OCTOBER 24-25

Alums Will Return At Homecoming

BY EILEEN GIBBONS

Utah State's homecoming celebration Oct. 24-25, will feature visiting bands, a queen contest, parade, pep rally and football game against Colorado A & M, according to LeRoy Blaser, alumni executive secretary.

Working with Mr. Blaser on the homecoming is David Gittens, student chairman.

Queen candidates will be introduced at the homecoming celebration's first activity, an assembly in the Main auditorium October 21. Students at large will vote on the queens.

Announcements on the queen and her attendants will be made at a pep rally Friday, Oct. 24, at 8 p. m. in the Aggie Fieldhouse. A snake dance will follow the rally.

A parade Saturday at 10 a. m. down Logan's Main street will include more than 60 musical groups, including high school bands from Utah, Idaho, Nevada, and Wyoming. Floats built by Greek and Independent organizations, and the Logan City Chamber of Commerce will also appear in the parade.

Trophies will be given for the most original, best all-around design, and most artistic entries.

Greek organizations, dormitories and independent housing units will compete for trophies in house decorations. The theme to be used in all decorations has not yet been announced.

The Aggies will meet the Colorado A & M Rams in the homecoming football game Saturday, Oct. 25, at 1:30 p. m. Halftime activities will feature introduction of the queen and her attendants, a special demonstration by the Aggie pep band, and high school bands which marched in the parade.

Prominent city, state and school officials have been invited to attend the game as guests of the college.

Aggie alumni will be honored at a sport homecoming dance Saturday at 9 p. m.

'Corny' Theme Set For Friday Dance

"Corn Capers" will be the theme for a studentbody dance Friday at 9 p. m. at the LaDa'Sa, according to Don Bybee, chairman.

Dan Turner, master of ceremonies, promises an intermission program of music, humor and readings.

Dick Beecher's orchestra will furnish music and admission will be by studentbody card.

Patrons are Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Hansen.

Harvest Ball chairman Gary Richardson has announced that fellows will wear plaid shirts and jeans, and girls will wear print dresses. Jack Dunn will furnish music for the annual fall social on October 17.

are homecoming chairmen.

Chairmen of special events are Bonnie Reese, dance; Bob Chambers, parade; Ruth Carlson, house decorations; Andy Hays, rally; Gordon Stock, queen candidates; and Joe Nelson, student publicity.

Registration Figures Show Student Gain

By HUGH BARNES

An increase of 25 per cent in new students registered at Utah State has been recorded according to William H. Bell, college registrar.

Over-all enrollment also is greater, Mr. Bell noted. Exact figures as yet are not available, because some have not completed their work yet.

Registration went very smoothly, Mr. Bell noted; and he expressed his appreciation to the faculty, students, deans, and advisors for their cooperation.

Some delay was caused by new students not notifying the registrar's office of their intention to attend Utah State.

Registration is hard or easy depending upon the cooperation between administration, faculty, and student Mr. Bell stated. He estimates that if students will be in the assigned place at the assigned time, registration for winter quarter should not take over thirty minutes per student.

Booster Committee Plans Pep Rally On Quad Friday

A pep rally in advance of Saturday's football game with Idaho University from Moscow will be held Friday at noon on the center of the Quad.

George D. Preston, Logan attorney and member of the Board of Trustees, will be featured speaker at the rally.

New cheerleaders will also be introduced.

Larry Porter, student councilman directing the Booster Committee, is in charge of the rally.

Ag Yell-Masters Chosen for Year

Aggie pep got a new boost this week with the announcement of seven cheer leaders to lead Farmer yells.

At recent tryouts for cheerleaders two new fellows and three girls were selected. Back from last year are Dick Headlee, cheer king, and Dick Lewis.

Publications Need Photographer; Work Held Up

A photographer is urgently needed to work on the campus student publications, according to Monte Merrill, chairman of the publications council.

Any qualified person should apply immediately as both the Buzzer and Student Life have photographic work which cannot be delayed. The Buzzer must have a photographic record of school activities to make the yearbook complete.

This position offers an opportunity to participate in a wide variety of activities and events on the campus. A salary is provided by a recent constitutional amendment.

There is also an opening for an assistant photographer. Anyone who can qualify for either of these positions should make application without delay. Application blanks are available in the Student Body office in the Commons building. Further information about these positions may be obtained from Mr. Merrill or the Buzzer editor, Darrell Deem.

Madsen Heiress

President and Mrs. Louis L. Madsen have a new daughter—a 7 pound, 11 ounce girl, born Monday at Logan LDS hospital.

The "first family" of the college now include three daughters and five sons.

Elderster in Mary Edith, a freshman at USAC. Then comes Louis Linden Jr., Logan high student; John, in the junior high; Patricia, David and Paul, at the Whittier school, and Robert, not yet in school.

The new leaders are Jerry Sherratt, Vard Johnson, Joyce Marshall, Shirley Brower, and LaVonne Jensen.

Tryouts were under the direction of Larry Porter, chairman of the Booster committee.

Official approval for the leaders came Tuesday at student council meeting.

The new yell masters had their first baptism into collegiate cheering ranks at the Wyoming game last Saturday. They previously conducted a pep rally.

This week, they will lead cheers at the Friday rally, at noon in the middle of the quad. George D. Preston will speak at the rally.

Some of the cheerleaders will represent the college at the game with Fresno State College in Fresno, Calif., Oct. 18, along with the marching band.

String Quartet Plans Program

Utah State college's string quartet will present a 20-minute recital at the annual convention of the Utah Educational Association in Salt Lake City Friday.

The recital is scheduled for 10:30 a. m. in the LDS assembly hall, according to Dr. N. W. Christiansen, head of instrumental music at USAC.

In the quartet Dr. Christiansen plays the viola; Mischa Poznanski, the violin; George Pahtz, cello, and Dorothy Jepson, violin.

Mr. Pahtz and Mr. Poznanski are instructors in instrumental music at USAC and Miss Jepson is a secretary in the president's office.

