Glee Club To Present Song Contest

THIRTEEN TOWNS IN SOUTHERN UTAH INCLUDED IN SCHEDULE

The A. C. Male Glee club under the direction of Professor Walter W. Platts plans a concert program for this year's entertainment. The program is entirely new and includes a number of two or three light encores. It includes numbers with more dignity, numbers with a finer sense of humor than those ever presented before.

The tentative schedule begins March 2, ends March 15, and includes thirteen towns in Southern Utah. Because of the numbers of towns the short distances between and a sufficient guarantee, it looks possible that a larger Glee club than ever before represented the College will take the trip. This opens the possibility of taking all the men listed below. At any rate all of the group will sing in the Logan concert on February 25th.

That is the twelfth annual trip for the A. C. Glee club the fourth under the direction of Professor Platts. Members of the choir at present are as follows:

First Tenors: Amos Bingham, Harry Wiley, Melvin Wixom, Leonard Wood Ottis Nelson, Freeman Wixom, and Norman Manning. Second Tenors: Point Bairo, Owen Jacobs, Frank Schmidt, Amos Manning, Norman Manning, Marcus Griffin, Asa Spackman, Leland Clark and Parley Jameson. First Basses: George Wixom, Leonard Rampton, Alfred Hunter, Kenneth Shields Elmer Jeppson, Melvin Bankhead, Ray Wood, Ronald Jones and Delos Thompson. Second Basses: Niki Paewai, Courtland Smith, John M. Anderson, Dallas Richins, Clair Gudmundsen, Leroy Hansen and Aedberg Forsling.

NINE REHEARSALS ARE BOOKED FOR KAMPUS KAPRICE

The complete schedule of general rehearsals for Kolligiate Kampus Kaprice has been drawn up by the committee and is announced as follows:

Monday, Jan. 20, 9:30 a. m.—Men's gym.
Tuesday, Jan. 24, 7:30 a. m.—Men's gym.
Friday, Jan. 25, 7:30 p. m.—Men's Capitol.
Saturday, Jan. 26, 9:30 a. m.—Capitol.
Sunday, Jan. 27, 9:30 a. m.—Capitol.
Wednesday, Jan. 30, 7:30 p. m.—Men's gym.
Thursday, Jan. 31, 7:30 p. m.—Men's gym.
Saturday, Feb. 2, 9:30 a. m.—Capitol.
Sunday, Feb. 3, 9:30 a. m.—Capitol.

Last rehearsal, on February 3, is a dress rehearsal. At this time costumes, scenes and action will be ready for public appearance. This practice at the Capitol will serve as a final check on all details.

The number of general rehearsals is so noticeably great this year because the grand finale, which Lois Lunt is directing will include all members of all the acts and at the early rehearsals, work must be concentrated on this important "last word."

Managers of acts are being provided with this schedule and it will be up to them to get their proteges to practices on time as it is on these general rehearsals that a professional polish depends.

Ruth Smith And Mark Hart Named Winners Of Song Contest

Two clever contributors to the Prize Refrain contest have been named winners of the competition opened last Wednesday. The champions submitted by Ruth Smith and the verse by Mark Hart have been combined to form a prize winning song which according to Professor B. Cecil Gates, fulfills all of the conditions of the contest. Each of the winners of the contest will be awarded with $2.50 in student body meeting today.

The winning refrain which will be sung to the tune "Funcluc, Funcluc," will fill a long felt need for an Aggie pep song that can be easily sung and which will approximate the effect of a cheer. This new song will be introduced during student body and then be handed out, and the new victory melody of A. C. U. will better than twenty minutes.

ARNOLD'S RECORD SHOWS 20 YEARS OF LOYAL SERVICE

Has Studied In Boston, Paris, Bordeaux, Göttingen And Chicago

Frank R. Arnold, Professor of modern Languages, has followed the calling of dispenser of knowledge at the Utah Agricultural College since 1904. To quote Professor Arnold, "The Utah Agricultural College is a very pleasant place for man to follow his chosen line of endeavor."

Professor Arnold's life presents a varied, and interesting pattern, tinged with unusual experiences and delightful travels. Our professor of Modern Languages commenced his college training at Bowdoin College, receiving his B. A. degree in 1893. He then studied at Harvard University, University of Paris, University of Bordeaux, University of Göttingen, and the University of Chicago.

