—A. C. vs. Montana State at Bozeman.

Establishing an entirely new president at the College the students and faculty members from Nephi who are attending the institution, met last Friday and organized a town club.

With a representation of twenty-eight people, Nephi ranks among the highest of the surrounding cities to the school. Included in the twenty-eight are five faculty members, Junior and Senior Sophomores and thirteen Freshmen.

The function of the club is largely social. The members aim to have a close relationship in the school and to look after the interests of one another. The club does, however, hope to enter as interested for the College in Nephi and the local high school.

A creditable showing in scholarship has characterized many former Nephi students and members of the town club.

A large social function will be given by the club in the near future as their first formal meeting. From that time on regular meetings will be held at least monthly.

The officers elected are as follows:
President—W. H. Warner
Vice President—Evelyn Bailey
Secretary—Nancy Bradshaw
Treasurer—Lloyd Bradshaw
Reporter—John Bailey
Vice Master—Gordon Wood