'Life' Conducting Poll For Aggie Political Preference

BY GEORGE MITTON

Judging from the hot air that has been drifting across the campus of late, it's evident that the political season is in full bloom. There seems to be plenty of voting advice to be had for the asking. In fact, even for not asking. We are being urged to vote and to vote intelligently, though this qualification may keep most of us away from the polls.

Some of the students at Utah State are eligible to cast a ballot and others are not; but regardless of our status, we are entitled to our opinion. This is a free country and no one will deny us this right—especially if we keep quiet about it. But the staff of Student Life thinks that the opinion of the students should be known. For this reason we are taking a poll.

Push and Poll

Now we all know that taking polls at election time has proven risky business, especially if you are trying to predict the winner—or even the loser. Our purpose, however, is not to make fatal predictions, but to get a cross section of opinion on the Aggie campus. Will you cooperate?

Below is a form listing the leading candidates, or a place to indicate if you are undecided in your choice. In the space provided, mark your preference with your usual X. Vote for one person under each heading.

Or, if more convenient, mail it to the editor of Student Life. I'm sure he would be happy to hear from you. No box top is required, and this offer positively expires at midnight, October 14. Results of the poll will be announced in next week's Student Life. See you then.

Hubbard's Cupboard

By DEON HUBBARD

Student Body President

Was our leadership workshop worthwhile?

Many who attended said yes, others, I suppose, doubted. Yet the workshop itself recommended that another be held this coming spring.

Were you aware that there are over 90 campus organizations, with over 90 sets of officers? What a wealth of knowledge and experience these hundreds of people could lend to our campus government, which government represents you, the students, and legislates and provides activities for each of us.

Why have a workshop? Organization officers have enough to do now without creating something more to take up our time.

I would like to list a few reasons I think a workshop is important. See if you agree with me.

1. Students might have a greater voice in campus government by recommendations from this body to the campus governing body.

2. Opportunity for organization leaders and students to get information from student executive officers.

3. Provide campus leaders with an opportunity to become acquainted and exchange ideas among themselves.

4. We leaders might receive training from other leaders who have excelled in leadership.

5. To bring yearly continuity to organizations by bringing both new and old officers together, thus the reason for a springtime program.

6. Evaluate the organization and activities of our own group and the campus government as a whole.

7. Bring students and administration closer with an exchange of information to and from each body.

Think about these things, make suggestions and let's look into the future of spring and another leadership workshop.

Shed Is Down, Campus Goes Dry; Cider To Be Made in TUB

The campus has gone dry!

After many years, an institution which is almost as old as the campus has given way to modern progress.

We speak, of course, of the old apple cider shed which this week was torn down for a new campus road.

For many years—just how many we can't definitely determine—this shed has been the processing center for AggieLand's apple cider, and also the depository for horticultural beauties grown by college experts.

However, the question now is: "should cider be made in the TUB." There seems to be justification for it.

Despite the fact that the manufacturing center has been torn down, it is being moved to the TUB for a temporary period.

Right now, we can remember the spicy, cool glasses of cider we used to sip—cider made at the college cider shed, but our new experiences of sipping cider in the TUB should be something to look forward to.

'Life' Editors Ask For Student Expression

Do you agree with us? It has come to the attention of the editors that students often complain about the editorial policy of Student Life or other conditions on the campus, and feel that they would like more of a voice in determining policy. These same students harbor a wealth of opinion and suggestions which should be aired and considered by the student-body.

For a long time Student Life has opened its pages for student expression, but few have taken advantage of the opportunity. We would like to encourage "letters to the editor," whether they be constructive criticism or wholesome praise for accomplishments on the campus. You may be assured that we will print all letters written with a reasonable purpose.

Student Life is an organ for student expression and all students are entitled to this privilege.

"Ya shoulda seen th' look on Dalby's face when Floyd started playing the piccolo."

Students desiring to submit letters to the editor should leave them at the Student Life box in the campus postoffice. Letters must be signed. Students who want only their initials used must submit their full name to Student Life. Unsigned letters cannot be printed.

Student All Wet

Dear Editor:

I think it would be nice if students could walk up to school at night without fear of getting soaked to the skin from sprinklers which they cannot see in the dark.

Steve Tillett.

Grateful Frosh

Dear Editor:

In view of the past two weeks at Utah State college, I have found that the sophomores, juniors and seniors are an excellent group of college students. I guess that they realize what a kind word or the directions to Td9 means to a frosh. Whenever that blank expression of "I think I'm lost again" came to my face, a smile gave me reassurance that they had survived it all and so could I.

Everything that has happened to us these two weeks has helped to acquaint us better with college life. The tests, parties, dances, football games and classes have given us confidence that someday we'll become an upperclassman.

Special thanks to the P. E. department faculty and Mr. Israel Heaton for the freshman party; to Dick Merrill, socials chairman, for the "Get-Acquainted dance"; to Mary Helen Tweedie, AWS president for the "big sister" program, the AWS tea and the fashion show; and to all the studentbody officers and upperclassmen for helping the freshman to take the step up into college life.

Sincerely,

JUDY BARKER, Freshman.

Dr. Myers Visits European Cities

"Europe should be contrasted with America rather than compared," commented Dr. Chester J. Myers, head of the speech and drama department at Utah State college, upon returning recently from a five-month tour of 20 European countries.

One of Dr. Myers' reasons for going to Europe was to visit and observe the European theater. "There is much American dramatists can learn from the Europeans," he said. "They stage lavish productions. Culture is deeply rooted in Europe and unlike America nearly every town, regardless of size, has a theater."

European Colleges

After visiting many college campuses, he had this to say: "European colleges are steeped in tradition. Here at USAC we talk of tearing down Old Main. They wouldn't destroy it but rather preserve it and build a new one next door."

Europeans are friendly, helpful and interested in America. Dr. Myers found. Many would like to visit us, and people there are adopting American ideas. Our influence can be observed in their postwar architecture.

While buying strawberries in the Nice latin quarter, Dr. Myers found himself in the midst of a Communist demonstration. As the violators filed past, shouting "go home Americans, go home Ridgway, he stepped back into the shop and took a photograph of policemen breaking up the demonstration.