Where the average student spends only a meager four years in preparation for the profession of a teacher, Professor Arnold spent more than ten years. His preparation is unusual, and his wide travels and broad experience have made him an exceptional language instructor.

Professor Arnold first started teaching in 1905, at which time he accepted a position as instructor at the University of Chicago. From there he came to the Utah Agricultural College, as Assistant Professor of Modern Languages.

Samuel Grathwell, a well known lecturer on China was the speaker last Friday in student body meeting. Because of four things Mr. Grathwell has much hope for the future of the world's oldest people. "The Chinese are tenacious and industrious, they are beginning to feel the importance of education in their practical and social world, and are freeing themselves from the old superstitions of exploiting nations," says Mr. Grathwell.

Fraternities Make Plans For Annual Frat Melee

The annual Frat Melee, which is given by the seven social fraternities on the Campus each year will be held on January 28th at the Palais d'Or according to word given out by the committee.

The affair will be formal, so that these boys and girls will get a great demand for tuxedos, swallows, and what have you. Something more and interesting is promised in the way of features.

Some decorative scheme, having as its motif the insignias of the various organizations will be carried out. Approximately two hundred members of the Aggie Greek letter fraternities will be present with their partners to make this affair one of the important social events of the season, ranking with the Junior Prom and the Military Ball.

The committee which is selected from the Men's Pan Hellenic council, a body on which every fraternity has representatives, consists of James Underwood who is chairman, with Arvil Starke and Reed Bullen as his assistants.

The Engineer's Club Plans Dinner Dance

The Engineer's Club met Tuesday to discuss plans for their seventh annual dinner dance which comes on St. Patrick's Day. It has been decided to give the Aggie Engineers to promote one big social each year. This social is in the form of a dinner and dance and is always held on March 17th, St. Patrick's Day.

This event is as important to the Engineers as the Prom is to the Juniors.

Tickets for this event will be on sale soon. Watch for the word. The Club has arranged to show an educational film in the Engineering Auditorium next Monday, January 20th, at 1:00 p. m. Members of the student body are invited to attend.

YAMANOUCI GIVES INTERESTING REPORT IN HIS LETTER

Professor F. M. Coe recently received a letter from Mr. Y. Yamanouchi, former Aggie and graduate, which should be of interest to students of the College. Mr. Yamanouchi is at present at his home in Japan, from which place he is writing. His communication is as follows:

My Dear Prof. Coe:—How are you getting along? I think that you and your family are quite well and happy. Thanks to God, my father's sickness is getting better day by day. Since I came back from America and also other members of my family doing very well.

It is now the Christmas Time which we celebrate by much. At where do you want to spend the vacation? As you know we Japanese celebrate the first day of January more than the twenty-fifth of December.

It is a bad season to get a job in Japan, because of the end of the year is very busy in every business and no chance to get a job. I was astonished to get a new job in Japan when I came back from the U. S. A. There are a great number of college graduates so I must struggle with them. I am hoping to find a good job in Korea or Manchuria, sent few letters asking jobs to Manchuria.

The work of the boys in horses was not so good, but they took a nation on all classes of stock of fifth place. The contest was won by the Aggie team, headed first in the individual student rating. Lee Guyman and Curtis Spaulding for eighth and ninth respectively. Robert Dahle, Lyman Bennion and Myron Childs were other members of the Utah Aggie delegation. Inasmuch as this is the first year that the Livestock Judging team has been at Denver, and having ranked first on beef cattle, we think the boys made a splendid showing.

BUREAU LEADERS DISCUSS PLANS

The special purpose of their visit was to determine the possibility of additional cooperative work with the Utah station. This additional work would be in connection with irrigation and drainage. The representatives from the U. S. department of agriculture counseled with the faculty of the Department of Agriculture, Gardner and Jennings and Director P. V. Cardon.

Ag. Club Wins Cup

Out of the several stunts out on at the Ogden Livestock Show, in competition for the Salt Lake Tribune Pep Stunt Cup, the U. C. Ag. Club won first place. They will receive the cup as soon as it is properly engraved.

