Increase Goes Over A Hundred To Show More Than Eight Per Cent Gain Over Any

Pep Program Is Gist of First Student Meeting

A pep program was carried out in the first Student Body meeting of the year Wednesday afternoon at 6 o'clock. It began with a song, and then the members of the college songs by the student body and a few yells. President "Bud" Smith gave a short introductory address followed with a vocal solo by Alfred "Bud" Smith.

Registration totals at the Utah State Agricultural college continue to mount. Practically twice as many students are registered at the college as the end of the second week of registration. The increase is one hundred in excess of the total last year at a corresponding time. The increase in registration as figured on Wednesday of this week was 800 over the same date last year. It is slightly more than in new students but the increase in students returning is higher.

—Hoss. The spurs then were put on the horses and the wheels of Coach Ramsey introduced the crowd to the new season with a short speech on football prospects.

The program wound up with a song by the band, led by Ace Spackman and Allen West.

RIGHT OUT

The past summer has been one long open season for the blind love boys of the Aggie. The Aggie's first love, the Aggie Anchor, has been forced to leave his job for a machine gunner in the United States Navy supply and has ended the season with a long open season for the Aggie.

On the basis of the present normal increase from now on the Aggie will surpass the fifteen hundred mark. There is no doubt that the Aggie will be present year will exceed by a large margin.

Freshman Presents A Bouquet

Stacie? ? ?

If conditions at other universities and colleges are like those at the University of Utah, then the freshman class of 1931 will be a most successful and democratic institution in the West.

They talk about the life of the poor freshmen that come to school and find it so hard to handle. But—where are the freshmen?—We have seen them. They are the freshmen who are ever so fond of being snubbed at the A. C. J. Host (A. C. J. Host).

Aggie Gridders Engage Colorado U In Feature Alumni Homecoming

Clack Marks First Appearance of Redheads on Logan Soil

One of the "natural" of an already great season will be played when the Utah Aggies and Colorado University clash in the first homecoming game. The game will be played Saturday, October 11, at 2 o'clock. The Aggies get to play this week the Colorado Springs and in itself is a tough job. The game will be one of the crucial affairs that happen just a couple of times during a season.

Colorado has a football team this season, and the Aggies are picking them along with Denver University to give the Utah University a fight in the championship game. The game was knocked off early last week, but the Aggies and Colorado players settled down and did not lose another game. They appear to be considerably better this year than last.

WESTERN STATE SWIPED 31-0 IN SLOW FRAY

The Utah Aggies lived up to expectations last Saturday when they defeated the Western state college team from Colorado, 31 to 0. Every man who was in a blue and white suit was given a chance by Coach Dick Romney. The Logan team was treated to some real football at times during the 60 minutes of the game. The Aggies were the playing of Co-captain Olive Remund. The line brought to mind the days of Warren Hawley. Remund was in practically every play.

Romneyites In First Crucial Contest For Gridiron Supremacy

Hicks, Pineda to Arrive 10 Days After Last Year.

Coach Dick Romney's Utah Aggies get their second contest last Saturday October 11, at Colorado Springs when they tackle the dangerous Colorado College Tigers. Always a great game, this year's contest is expected to be one of the most exciting of the season. The Aggies are expected to be in a position to win the game.

Twenty-two Utah Aggie freshmen graders leave Logan Friday by bus for Rexburg where they will meet Ricks junior college on Saturday. The game will be a crucial one for the Aggies.

Coach Anderson made a definite selection of the players who will play in the game. The Aggies are expected to be in a position to win the game. The Aggies are expected to be in a position to win the game.

The probable lineup for the game will find Jeff at center, Brady at quarterback, and the guards Captain John Hull and Marshall Glenn, Dickson, Wilson, and Dixon, etc. The Aggies are expected to be in a position to win the game.

This gives Anderson a fairly strong team. The Aggies are expected to be in a position to win the game. The Aggies are expected to be in a position to win the game.