Because of the American soldiers now in Europe, tourists have very little difficulty in traveling. Knowledge of a little French and German helps, except in Italy where only the native tongue is spoken. However, if you know the word "spaghetti" you will never go hungry there.

When Dr. Myers was unable to get a room in Chester, England, he spent the night in a pub. In Naples, the landlord blocked off a hallway for him to sleep in.

Beer And Sandwiches

How would you like a breakfast of open-faced sandwiches and beer? That is what Myers had for breakfast in Sweden. In England there is little variety of food, but every other country has food which is native to it. Coffee, wine and beer are the most popular beverages. Ask for water and they think you want a bath.

Of interest to Dr. Myers was the fact that Coca Cola has swept every country but one.

Dr. Myers filled two small books with information about his trip and took numerous colored slides. Pieces of glassware and china were brought home to add to his collection.

"The background that I obtained from my trip will be invaluable in my work. When I read about the White Cliffs of Dover or the Oxford towers, I will know what they really are like," Dr. Myers concluded.

was sophomore class president and cheerleader. She was also a member of the Pep club and the girls' softball and basketball teams.

Miss Walker was student body secretary of Alterra high when she was a junior.

Last year the high school was consolidated with Union high, and she was secretary of the home economics club.

Active in 4-H club activities, she has been president and secretary and has won sewing demonstrations in her region.

Miss Walker graduated as an honor student, with an A-minus average. She was also yearbook queen and a candidate for Region 5 sweetheart.

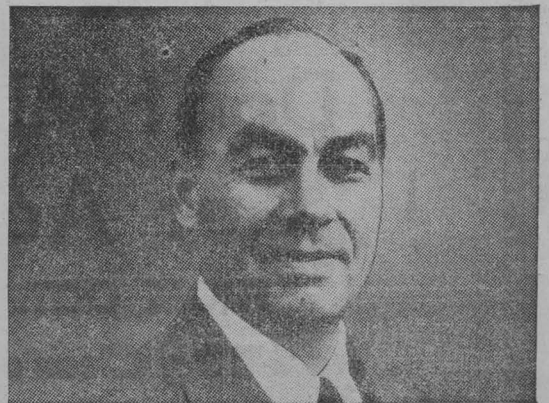

At Utah State she is majoring in medical technology, and hopes to work as a laboratory technician with her training.

Former Railroad Detective Finds A C Dangerous

By ELEANOR KNOWLES

His first day as a college freshman proved more dangerous than 17 years as a railroad detective for a 48-year-old Logan man.

Utah State college greenie, Kenneth P. Deline, slipped and broke his leg while descending a hill on the way home from his first day in school in 32 years. He spent the next four school days studying in a hospital bed.

Mr. Deline decided to return to school this fall to learn scientific explanations for human behavior which he observed as detective for the Great Lakes division of the Northern Pacific railroad and the Union Pacific railroad.

Daughter An Aggie

At USAC, he is studying psychology, sociology and physiology this quarter. Mr. Deline isn't the only college student in his family. His daughter, Judy, is a sophomore studying music.

Following graduation from high school, Mr. Deline worked for a while wiring electrical fixtures, and in the classified ads department of a Duluth, Minn., newspaper.

For three and a half years he was associated with the special agents, or railroad police, on the Northern Pacific railroad. Then, in 1927, he moved to Los Angeles and joined the special service department of the Union Pacific. From then until 1940 he was in charge of policing the territory from Salt Lake City to Los Angeles and the Northwest.

Guarded President

Among the experiences he had while working for the railroad was the guarding of two presidential trains and several Hollywood personalities.

Railroad detectives are subject to call 24 hours a day and 365 days a year, Mr. Deline commented. Burglary, forgery, petty and

Sunday Evening Services

Institute Adds New Features

Sacrament services, a new feature of the LDS Institute, will begin Sunday, Oct. 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the Institute.

A choir, which will sing at all services, has been organized with W. H. Terry, well-known Cache musician, conducting.

Choir practices are held Monday and Wednesday at 5 p.m. in the Institute and active members will receive one-half Institute credit.

A scout leadership training class, taught by professional scout men, has been added to the MIA program. MIA is held Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m.

"There are now at least eight units on campus housing young unmarried students," Dr. W. W. Richards, Institute director, pointed out. These include dormitories and sorority and fraternity houses.

"We know that in the past a great many students have felt the need of a central place to worship," he said. "We want them to feel that they have a home on the campus where they can gather with other young people."

Dr. Richards emphasized that inasmuch as these activities are under student direction, everyone who wishes to take advantage of them will have an opportunity to develop their abilities. He invited all students to participate.

New improvements intended to take care of increased enrollment have been made in the Institute and on the grounds.

Registration for Institute classes will be held open until Oct. 11, Dr. Richards said.

Lambda Delta Sigma applications are now being accepted in the Institute foyer.

Board of Trustees Sept. 27.

One provision of the charter is for a union director, whose duty will be to administer a Union program. This director will be recommended by the Student Union board and appointed by the Board of Trustees.

Union Opens Mid-Novem.

The Student Union Board anticipates middle November for opening date of the new Student Union building. Work has progressed throughout the summer for the completion of this student financed building which will serve as a "union and community center" for the college.

The following rooms will be in complete readiness upon the opening of the building: a cafeteria and a fountain room which will be both modern and adequate; a lounge; the sky room, a place for social gatherings and parties of clubs and Greek organizations; a ball room, recreation room and various student offices.

Making plans and facing problems connected with the union building is the task of the Student Union Board, which has been meeting regularly since its organization in May of this year.

Members of the board are: Harold Dance, chairman, a local alumnus and business man; Leah Farr, dean of women; Joseph N. Symons, dean of men; C. D. McBryde, a faculty representative; Deon Hubbard, student body president; Dick Merrill, social chairman; Bonnie Reese and Preston Thomas.

A chief accomplishment of the board has been to draw up a charter for the union building which establishes policies and conditions concerning it. The completed charter was passed by the student council Sept. 20 and by the

ROTC Unit Inspected By Officers

Commending the excellent ROTC program at Utah State college Monday was Brig. Gen. B. M. Fitch, commanding general, Utah Military district, who with five members of his staff paid an inspection visit to the college.