Of all the marks passed to students, B is perhaps the most feeble. It indicates either a mediocre student or one who is combined with great ambition or one who has a good mind, but is awfully lazy. In neither case is it complimentary to the recipient.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB MEMBERS ENJOY 'SECOND CONCLAVE

That people are interested in places beyond their own doorsteps was proven to the satisfaction of Cosmopolitan members at their group luncheon on Wednesday night.

Tint discussions can be entertaining as well as educational was the consensus of opinion after the crowd had listened to Mr. A. T. Vargas discuss the subject "The Past and Present of the Philippines."

During a native of the country Mr. Vargas could bring to the group the fiery enthusiasm which is born of the little saying, "Philippines for the Philippines." This enthusiasm together with an unusual ability in speaking won the discussion one not easily forgotten. Our lecture platform is often crowded by less capable orators. Mr. F. M. Young, for three years a missionary in the Sumatra Islands, speaking of the group realize that Utopia may not be an imaginary place nor a heresy.

Mr. Young was introduced in novel manner by Mr. Arnold who read a colorful description of Spain, written by Karl son of Young and Rhodes Scholar in Oxford University.

SOUND THEN, SIGHT NOW

Not long ago a much needed report took place on the Campus. The parking of cars around the Main Building and on the drive-ways was prohibited and suitable parking spaces were provided. It was made possible for car owners not only to park where they could always get their machines easily and quickly, but where they were certain of a parking space where vehicles could be left without danger of having fenders torn or glass broken.

The benefit to the students and to the Campus is obvious, the grounds are not trespassed and the class-rooms are now free from raucous horns and an all too frequent roaring of motors. This is an improvement in every sense of the word. Another improvement which Student Life suggests has reference to the apparently unnecessary accumulation of waste and trash at various places on the grounds; notably in the rear of the Main Building. The reason for their being there appears to be the same as that for parking cars haphazardly about the Campus—just parked temporarily. It is unlikely that the present accumulation of waste in the rear of the Building is there to stay so we propose that the accumulations be prohibited from parking any longer in their present locations than is absolutely necessary.

There will be no more "burnings in effigy" for their disposal, but it is presumed that the responsible party could find a more desirable dumping ground without over-exerting himself.

The writer feels that the lay-out is an eye-sore to the College and should be removed without hesitance.

STUDENT FINANCE

Student Life is submitting the following report of finances from the Student Executive Committee for the observance of interested students:

These statements show the receipts and disbursements of the student body fees during the period from July 1, 1928 to December 6, 1928. These figures are based on the secretary's report which was submitted to the committee at its last meeting.

AVAILABLE REVENUE

Fees:	Regular fee	Buzzer fee	Student life
Total	$11,270.50	$2,910.00	$9,360.50

The regular fees were distributed in the following manner:

Department	Amount
Athletics	$4,509.40
Student Life	$1,691.82
Lycium	$25.45
Drama	$25.45
Debate	$25.45
Awards	$25.45
General	$25.45

The report shows that the student body is in a good financial condition. A summary of the receipts and disbursements for each department follows:

Department	Receipts	Disbursements	Balance
Athletics	$15,469.74	$17,952.87	$1,942.87
Student Life	1,824.52	154.26	1,640.26
Lycium	1,272.11	1,008.88	263.23
Drama	225.47	24.90	190.57
Drama	0.00	231.90	231.90
Debate	0.00	231.90	231.90
Awards	1,352.87	0.00	1,352.87
Buzzer	2,534.00	37.51	2,506.49
General Expense	2,225.07	1,110.15	1,114.92
Overdrafts	6,715.00	0.00	6,715.00
Total	$32,256.71	$19,644.27	$12,592.50

The overdraft in the athletics department is due to the fact that the receipts from the U. of U. game were not included in the report and also all of the money has not been received from the U. of Southern California, while the expenses have been included.

The overdraft in the drama department is caused by the receipts from the college play not being included in the report. We lost money on the play this year and of course this will be included in our next report.

The executive committee is well pleased with the report and hopes that this publication will be a benefit and an education to the members of the student body.

Respectfully submitted,

SPONGERS

We look with scorn on an able man,
 Who begs instead of working
 But think of the pupils around our school,
 Whose lives are made up of shirking.

Some spend an hour or two at home,
 On a difficult lesson or two,
 And the shirkers next day either borrow or beg,
 What the workers took such pains to do.

