Girls Hold Annual Co-ed Fete Today

Editors Note

As is usual on Co-ed Day, the girls of the institution take charge of all the activities of the day including the writing and editing of Student Life. This issue is handled by the A. W. S. Council under the direction of an editor chosen from that body. The editor of this issue was chosen as nearly as possible from the ranks of women's organizations, departments or extracurricular women students.

It is the sincere wish of the A. W. S. Council, its editor and its members to make the pages of Student Life an enjoyable place to join with us in enjoying the other activities of the college.

A. W. S. TO SPONSOR ETIQUETTE LECTURES

The battle cry of social adepts of next year seems to be "Etiquette the Social Standard." In fact, it is being attempted whether the statement is definite or not. The need has been planted this year, however, and is already fertile in everyone's confident of good results. The particular subject of Etiquette Lectures. They are to be sponsored by the A. W. S. Council and will be given beginning next fall, by faculty members or town people. Each lecture will contain a certain phase of etiquette such as correct table manners, good usage of introductory phrases, suitable responses to invitations and innumerable other topics which might be suggested. The general public is invited to attend and it is sincerely hoped that students will become "etiquette-minded" enough to make them worthwhile. It is a splendid opportunity for you to learn some etiquette, or to re-establish the facts you know, so let everyone of us get behind this movement and push it.

HOUSE MOTHERS IN SORORITY HOUSES

The school has decreed that house mothers must reside in sorority houses, henceforth. It has been felt that it would have house mothers but inadequate funds and inadequate housing have prevented the fulfillment of this desire. Not that we have overdone the house mothers, but the time to begin just as amply as ever—no money, no room, but the growing need for housemothers surpasses even these major items and—well, where there's a will there's a way.

These mothers are to be the hostesses of future sorority houses. On them falls the burden of enforcing house rules and other unpleasant but necessary duties, but principally are they to be concerned with the problems of aiding and advising the girls; extending hospitality to our guests and, in general, raising the standard of the social life on our campus. The presence of an older person in our homes, etc who has culture and personality, cannot be anything but an asset and it is for this that we welcome housemothers as a permanent feature of our campus.

—Ruth Clayton.

INTERCOLLEGIATE SPORTS FOR WOMEN

Have we girl athletes? Yes, but give us a chance to prove it.

If you have ventured ever to the Smart gymnasium you have probably noticed how happy and healthy the girls are in comparison with other girls. The reason for this is that they have applied their energy to the promotion of health and competition. When the former is in view the latter must be sought after for results—does not, competition lead to better results? Does more effort, exertion, and sweat lead to better results? Yes, it does. It is the only way to get the best out of a thing.

Do not Lincoln say, "that all men are created equal." He believed women as well in this statement. If fellows are given the privilege of entering intercollegiate sports, why are we denying the same right to girls? Why do we have not applied for it. It is wholly as important for one as the other.

It isn't as prevalent now as in the dark ages, but still the great majority of people neglect one of the most vital essentials for health—exercise. If competition were such that we could meet other college and university co-eds on our campus, more interest would be aroused. Therefore more girls would take to it—65 athletes and ducks take to water.

To the business world the women are standing out, fighting for their rights. Now girls, particularly in this field—must uphold their purposes and demand more competition through intercollegiate sports for women.

—Lorraine Foley.

To The Associated Women Students:

The honor you bestowed upon me by making me your President during this school year has been a great privilege and honor. I, Edith Fann, your first President, and I, had a delightful visit to the convention at Corvallis, Oregon. We deemed it an honor to represent you there.

I hope you will support your President and continue in your cooperation to make the A. W. S. a recognized organization of real worth through your activities on this campus.

—Phyllis M. Kirkham.

In working for A. W. S. I hope to keep one ideal paramount—an organization representative of ALL co-eds.

I realize that the only assurance of interested cooperation from every girl will come through an activity program that provides an opportunity for their participation and individual development. I shall give my best efforts for the advancement of this type of program.

—Beth Merritt.

STUDENT LIFE

VARIETEE HEES

Angry Mother: Young lady, were you out after ten last night? Daughter: No, mother, I know it's ten, but I did not have the nerve to ask that many.

WHAT IS STREAM?—WATER CHASE WITH THE HEAT. Junior: Can you tell me the value of money? Freshie: No, I never bought.

She: Yes I had a glorious time last summer. Four college chums were in a trap through the Adirondacks. He: Did the tramp have a good time?

HOTTY TOITY Act 1. Scene: Betty of the Effect Town in London. Time: Is six minutes it will be less. Betty: I am the right owner, Joy. Right owner, Joy. Right owner, Joy.

Hal: (instantly alert) The place called Santa Vittia Dance Hall. (The balloon jockey zooms nearer and nearer, and the rope ladder to Hal who nimbly climbs aboard.)