General Fitch and the other military personnel conferred with President Louis L. Madsen, Dean Carlton Culmsee, Col. Karl C. Frank, ROTC coordinator, Lt. Col. Robert J. Hill, professor of air science and tactics, and other USAC faculty members.

First Stop

USAC was the first stop of Fitch and his staff who are conducting an inspection of army reserve officers training corps activities in Idaho, Montana, and Nevada.

They will visit Idaho State college, Pocatello; Montana State college, Bozeman; Military District headquarters at Missoula, Mont.; Boise, Idaho and Reno, Nevada; and Junior ROTC units in Logan, Boise, Reno and Las Vegas. The group will also visit headquarters of the 96th Infantry Reserve division at Helena, Mont.

Emphasis is now being placed upon informing young men and their parents of an Army Reserve obligation under Public Law 51, passed by Congress on June 19, 1951, which requires a total of eight years of active and reserve military service for all physically qualified young men.

Advantages Cited

General Fitch in commenting on the magnitude of the army reserve program states, "I believe it behooves all parents of young men ages 17 to 19 to recognize the decided advantages accruing to the young men who belongs to reserve components."

"One particular advantage is that when he receives his draft call he will be allowed to go on active duty as a reservist in his selected branch and present grade held in the Organized Reserve Corps for the same length of time that he would be required to serve if drafted."

'Buzzer' Staff Positions Open

All students wishing to apply for Buzzer staff should do so before October 10, according to Darrell Deem, editor. Buzzer office is Commons 114.

Junior class pictures will be taken this week in the Men's Lounge of the Commons. Senior class pictures will be taken the following week. Caps and gowns will be furnished by the photographer.

Staff members will be chosen the week of Oct. 13 and announced in Student Life.

Make-ups for Buzzer pictures will be Oct. 16 and 17. Those who have not had their pictures taken must make an appointment before that date. Appointments will be handled in the Men's Lounge.

Lyceum Attractions Slated; Alec Templeton to Perform Chairmen Named

Ruth Schick and Beverly Thompson have been selected as co-chairmen of the "Preference Ball" to be held Nov. 14, according to Mary Helen Tweedie, AWS president.

Applications are now being accepted for other chairmen positions, and those who are interested may submit their applications to the student body office, Miss Tweedie concluded.

Did you hear about the girl who didn't know whether lettuce was a vegetable or a proposition?

Coming attractions to the Utah State college campus include five lyceums.

The feature of the year will be the performance of Alec Templeton. The blind pianist and composer will be here March 9. He is noted for his operatic satire.

November 2 has been set as the date for the appearance of Ana Maria's Spanish Ballet. The National Operatic Sextet has scheduled its appearance for Jan. 25. This group of two women and four men will give a program consisting of favorite duets, trios, quartets, and sextets from grand opera and operetta.

Two other programs are being arranged by Prof. Arthur Holmgren, chairman of the college lyceum bureau.

Road Rules To Remain In Effect

Present traffic regulations now in effect on the campus are not likely to be changed in the near future, according to Harold Wadsworth, superintendent of buildings and grounds.

"Our policy is to try and keep students from violating traffic regulations," Mr. Wadsworth stated.

Plans call for additional traffic signs, the painting of pedestrian lanes in front of the Library, Engineering building, and the new Union building; the surfacing of all parking areas with crushed rock, and the completion of a three-lane highway in front of the Student Union building.

Access Road

The new highway will be closed during school hours to traffic but will be open in the evening for easy access to the Union building. The roads in front of the library and Old Main will continue to be one-way streets.

Mr. Wadsworth is in need of students to aid in traffic control from 7:30 a.m. to 10 a.m. and 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. and to help afternoons in erecting traffic signs.

Lots For Visitors

Visitor parking lots are located in the yellow marked areas west of the library and west of the Main.

The area east of the Rural Arts building assigned to the junior class and the area around the livestock judging pavilion assigned to the freshman class are not being used to capacity, Mr. Wadsworth reports.

Clearing of the intersection and road in front of the Student Union building will begin as soon as preparations are complete.

You say you want to have some fun? Then hurry and mark Wednesday, October 15, on your social calendar. The place is the Smart gymnasium and the time is 7 p.m. All girls taking a class in any of the fields of Home Economics are invited to attend. Also, anyone interested in Home Economics is welcome to come and join the fun. Socks and jeans are in order.

Engineers

Student chapter of the American Society of Civil Engineers will hold their first meeting of the year Thursday, Oct. 9, at 10 a.m. in the Engineering building, according to Robert McElrath, president.

To organize committees for homecoming is the purpose of this meeting. All engineers are urged to attend.

Institute of Radio Engineers

Mr. Henry Ferring, a representative of Peterson Company, Denver, Colorado, will speak on the subject "The Instrument Story" before the student branch of the Institute of Radio Engineers Tuesday, Oct. 14, 7:30 p.m. in the engineering auditorium.

All interested persons are cordially invited to attend.

The campus branch of the Association for Childhood Education will hold its first meeting Oct. 15, at 4 p.m. in the men's lounge in the Commons.

"Audio-Visual Aides" is the subject for discussion. All those enjoying and minoring in elementary education and child development are cordially invited to attend.

Seaboard & Blade

A big year is in the making for Seaboard and Blade. A company of the 4th Regiment will be backed by a new advisor and company cadre. Lt. Litz will take over as advisor, succeeding Major Pederson.

New officers include: Captain, Pleasie Moore; 1st Lt., Dean Hurd; 2nd Lt., Morton Brann; 1st Sgt., Robert Skanich.

On the evening of the 8th the first official meeting was held at a home in Logan Canyon. This "get acquainted" meeting proved to be a success, paving the way for an active program during the fall semester.

Emercy County Club

Emercy County Club is holding a get acquainted party tonight from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in the L.D.S. Institute.

Committees have been chosen as follows: entertainment, Dale Behunin, chairman; and Louise

Meistersingers Begin Rehearsal

If you are interested in singing and in having a good time, you'll be interested in reading this . . .