Of course the work's done—it's no trouble to loan,
 What you would have done anyway.
 But to think that your grades are as good as your own—
 And you work while the spongers play!

"Life is an arrow—therefore you must know
 "What mark to aim at, how to use the bow—
 Then draw it to the head and let it go."
 —Henry Van Dyke.

LECTURE

By R. M. Rutledge

The background of that speech is the condition of warfare now existing in China between those who wish to repeal certain treaties which give to the commercial nations of the Occident certain concessions of territoriality rights and those who wish to continue such treaties.

By a series of interesting stories dramatically presented, the speaker left the impression that the Chinese are basically immoral, backward, dishonest, filthy, and debased. There are over 400,000,000 Chinese, one-fifth of the human race, and in such a large number of individuals illustrations can be found to substantiate an idea that the speaker wishes to present.

The evil of last Friday's talk is that it pretended to be fair, but was not. No such speech could have been made unchallenged at either of the two conferences on Pacific Relations I have recently attended in Riverside and California.

About Dramatics

Speaking of the death of dramatics and musicals on the U. A. C. campus, the writer wishes to say in reply to some student's view that until the six dramatic events already scheduled for each school year are supported that it would be folly to add others. We hope the student who has such a view will realize that we need our 1000 students, go six plays during the school year in each quarter. And we wish to state that even with "The Mollusc," our school play which was so successfully done as to be listed for a return engagement under the auspices of the Logan Chamber of Commerce, that we went behind $80.00. Are we really desirous of more dramatics? Then answer in fact of our already varied program can only be: "Let's support those we already have."

CHESTER MYERS.

Evermore

By Clarice Webb

Once upon a midnight dreary
 As in my study weak and weary
 Four times of soon to be forgotten
 History I did pore.

Suddenly there came a tap at
 My chamber door without knockin'—

I that dumbledore and it's Presence did detect.

For from without that dranal
 Tally I did hear.

I prefer to look with vacancy
 At 'an unfamiliar tenant' This is blasphemy I swore.

But it came in without knockin',
 Came in without even talkin';

And 'Til I ever hear it's knockin'
 Evermore.

'Heavens,' quoth I, "Don't try
 To reason,"

Rhyme is also out of season;
 'Why should such a thing come

sneaking in the door
 But the why I haven't learned yet

Even tho' that tho' that I met
 And even yet it's presence I declare.

You ask—'What can this thing be'
 Why discuss so long and heavily,

 "Why waste space, time and ink

in telling any more?"
 Right! For my memory is shocked:

I can just recall the knockin'
 And the purport thereof passed on

Evermore.

Those expecting to attend should communicate with Professor Reed Bailey, Utah Agricultural College, Logan, if they expect to stay at the school.

One of the new comers at the hoop game, whose work in the Montana cagers, last Friday and Saturday is likely to take a better forward than the Aggies can scare up to keep him out of a regular position. Playing only part of the game Saturday, Sharon was high point man of the evening with eight field goals. In fact, Tate was about the only man on the Farmer outfit who was functioning properly. That support is not unlikely that Romney will start the "Tooeie flash" against the Rockets.

He reports that Bernard, who took the role of the lady, is now working in the Business Research Bureau of the University of Texas.

While in school the Nichols Brothers assisted in putting on the cabarets which were staged each winter during the Farmers Round Up. They are best remembered in the "Romance of the Roses." In which cast Bernard very effectively played the role of the lady and DeLore the part of her lover. They also carried out this same impersonation in their ball room dancing demonstrations. The Nichols Brothers were students at the college from 1913 to 1917 when they graduated. In addition to the activities already named DeLore Nichols received an A' scholarship in the spring of 1914, took part in several college plays, served as dramatic manager in 1916 and 1917, was an active member of the Fervid Club and was a member of the Buzzer staff and Junior Prom Committee in 1916.

INTRAMURAL BASKETBALL SERIES GETS STARTED

Stoppers, Walker Boys, And Invincibles Win First Games

The College intramural basketball series which is being conducted by Freshman Coach Sterling Anderson got under way last Tuesday night when three games were played off. Eight teams are entered in the series and Coach Anderson announces that the series conflicts will take place every Tuesday and Friday evening until the championship has been decided. Eight teams are entered in the series.

In the opener last Tuesday the Stoppers, veterans of last year's series, won their battle from the Folks to the music of 30-9. Day, Brown and Griffin were the main contributors for Smith for the winners in the scoring for the winners.

