Thetas Party

U-M-HUN HOLID VALENTINE PARTY

The annual Theta Valentine party was held last Saturday night at the Hotel Regency. The ball was decorated for the affair; arrows throughout the room pointed to the refreshments. The floor of the ballroom had been decorated with a large heart through which the paper cups, hearts, candies, and other things were scattered. A three-foot lighted Theta figure stood on a red heart-shaped platform in the center of the room. Red punch served from a maroon bowl of ice covered with ferns and red carnations, red and white heart-shaped tins further expressed the theme of the evening. One dance for which prizes were found by matching pieces of hearts furnished a good deal of interest and excitement. Many couples about twenty of which were almost all new to the party.

Peterman, a nurse from Ball Lake, had attended the dance. First to be seated as chaperon, and Mrs. Moore was mother was patroness Lucille Felt, Helen Towser and Shirley Evans were in charge of arrangements.