The Meistersingers, a college men's chorus, is starting rehearsals tonight at 7:30 p.m. in room M 134. Director Walter Wolf announced that there are openings for all parts, especially in first and second tenor sections.

Last June the organization completed a very successful year which included two tours into Idaho and Utah, and performed in the chorus is now making plans for an even bigger year which will include a tour into southern Utah.

With the Chansons, the girls' chorus, the Meistersingers also put on a spring concert.

All who are interested in joining are urged to attend tonight's meeting or to contact either Professor Welit or Gary Richardson as soon as possible.

Coeds Invited to Hellenic Party

Opening Panhellenic activities for the Hellenic party Oct. 9, from 5:30 to 7 p.m. in the fieldhouse. All freshman girls and new transfer students are encouraged to attend. Dress is either your "old blue jeans" or pedal pushers. Barbara Jensen is acting as chairman of the fascinating frolic with Dick Peterson and Rilla DePayne as her assistants.

Fraternities will provide the entertainment by presenting short skits after which refreshments will be served.

"The purpose of the get-together is to inform new students about sororities, their functions, and rush week," commented Joan Munk, president of the Panhellenic Council.

Beta Pi Sorority Planning Dance As Gift Fund Project

A theme of "Black Magic" will be featured at an informal dance at the LDS Institute ballroom, Saturday, Oct. 18, at 9 p.m. Refreshments, intermission program, appropriate decorations and an excellent orchestra have been arranged.

The dance, sponsored by Beta Pi, returned lady missionary sorority, is their annual project to raise a gift fund which will be presented to the Institute.

Tickets, $1.00 couple, may be purchased from any member of Beta Pi.

La Dean Nielsen, a senior from

Hyrum, is general chairman. Beta Pi held their first meeting Wednesday evening and a welcome social on Oct. 1, with 15 pledges attending.

Any returned lady missionary is invited to their gathering every Wednesday at 7 p.m. in the Institute.

Library Receives Volumes

The library has received a set of the 51-volume Great Books of Western World, requested by its publishers as the largest and perhaps the most significant publishing venture of the 20th century, according to King Hendricks, director of the library.

This set, produced jointly by Encyclopedia Britannica, Inc. and the University of Chicago, comprises 543 works by 74 authors, from Homer to the present.

The key to the set is a new reference work, the two-volume Syntopicon, so-called because it provides orderly access to the topics which are the great themes of Western thought. It is the result of more than seven years work by more than 120 scholars. Classified under 102 "Great Ideas," the Syntopicon contains 163,000 references to passages in the Great Books themselves.

A new method of circulation has been introduced at the library during the past two weeks. It was announced by Milton Abrams, associate librarian.

A conversion has been made from a double entry which was a book card and call slip, to a single entry. The single entry is only one card with a combination of the date due, name, address, and phone numbers. These cards are red and blue in color, are being used for books and the blue for magazines.

When a book is taken out of circulation, the date due is punched on the single entry card. Each day, the cards are needed for the books which are overdue. This system speeds up the circulation process and reduces the probability of errors in the filing of the cards. It is being used in the acquisitions, serials and circulation departments and in all the branch libraries on the campus.

If students have any questions help may be obtained from the attendants at the loan desk, according to Mr. Abrams.

Book order cards in this system are now available to faculty members.

GOP'ers Plan Campus Meet

The Young Republicans organization of this campus will hold their first meeting Wednesday, Oct. 15, at 7:30 p.m. in the Main auditorium. A prominent speaker will be on hand to give the organization a send-off.

Representatives have been chosen from various campus groups to arouse enthusiasm about the coming political election.

Everyone interested is invited to attend.

Places Open In Forensics

Students who are interested in forensics or debating are requested to come to Main 252 as soon as possible, according to Dr. Rex Rohm, debate coach. Previous experience in this field is not necessary.

The national debate question is: Resolved: That the Congress of the United States Should Enact a Compulsory Fair Employment Practices Law." Dr. Robinson commented: "This proposal has been a part of President Truman's Civil Rights program which has bothered the south, and should prove to be an interesting debate proposition."

The first major trip for debaters this fall will be to Denver, Colo., to attend the Western association tournament. Future plans of the organization include trips to Western Oregon and Redland, California.

Those who have attended previous meetings are: Jim Allen, debate manager, Dean Baxter, Martin Pond, Royce Horst, Dave Sanders, Vira Beth Robson, Lorraine Storey, Nora E. Thurgood, Charlene Lind, Na Dene Fowler, Mavis Mitchell and Kathleen Lemon.

Rice Loan Fund Is Established

A student loan fund has been established at Utah State college for students attending the School of Forest, Range, and Wildlife Management. The fund is the W. B. Rice memorial loan fund.

After serving for seven years as a regional forester, Mr. Rice was stricken in January, 1950, with a fatal heart attack while in Idaho.

The administering committee for the fund includes Dean Turner, the student president of the Utah Foresters, and the chairman of the Intermountain section, Society of American Foresters.

The fund is available to upper classmen and graduate students who need the money.

Dr. Myers Slates Drama Production

At least six dramatic productions are being planned for Utah students during 1952-53, according to Dr. Chester J. Myers, head of the department of speech and drama.

All students interested in being in either play casts or production casts are invited to a meeting Monday at 5 p.m. in the Little Theater.

They need not be major speech and drama to participate in Utah State Theater plays, Myers stressed.

"The Merchant of Venice" has been chosen for the annual Shakespearean production and professional actors will be invited to major roles, department officials said.

Prof. Floyd T. Morgan will direct three plays and George W. Morgan will direct one. There will be one exchange drama with Intermountain school.

A business manager or manager is needed for each production, Dr. Myers has announced. Interested students should apply to him. No experience necessary.

Pep Band Performs Saturday

At the Utah State-Idaho game Saturday, October 4, the entire pep band will appear for the first time in the season. Those performing at the last two games have been only a part of the band. The Preston, Idaho, high school band will represent the University of Idaho.