The second game between Walker's group and the Flyers was easily the feature of the evening. The Walker boys winning out to the tune of 22-20 after an extra period had been played. Rippon substituted for Smith for the first Jacobs played a stellar game for the losers.

The final game of the evening went to the Ken Vanderhoof's Invincibles without much difficulty. The final score being 23-12. The playing of Vanderhoof's was the feature of this conflict and also of the evening. The Vanderhoofs played an uncanny eye for the basket.

Insufficient space would not permit running the lineups and summaries.

Little Courtesies

By John T. Caine Many seemingly unimportant acts reveal our attitudes toward people with whom we associate. The property rights of others in real estate, buildings, rooms, furniture, clothing, books, etc. should be clearly recognized and scrupulously observed. In this day of supposed new automobile rights we drive into lots or farms and though there may be well defined roads the regular route is ignored and lawns or meadows are damaged. This happens in private grounds where edges of grass are run into and cut off or shape, and if protest is made, the answer ordinarily would be "well, what difference does that cut or dent make." It generally makes the difference between carelessness and indifference and if on a curve, may require another look for several rods in order to resume the proper line.

But suppose it is a matter of no importance to others, the owner has established certain lines. To suit his ideas, or fairly he has a right to expect transients to respect his plans. In the same way, we are not justified in walking across lawns where there are defined paths or roads. People living in the same house as a family, a sorority, a fraternity, or otherwise associated, should respect each other's rights to rooms and personal property. No person has a right to step into another's room without knocking, no matter how close or intimate general relationships may be. Friendships are so valuable that we can not afford to neglect the delicate ties on which they depend, and nothing will hold the ties of friends like a careful respect for each other's rights and feelings.

Young people, especially, feel that certain liberties with other's property, and disregard for their feelings in little matters should not be noticed. But they are noticed and are resented and often result in breaking the friendship permanently.

What right have brothers and sisters in the home, or fraternity brothers or sorority sisters, or others, to enter rooms or interfere with property not belonging to them? That the articles have little value or that the other person will not know, is no justification.

If persons wish to be successful in social affairs, in school affairs, in business or other affairs, they must learn that the rights of others cannot be ignored without developing habits that may be fatal to their aims. Little sneaking, contemptible tricks, done sometimes to make a capital to be smart, if continued will result in lack of confidence and in the severing of life-long friendships worth more than money.

New Forestry Club Has Fifty Active Members

With the creation of a department of Forestry, a Forestry Club has also been established on the campus. The club was organized on October 25, 1922 with thirty charter members. There are now about fifty active members. As soon as the club gains more experience it is planned to apply for admittance to the National organization of Foresters.

The club was organized to promote more intimate acquaintance among students of the Forestry Department and to create interest in forest study. It, of course, is enthusiastic in maintenance and promotion of Aggie spirit and ideals.

During the fall quarter a stag banquet was sponsored by the club. A committee is at work on arrangements for a winter party, and it is tentatively planned to stage a hike and bonfire party during the spring quarter.

The Forestry Club has been training in speakers of interest and importance in that particular line of work to address its members. Wilford Hansen is president of the club.

AGGIES PRIMED FOR OUTRAGED BOBCAT ATTACK

Western Division Conference Quints Open Title Race Tonight

Montana State Invades Logan With Great Squad; Blue and White Prepared

Aggie Five Hope To Repeat Last Year's Win

Utah Aggies vs. Montana State. The commotion has started the hoop fans of the intermountain country for the past four years far beyond the interest that could be cooked up about any other basketball tangle in this section. And not only do these two teams bring in the thrill hunters and the sneaks, but they hand out absolutely brilliant basketball. This brilliant basketball has not been confined to the Bobcats, but has characterized the play of both teams.

This year the Bobcats' again loom as heavy favorites over the Aggies and over the field as well. The same team which won the championship of the conference with the loss of but a single game and that to the Aggies is going to top again this season. Captain Frank Ward is at center, fearless "Car" Thornton at forward and teaming with either O. Ward or MacFarland. The guards are Breeden and Worthington, with Ott Gardner in reserve. It is difficult to see how there could be much improvement on this team, but even champions are due for a fall sometime.