Scene: A cunning little manhole. He: (they) thoroughfare of London, fitted up as a highway and two halves. The first morning saw him, the first night saw him, the first day saw him, the first week saw him, the first month saw him, the first year saw him, the first decade saw him, the first century saw him, the first millennium saw him.

FURTHER TRAINING IN CO-ED SPORTS URGED!

GROWING CO-ED ATHLETIC DEPT., BECKONS ALL!

Annals of Play Day Did a Complete As a Success

The second annual Play Day sponsored by the Phi Delta Pi professional physical education fraternity was held on Friday, Nov. 10. Over one hundred and twenty-five girls, representing seven different high schools attended Play Day. The schools represented were: Lincoln South Campus, Preston, Hiram and Ogden Central Junior High schools.

Play Day was new to most of the girls, in fact throughout the week this idea has not been carried out very extensively, but we feel that it has proved very successful on the Utah State campus. There is no competition between schools, but in there are individual competition. Each girl as she competes for Play Day was assigned to a color team which was composed of girls from her own high school entered. There were four color teams, the Reds, Blues, Greens and Yellows. All competition was held between color teams. The girls from the various high schools had an opportunity to compete in basketball, volleyball, badminton, tennis, and to compete with each other in friendly rivalry. In this way, the girls were able to exercise and develop, and the sports which are popular and sports obtained.

The program of the day was as follows:

Registration for all girls in the color teams was held at the National games and sisters in the gym for all girls. Division into color teams was held. The girls then had a luncheon and then the girls were divided into color teams on each gym. Out on the gymnasium the girls and yellow teams played basketball and volleyball. After thirty minutes of play each team changed places.

After thirty minutes of play each team changed places. The girls then had a luncheon and then the girls were divided into color teams on each gym. Out on the gymnasium the girls and yellow teams played basketball and volleyball. After thirty minutes of play each team changed places.

The winning team in each event was given five points, first place was given four points, second place was given three points, and third place was given two points. The girls then had a luncheon and then the girls were divided into color teams on each gym. Out on the gymnasium the girls and yellow teams played basketball and volleyball. After thirty minutes of play each team changed places.

The committee in charge of the day was LaVene Petty, Vice President, Carol Green and Vera Williams. Mrs. Carlson was in charge of the social games and the girls were divided into color teams on each gym. Out on the gymnasium the girls and yellow teams played basketball and volleyball. After thirty minutes of play each team changed places.

COMPETITION HOT IN GIRLS' TENNIS Why make the Test It Pleases

Much enthusiasm has been shown by the girls in the tennis tournament. The first round was played, eliminating sixteen girls. The following girls were left in competition: Della Church, Helen McVicker, Venise Carlson, Sybil Christensen, Grace Madison, June Ross, Helen Johnson, Marie Singleton, Ruth Hammond, Barbara Parkerson, Grace Remond, Gratitude Wadley, Cathie Baker, Polly Allen, Berrie May Evans and Gwendolyn Pifer. Many of the second matches should have been played before this date but due to the weather conditions, the girls have been unable to get on the courts.

Manager Margaret Baysore is very well pleased with the way in which the girls have participated and looks at interest in the sport. It is expected that the girls will play the first match of the week, all of the second and third matches will be played off in the third tournament meet this year, especially in the main class. Ever since the class of 22 entered school they have been playing tennis and basketball. This year the girls have been playing tennis and basketball. Utilize All Tricks, Skill of Basketball

Interest had ranked high in all the sports in the girls' department of physical education this year, but perhaps the most excitement centered around basketball. There were two tournaments held this year, the first in the main class and the second in the inter-club class.

There was a great deal of enthusiasm displayed in the inter-club class meet this year, especially in the main class. Ever since the class of 22 entered school they have been playing tennis and basketball. This year the girls have been playing tennis and basketball.

CO-EDS TAKE TO SWIMMING

Swimming has held one of the major positions in the field of major athletics at Utah State this year. The Utah State swimming meets have been held in which a comparatively large number of students entered.

The students in the advanced swimming class have been practicing on the work required to win the Red Cross Life Saving Test. Approximately ten girls will be ready to pass the examination at the end of the spring quarter.

As in other athletic events this year, the swimming team was outstanding among the class. In the two meets which were held, the swimmers won first place with a total of forty points.

Students Have Choice of Types of Sports

Physical Education has existed in one form or another ever since the beginning of man. Civilization has shaped the form it has taken in the various phases of the state. In this way we aid in the great of all national movements in the youth of the nation.

The third division of the work of physical education is the training of physical education teachers. Although this group is small, it is a vital influence on the boys and girls in the schools of Utah and surrounding states. By means of this group, the aims and ideals of physical education as taught by this institution are carried out in the various schools of the state.