Professor Dalby, director of the band, announced that his aim is to have one of the best marching bands in the conference. For this reason there will be no band concerts until the winter or spring quarters. There are 106 members in the entire band, forty of whom are new this year. The drum major and drum majorette are Larry Hanson and Pat Brown.

Clair Woodward is the assistant director of the band and Professor Burrell, professor of radio and speech, has been the narrator during the half time performances. The band has prepared a program intitled "Autumn" which they will present at the Idaho game.

Touch FB Begins; Schedule Given

Intramural touch football got underway last Wednesday with Delta Phi, Sigma Chi and Sigma Nu emerging victors. Contests will continue until bad weather prevails.

In last Wednesday's contests Delta Phi won by forfeit over Sigma Pi, Sigma Chi defeated S.P.E. 16-7 while Sigma Nu walked over Kappa Sigma 25-0.

Tomorrow will find S.A.E. and L.D.S.; Sigma Pi will tangle with S.P.E. and the Engineers will meet the faculty.

Cowboys Whitewash Utah Aggies 14-0

BY ROD JENSEN

Too much of one thing and not enough of another laid the ground work for Utah State's 14-0 setback at the hands of Wyoming University last Saturday — first conference setback of the season for the Farmers.

About 7,000 fans watched a powerful Utah Aggie eleven chew up yardage all afternoon and come out way ahead in the statistical department, yet falter like a 15-cent piece when touchdown opportunity knocked.

There was simply too much Chuck Spaulding on the Wyoming side and not enough of his type lugging the pigskin or slinging passes for the Aggies. Therein lies Utah State's glaring weakness—no super passer or runner!

Fans viewing the debacle in 82-degree heat watched Wyoming punch over for its first touchdown with 4½ minutes remaining in the first quarter, just a couple of minutes after the Cowboy offense stalled on the Aggie one-inch line.

Seven plays after Barry Flenniken kicked out of "danger," Chuck (the guy with the athletic name) Spaulding dashed off tackle for six points. Jack Jones' conversion was good and the Ags were in a hole immediately.

But Coach John Roning's men, tearing the Wyoming line to shreds with power plays through the middle, held the Pokes on even terms until the Farmer defense had another momentary lapse with three minutes left in the game.

At that time Bill Hileman,

Wyoming end, intercepted one of Jack Hill's aerials on the Aggie 20 and the Pokes were off for six more, with Spaulding finally cracking over, standing up. Jones' boot made it 14-0.

Statistics prove Utah State outplayed Wyoming—whenever the Aggies were in their own territory, anyway. Four times the Staters drove into scoring position, but never did they get any closer than the 16-yard line.

Fumbles (USAC made six of 'em) kept the Aggies in a hole all afternoon, and intercepted passes failed to help the locals' cause. Nevertheless, Utah State outgained Wyoming in total offense, 302 to 220 yards, and had 12 to 7 first downs.

Bowden Wyatt, Wyoming coach, called Utah State's fullback Del Ray Campbell the best ball player on the field. Del was continuously a thorn in the Pokes' sides with his teeth-rattling smashes at the line.

Defense stars, Dale Gardner, Russ McGraw, Wendell Hess and Dale Jasper turned in commendable performances. Spaulding and Hileman were standouts for the Wyoming invaders.

Aggies-Vandals Clash in Saturday Tilt

BY ANDY HAYS

With ideas of upsetting a Pacific conference foe this weekend, the statistically strong Utah Aggies will play host to the Vandals of the University of Idaho on Saturday afternoon at 1:30 in the stadium. This is the first of a pair of non-conference tilts on the next two Saturdays as the Aggies will journey to Fresno, Cal., to play Fresno State on Oct. 18.

Statistically the Staters have topped all of their competition thus far in the rugged grid campaign, but the Logan based grid-ders fail to produce the punch in the close-to-the-goal-line drives.

Sophomore tail-back Jack Hill and junior full back Del Ray Campbell are listed as one-two in the ground gaining race in the conference, well ahead of the rest of the pack. George Hotchkinn, the talented junior end, is on top in the pass receiving department and rated as fifth in the nation on the basis of his 14 catches for 152 yards.

But in the scoring department Coach John Roning's crew are having trouble keeping up with the "Jones's." Scoring only two touchdowns in three ball games just isn't enough to be the winner and the Aggies are working plenty hard to improve on their weaknesses.

This week-end will be evidence enough to see if the Utags can pull themselves out of the scoring famine against the strong Idaho eleven. A strong rushing team on offense, the Vandals have trouble with the pass defense situation, being rated on the bottom of the Pacific Coast conference in that department. Statistics show that the Idaho squad is second in ground gaining with 207.6 yards per game average.

The line-ups will be somewhat the same in the Aggie two platoon system, although Coach Roning has not made any definite announcement as to Saturday's starters.

The starting back-field will probably be Hill at left-half, Barry Flenniken at quarterback, Earl Lindley at right half, and Campbell at fullback. Hotchkinn and Matt Trontel or Charlie Hatch will be at the ends, Darwin Brown and Rod Coster at tackles, Eli Keolanui and Dave Kragthorpe at the guards and Lew Edwards at center.

Defensively there will be some changes, although it is expected that Joe Cipolla and Ralph Cavalcade will be at the ends with Dale Jasper, Larry Montgomery, Wendell Hess, captain Dale Gardner, and Russ McGraw filling in the inside and line-backer slots.

New Intramural Program Given

Men's intramural sports, branch of the Physical education and recreation department, have listed their sports schedule for this fall on the campus of Utah State college.

Richard "Dick" Motta, the new Student Intramural Manager, extended his hope and desire for a large turnout of all former and new students in the Intramural and All Campus sports program.

Dick Motta listed three sports for the Intramural club league fall schedule: Touch football, which began October 8; wrestling which began November 4; and "A" basketball will start December 2. "All students at U.S.A.C. are eligible for the team league," the new student manager stated.

Dick Motta also said that the All Campus program for this fall offers three activities: Golf, which will begin October 14; Horseshoes will start October 16; Tennis (doubles) to start their battle October 20.