For the past three years the conference race has revolved around the Utah Aggies and the Montana Bobcats. Three years ago Coach Dick Romney's Farmers grabbed the gonfalon in both the western division and the conference with Montana State giving the sterned competition. The following season saw these teams in a bitter fight from the start of the season to the finish. The final game between the two teams was for the western division championship which meant a lot to the conference title as well. The Aggies had an apparently safe lead with five minutes to play. Undaunted, the Bobcats had a shooting spree that put the two teams in a deadlock with two minutes to go. Montana sent foul pitches, but missed them both only to have the elongated Frank Ward tip a two pointer into the hoop in the subsequent scramble. Fighting desperately "Zeus" Worthington picked up what was apparently a loose ball and tossed a beautiful basket only to have the whistle blow as Montana sent a forced tieup. The heart breasted 44-42 for Montana.

Last year the Aggies were the only team to defeat the Cats and they almost did it again in the final series here. In 1929 the rivalry was again a close one. Though outplayed the Farmers aren't taking a thing for granted and it is just a guess that they will give the champions a frightful scare, and it may go so far as to smother them.

Coach Dick Romney has a basketball team, even though few have yet seen it. He may not have many names in the roster due to the phenomenal strength of the competitors, but the Aggies won't be setup. For the coming fray four men seem to be absolutely certain of starting. Captain Worthington will be at center, Henrie at one forward and Wade and Wade on the guard line. Either Tate or Davis will officiate at the other forward post. Tate, the Troopie product, has the right attitude this season, and he is playing beautiful basketball. His present spirit will get him a long way in the hoop game. He has a bruised heel however and it is not certain he will start. Watkins, the frosh youngster from Vernal, is a jewel to have on the bench in case of emergency such as a lack of scoring punch.

"Red" Wade and Glen Worthington carry much of the Aggie burden in the coming game. Worthington must be at his best if the Aggies are to have a chance and upon Wade rests the responsibility of stopping "Cat" Thompson, a man sized task.

WINTER CARNIVAL TO BE BIG EVENT

Tomorrow, weather permitting, is the big day for the Student's Outdoor Carnival, at 12:30. The party is scheduled to be held in the main building in cars, but signs of other means of conveyance. River Heights Bench has been selected as the scene of activities. There the sport lovers will watch what they can in the form of skiing, bob-sledding, sledging, and tobogganing. Lunch consisting of chili and hot chocolate will be served. A photographer is on the scene to shoot merry moments.

Noah's Ark Sought By Expedition

Chicago, Ill.—A search is soon to be made for Noah's ark.

The suggestion was made by William H. Strong, former president of the Chicago Chapter, American Association of Engineers, with the idea that the old boat be brought to the forthcoming world fair in 1933.

That the ark may be found is believed by Mr. Strong because of the fact that wooden chariots of these wheels is estimated at 5,000 years.

"It is safe to assume," he says, "that only fire, an earthquake or an avalanche could have destroyed the ark because it was built to a depth of 45 feet. The age of these wheels is estimated at 5,000 years."

"It is safe to assume," he says, "that only fire, an earthquake or an avalanche could have destroyed the ark because it was built to a depth of 45 feet. The age of these wheels is estimated at 5,000 years."

MT. ST. CHARLES HOOPERS FALL BEFORE AGGIES

Local Subs Star in Farmer's Twin Victory

Last week the small fast team of basketballers from Mount St. Charles of Helena, Montana, fell before the superior shooting and defenses of E. L. Romney's Utah Aggies. The series brought out some fast and clever basketball as well as several forms of football. The first battle, held on Friday evening was close and interesting during the first half but the blue shirts got going in the final canto and ran away from the Montanians. The final score was 60 to 33.

On the next night St. Charles boys came back with blood in their eyes and held the Aggies to 10 all score in the first half, which was a very rough game.

Tate and Wade flashed real form in these games. Captain Cross and Shewe looked best for the visitors.

Aggie seconds trounced Logan High in two contests, preliminaries to each of the main tilt. The scores were 43-35 and 38-22.

Aggie Tank Artists Begin Aquatic Sport

The Utah Aggie tanksters did not have much success last year as far as winning meets goes. However, Coach Lee Christensen feels that his protégés accumulated some valuable experience which should aid the Farmers in their efforts this season.