Any student wanting to manage a club or group in the men's intramural team play, or anyone desiring to enter the All Campus activities, should contact either Mr. Ray Watters, supervisor of men's intramural sports, or Dick Motta, at the Smart gymnasium, physical education department, Motta, Student intramural manager pointed out.

Statistics Given For Conference

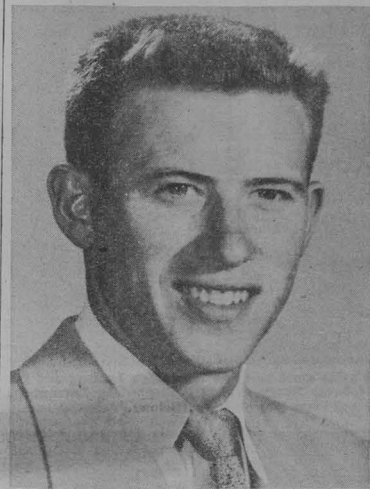

Utah State's sophomore half-back, Jack Hill, moved into the lead in the ball lugging department with a total of 151 yards gained in 31 attempts. He picked up 73 yards last week while the Aggies were losing to Wyoming to finish in front of his teammate, Delray Campbell, who held second place with 141 yards.

In the passing department, Don Burroughs, Colorado A&M quarterback, heaved three touchdown passes against Denver last week but still wound up second to Utah's sparkling Don Rydalc. Rydalc picked up 109 yards through the air with eight completions in 13 attempts against Arizona to stay atop the conference passing list with a total of 25 completions in 38 attempts. Burroughs has 24 completions in 42 throws.

Chuck Spaulding of Wyoming lead the punting department with an average of 45.3 yards per boot. Denver's John Zibnack with an average of 13.2 yards per carry headed the punt returns column.

Chuck Spagnoli of Denver and Alvin Doresey of Colorado A&M headed the touchdown parade with three apiece.

snaggers with a total of 14 catches for 152 yards. Wyoming's Harry Geldien was second with only four catches—but they were good for 125 yards.

Brigham Young is leading the nation in pass defense, turning back three foes with 27.4 yards per game and permitting its opponents to complete only 25 per cent of their passes. Southern Methodist ranks second with a mark of 34 yards allowed per game.

Deline

tip of a 14-year-old school girl who worked for a Hollywood photographer led to the capture of Richie, who had stolen jewels in cities all over the country.

Psychology Major

It was while working with the railroads and coming into contact with the daily public that Mr. Deline became interested in studying psychology.

"I'm tickled to death to be back in school," he says. Barring further accidents in his school career, he hopes to graduate with the class of 1956. He plans to use his training in psychology in industrial work.

Mr. and Mrs. Deline and their two daughters, Judy and Paula, live at 1718 Canyon Road, Logan, where Mrs. Deline operates a ceramic shop.

Chemist on Leave

Dr. Harris O. Van Orden, of the chemistry department, has been granted a year's leave, without pay, to study peptide chemistry in connection with the U. S. Public Health Service.

Peptide is a synthetic substance used in the study of proteins.

Dr. Van Orden has been given a research fellowship at the Laboratory of Hereditary and Metabolic Disorders, College of Medicine at the University of Utah.

Pre-Med Test Admissions Due

All premedical students who are applying for entrance into medical school in the fall of 1953, and who have not already taken the medical college admission test, should make arrangement immediately for taking the test on Nov. 3. Applications forms may be obtained in M-231. These applications must reach Princeton, New Jersey, not later than Oct. 20.

Pre dental students who plan to enter dental school in the fall of 1953 will have the opportunity of taking the A.D.A. aptitude test, which is to be given in M-230 Saturday, Oct. 25, at 8:30 a.m. All applications for the test must be in Chicago, Ill., by Oct. 10. Individuals desiring further information may call the Zoology Department.

"My wife says if I don't give up drinking she'll leave me."
"Gosh, that'll be pretty bad, won't it?"

"Yeah, I'll miss her."

Poor Danney died from drinking shellac.

"Well, at least he had a fine finish."

He had choked her. She was dead. There was no question about it. He had listened to her dying gasp. Now she was dead, cold as the hand of death. Yet in his anger he was not convinced. Furious still, he kicked her again. To his amazement she gasped, coughed, then began to hum softly.

"Just a little patience is all it takes John," said his wife from the back seat.

"I warn you, said the pint-sized sailor. "Don't raise the animal in me."

"Don't worry," said his hulking wife. "I'm not afraid of mice."

A Cape Cod native had a well dug on his property. Shortly after, his daughter fell in. Was the native perturbed? Not an old Cape Codder like him. He simply drove to the nearest bookstore and ordered a copy of "How to Bring Up Young Girls."

They stretched the man out on the police station floor and the doctor examined him. "This man has been drugged."

The policeman who had brought him turned white and said: "I might as well admit it—I drug him four blocks."

Requirement Outlined For Fulbright Awards

Results of the Pacific International Livestock contest show Utah State College as high team in the judging contest.

The contest is being held in Portland, Oregon, Oct. 4 to 14. California State Polytechnical college, San Luis Obispo, Calif., Washington State college, Pullman, Wash., and Oregon State college, Corvallis, Ore., are the other schools participating in the contest.

The Aggies had the high team in beef cattle judging, sheep judging, and second high team in swine judging.

Carrilyn Lowe Beaver, Logan, was the high individual judge of the entire contest. She also was second high in beef cattle judging.

Jack Larsen and Paul Jones, Aggies, tied for first place in the individual sheep judging. Jones also placed fifth in the entire contest. Prof. Doyle Matthews is the coach for the Utah State team.

Aggie members of the livestock judging team are: Carrilyn Lowe Beaver, Gail Jensen, Jack Larson, and Paul Jones.

Enroute to Portland, Ore., the Utah State team visited Idaho university at Moscow, Washington State college at Pullman, and several prominent livestock breeders.

Applications Deadlines Set

Positions now open in student body organizations and deadlines for applications have been announced by Dean W. Hubbard, president.

Applications for freshman class officers are due Nov. 10. Primary elections will be held Nov. 12, and the election Nov. 19. All students enrolled as freshmen this quarter are eligible to apply.

Deadline for applications for Associated Women Students secretary is Oct. 15, according to Mary Helen Tweedie, AWS president. Frances Shoup is AWS vice president.

Applications for Homecoming queen must be turned in to the student body office by Oct. 15.

Chairmanship for Agathon, the educational fair, is now open, and applications should be submitted as soon as possible. Deadline is Oct. 21, and the chairman will be selected at student council meeting that night.

Research Talk Set for Today

The publication of research will be discussed by Joel Walters at 1 p.m. Thursday in room 105 of the Plant Industry building.

Mr. Walters is editor of the Intermountain Forest Experiment Station, Ogden. He is speaking before students in Technical Writing, but any interested student or faculty member is invited, according to Prof. Wendell M. Keck of the English department.

Business Dept. Schedules Exhibitions

A $55,000 assortment of business machines and equipment is being featured in a series of classroom demonstrations and lectures on modern accounting technique, at Utah State college.

The demonstrations and lectures are scheduled for Oct. 8, 9, 10, 13, and 14.

The course is being presented by the education division of Burroughs Adding Machine Co., under auspices of the USAC business administration and accounting department, according to Prof. V. D. Gardner, department head.

"This series," Professor Gardner said, "is part of the USAC's program to equip students with a practical knowledge of business methods."

Purpose of Course

W. E. Gargett, a USAC graduate and manager of the Burroughs branch in Salt Lake City, declared that the purpose of this course is "to introduce the business administration students of our universities to the latest methods and systems used by business in performing the accounting tasks studied in the classroom. The course includes lectures and practical demonstrations in such fields as general, cost, governmental, bank and financial accounting, and statistics."

H. A. Duwe of the Burroughs regional office will conduct the sessions.

The exhibit consists of 26 different types of machines, ranging from simple adding machines to complex, high-speed accounting machines.

New 2-Year Plan

An effort is being made to start a new two-year plan in general education leading to a diploma, Dean Culmsee of the School of Arts and Sciences department announced Tuesday.

A committee has been selected to make further studies on general education in connection with this experimental plan. Those people completing the course would receive a diploma in associated arts or sciences.

The committee will endeavor to create a plan that will be practical as well as having scholastic quality. This process will include revisions of some general education classes and introduction of new courses from time to time during the year.

SEN. ROBERT TAFT
... Logan speaker.

Taft Sets Logan Talk

Senator Robert Taft, Republican from Ohio, will speak at the fieldhouse Wednesday, Oct. 15, at 2:30 p.m.

Other distinguished candidates, including local and state Republican candidates, will also be on the speaker's stand, according to Golden Butters, chairman of the Cache county Republican party.

President Louis L. Madsen has authorized all classes to be dismissed, providing students and faculty make arrangements to make up the time lost. Classes may be dismissed from 2:15 to 3:30 p.m.

There will also be musical numbers on the program, Mr. Butters said. Senator Taft will answer questions at the conclusion of his speech.

Gov. J. Bracken Lee will speak the evening of Oct. 29 at the Capitol theater. Cache valley citizens and students are invited to attend the speech free of charge and to remain for the show after the governor's address.

All club presidents are requested to submit to the Student Personnel office the name of their organization, together with the names, addresses and phone numbers of their club officers.

Animal Judging Team Captures High Points

Do you want to spend a year of study in Europe or the Far East? If you are a senior, and will graduate next June, you are eligible to apply for a Fulbright award which will pay your transportation both ways and give you a living allowance while you study abroad.

Some of the countries participating in the Fulbright program, which is administered by the U. S. Department of State, are Great Britain, Norway, Denmark, France, Austria, Italy, Belgium, Netherlands, India, Pakistan, Thailand and Japan.

Appear in Salt Lake

Application blanks and further information may be obtained from Prof. M. L. Nielsen, department of modern languages, on the campus. The two best candidates from U S A C will appear before a state Fulbright committee in Salt Lake City, sometime in November.

The state committee, interviewing a total of six candidates, from the three Utah institutions of higher learning, will select two for Fulbright awards.

Deadline for filing applications with Prof. Nielsen is Oct. 31. Winners of awards are notified sometime in spring quarter.

Competing against six other teams from the western states, the Aggies placed first in milk judging and second in the judging of butter, cheese, ice cream and all products.

The team, with its coach, Prof. Paul Larsen, was expected back on the USAC campus from Portland Wednesday. Team members are Douglas S. Huber, Heber City; Mack W. Tueller, Paris, Ida., and Rodger L. Stephens, Montpelier, Idaho.

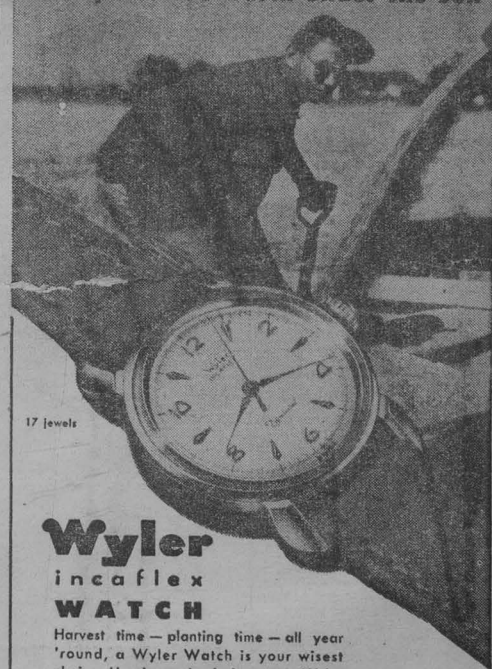

Mr. Huber placed first in cheese, second in milk, and third in all products. Mr. Tueller placed first in milk, and Mr. Stephens placed third in milk, in individual standings. Each team had three members.

The next meeting for all club presidents is scheduled for 12 noon, Nov. 5, at room 101 in the Commons Building.

Minutes of all Student Council meetings will be made available to the student body and administration each Friday in the Student Body office.