The lettermen who are back in school are Captain Cy Phillips for the forty and hundred yard dashes and the relay, Earl Hawkes 220 yard relay; Paul Larsen, 200 yard dash, breast stroke and relay; Howard Jessop, back stroke and relay; and Tuff Tanner, relay. Other men who are paddling for the Aggies are Carlos Smith, Ronald Flamm, Bob Jennings, Austin Fife and Rulon Quake.

Big "Zeus", Worthington, captain of the Aggie cagers, should be a world beater this season. Fans will remember that two years ago he received in football, and failed to do anything out of the ordinary. But right now "Zeus" is in his first class physical condition and it is expected that the big fellow will reach his great stride of 1926-27 during the ensuing basketball campaign.

A style note: Up-to-date women no longer faint. It just isn't being done.

If it were not for women and flowers, poets would have to go out of business.

BOBCAT THREATS

Early Training Is Under Direction Of Warren Hawley

Under the direction of Assistant Coach Hawley, pre-season track work and track classes are being conducted for the purpose of developing track and field athletes. As everyone knows, the most exceptional men in any branch of athletics are track men who excel in training, especially in track and field work.

The track school has been running for a week and already about twenty-five enthusiasts have turned out and are showing great interest.

This is the first time any pre-season training of this sort has been tried at the college and it is thought men will turn out in endeavor of the coaching department will undoubtedly be successful.

According to Coach Hawley the opportunity afforded men taking part in the track school cannot be emphasized too strongly. Last year four track letter men graduated from the school, leaving six events open to the successful candidates.

Mel Burke left the College last year with a conference record in the mile and won the two mile in all of last year's meets. Warren Hawley also leaves vacancies in the mile and the hammer. With these positions left open and positions left unfilled by Vernal Harris and Noel Bennion in the pole vault and sprints, anyone who has ability in track or field should surely take advantage of this track school.

Coach Hawley reports that classes will be held in the gym until the weather permits and then the boys will commence outside training. For further information regarding this track school, see Coach Hawley.

Breeden and Ward, above, are a couple of Bobcat basketball shooters who will bear watching tonight. Both are all-conference hoopers, Breeden at guard and Ward at center.

Big "Zeus", Worthington, captain of the Aggie cagers, should be a world beater this season. Fans will remember that two years ago he received in football, and failed to do anything out of the ordinary. But right now "Zeus" is in his first class physical condition and it is expected that the big fellow will reach his great stride of 1926-27 during the ensuing basketball campaign.

Coach Nelson has made it known that a wide variety of boxing and wrestling events are being boxed on the occasion, including a ju-jitsu match, with a couple of Japanese boys to see it through. For the boxing matches, Elmo and Ivan Smith, Junior A. U. luminaries and athletes at the College, are running into condition. The Aggies have plenty of wrestling material to put into action so that a very successful meet is anticipated.

About Marriage Some people wonder what the Mormon wedding ceremony is like. It's something like this: Preacher: Do you give these women to be your lawfully wedded wives? Groom: I do.

Bride: Do you take this man to be your lawfully wedded husband? We do.

Preacher: Some of you girls there in the back will have to speak louder if you want to be included in this. Judge.

When the Montana Bobcats take the floor against the Aggies tonight and tomorrow night in the opening series of the 1929 basketball schedule, the western division let it be remembered that the Montana boys constitute one of the greatest hoop teams in the country.

The Bobcats have held the Montana boys constitute one of the greatest hoop teams in the country. The Bobcats have held the Montana boys constitute one of the greatest hoop teams in the country.

Just what will happen in the Aggie-Bobcat series is a matter of speculation but there is no question as to who are the favorites.

On the other hand, it was the A. G. E. fight, that defeated the Bobcats last year and a repetition of that fight means an impossibility. If the Farmers are on the series should be a great treat to basketball lovers.

Montana State vs. Utah Aggies

The following are a few good reasons why Utah Aggie-Montana basketball games have drawn the perhaps largest gatherings ever assembled at the Student Union.

In 1926 the Aggies won three of four games from the Bobcats and won the Western Division title. The Aggies then completed their conquests by humbling the Colorado State Teachers for the Rocky Mountain championship.

In 1927 the Bobcats won three of four games from the Aggies to capture the Western Division title and the Rocky Mountain conference championships. In that eventful year the final game in the Western Division was played between the Aggies and Bobcats for the division title. The crowd was undoubtedly the largest ever gathered around the Logan court. With five minutes to play the Aggies led by a margin of eight points.

Montana shot three long shots from mid-floor and the score with a minute and one half to play was Montana 42, Utah Aggies 45. "Red" Sanders crack Aggie guard, tipped the ball in giving Montana a two point lead. Worthington shot a basket that was not allowed and the gun sounded which pronounced the Bobcats winners of the Western Division by a two point margin score, Aggies 42, Montana 44.

Since then the Montana State combination won the Rocky Mountain Conference championship by defeating Wyoming champions of the Eastern Division, in three consecutive games. The only game the Bobcats lost during the entire conference schedule was to the Aggies in Montana's gym.

The series this week end will find the Aggies and Aggie renewing their rivalry of past years and while the Bobcats, with the same group intact, that won for even the championship last year, are favored to win, the Romney team is determined to cause confusion for the invaders and to see the locals cop one of the two games.

Another version of the huddle or what Billy Montana terms the "huddle" formation is three couples in a Ford coupe.

It is something difficult to tell whether a woman who cooks what her husband likes is living or a woman who gets rid of him is living.

Prospects for a winning hoop team at Utah Aggies are badly dimmed by the unexpected array of stars who are battling for places on the teams at the three other institutions of the western division. Coach Dick Romney isn't exactly destitute himself as far as letters are concerned but he lost two regulars from last year's quint and that is more than one of the missing regulars is "Flash" Nielson. Nielson was one of these forwards who are produced just about one in a generation. For four years he has been the key man in the Aggie team.

The other absentee regular is Art Martindale who was brilliant and commanding as a guard position. Martindale's place can probably be filled satisfactorily, but only a new sensation will make the fans forget Nielson.

Six Veterans Back The lettermen who are back and working out already include Captain Glen Worthington, center, Carl Davis and Du Wayne Henrie, forwards. Then comes the new guard, Wade, guards. Sharon Tate, a forward is another letterman, but he hasn't played since the winter of last season. A number of former squad members have shown an inclination to make the grade this season. Among them are Joe Call, Merrill Gummell and Clive Remund.

Freshmen candidates are numerous and it isn't beyond the realm of possibility that some of them will come through with fine performances. A number of them looked good in high school but there is a yawning gap between high school and college basketball. These ambitious greenlings may not have been the outstanding stars of the State last season, but that has nothing to do with their college careers. They may have proper attitude, they may go much further under Coach Dick Romney's tutelage than they did when they were high school luminaries.

Utes Look Strong At Utah Everything is almost too beautiful to be true. Lou Neely is gone, but how could he make the team with the stars who are turning out for the Peterson team. All of the other regulars including Smith, Couch, Watkins, and Lyberty are in togs. Ralph Goodwin, one of the greatest guards in the conference two years ago, is eligible again. Price, Marvin Jones, and other squad members are back and the freshman crop is just what most coaches pray for.

Lorraine Cox, who was regarded as Utah's outstanding high school player last year, is back.

The champion Bobcats start with a new coach but with that same formidable lineup of Breeden, Worthington, Ward, Henrie and Tate. They are plenty of capable substitutes at Bzeneman, too.

It doesn't seem reasonable that Montana and Utah can be stopped but Cougar supporters are quite positive that B. Y. U. will do it. Twelve lettermen, in addition to Cooper who was the star of the early season last year, are in the Cougar camp, and the first year class has contributed several beauties and one of them is Sid Thompson, brother of the famous "Cat". Even if he isn't good he ought to be. The Cougar material was good last season, and fans had great difficulty in explaining the numerous defeats that the team took.

AGGIES AND UTES BATTLE NEXT WEEK

Next week's western division hoop schedule pits the Aggies against the Utes at Salt Lake in the January 25, and 26. These two teams are the dark-horses in the division race and barring upsets should fight things out to a finish to see which of the favorites, Montana State and B. Y. U.

Both Utes and Aggies are capable of playing real basketball and this first two-game series between them should bring out the best in both teams. The Aggie veterans, Worthington, Wade, Smart, Henrie and Davis stand against Utah's hopes in the form of Coach Goodwin, Smith, Watkins, Cox and Clark, all first class performers.
