Hey, Aggies—We Can Beat BYU

Keith Anderson eyes the trophy which will be presented to Utah State's "Preferred Man" at the Preference Ball tomorrow night. Ruch Schick holds the trophy while Bey Thompson looks on.

PREFERENCE BALL

Aggie Coeds Pick 'The Man I Love'

BY JUDY BARKER

The Preference Ball, sponsored by the Associated Women Students, is tomorrow at 9 p.m. in the LaDe'Sa ballroom. Decorations for the semi-formal dance will be carried out under the theme of "The Man I Love."

The man whom the majority of the Utah State college women prefer will be presented at intermission time. Mary Helen Tweedie, AWS president, will present a trophy to this "Most Preferred Man" and a large portrait of him will be unveiled. The two Aggie men who are runners-up to the "Most Preferred Man" will also be presented.

"The Man I Love" Neeltje Eggen will then sing the theme song, "The Man I Love." June Lacey will act as mistress of ceremonies.

An interesting fact about last year's "Most Preferred Man," Arnold Gilbert, is that this year he's married. He married the former Janet Jones, an Aggie graduate of '52.

A record attendance is expected at the dance, according to Ruth Schick and Beverly Thompson, co-chairmen. More than 360 girls turned in preferences. This is over one hundred more written preferences as compared with recent years.

Jody Noble's Music Music will be furnished by Jody Noble's 12-piece orchestra.

Other members of this year's Preference Ball committee are: June Lacey, Margaret Greaves and Margaret Sutton, preferences; Nancy Bowen, orchestra; Carol Bird, decorations; Jeanine Madsen, dance cards; Donna Rae Jorgensen, intermission; Carol Kennington, patrons; and Bette Reese and Judy Barker, publicity.

Chest Drive Closes Saturday Only $600 Collected

Saturday will spell "finis" to the 1952 Campus Chest drive, but as yet only about $600 has been collected toward the $3,000 goal set for the Chest drive.

According to Joyce Barkle, chairman of the Chest, arrangements have been made for coffee sales revenue at the Bird, Sawyer's Grill and in the cafeteria, to go toward the fund-raising campaign.

Sponsors Collect

At the game Saturday when Utah State meets Brigham Young University, the ROTC Sponsor Corp will pass contribution boxes among the spectators in an attempt to near the set goal. Contribution boxes also are located at various places on campus.

The purpose of the two-week campaign is to collect all funds at once to take care of various fund-raising drives. Utah Heart Assn., tuberculosis, cancer, and Red Cross are some of the separate drives included.

Last weekend, campus organization manned carnival booths including pie-throwing, casino club, picture-taking, spook alley, and ring throwing, to bolster the chest.

Trophy Winner

Winning the trophy for all-around collection per membership of the fraternity was Sigma Pi. Placing second was Kappa Sigma, and the Delta Phi's came in third.

Holding the lucky ticket for a television set was Jay Butters, a downtown barber.

Marion Nielsen, Don Bybee, Mary Ada Gardner and Margaret Fletcher are committee members aiding Miss Barkle in the drive.

Pep Rally, Band Drills Are 'Wagon Wheel' Game Extras

BY JAMES MORTIMER

It'll be the Utah State Aggies and the Brigham Young University Cougars Saturday at 1:30 p.m. on the Farmer Gridiron, and Utah State will be "out to win this one."

The game will almost be a "grudge battle", considering the contested game which the two teams played at Provo last year. School possession of an old wagon wheel also will be at stake.

Rally Planned

To bolster spirit for the contest, cheerleader Dick Headlee, the Booster Committee, and manager Hedges of the Capitol Theatre have planned a big midnight rally at the Theatre, Friday night.

The rally will follow the annual Preference ball. Doors will open at the Capitol at 11:30 p.m., with the rally starting at 12:15 a.m.

On hand will be the cheerleader, Joe Whitesides, director of athletics, Coaches John Roning, Ev Faunce, Cal Stoll, and Ralph Maughan. Following the rally, a "sneak-preview" movie is planned. Tickets are 65 cents.

The Old Wagon Wheel, owned by Blue Key units of the two schools is a traditional prize of the football fight. The Aggies have had the Wheel for two years now.

Band March

Clair Woodward, assistant director of the band, announced that during halftime, the marching band will present a special program themed to religion and the Mormon pioneers.

Prof. John Philip Darby, director of the band, has made arrangements of several songs, among which are "Come, Come, Ye Saints," "Utah, We Love Thee," "High On The Mountain Top," and "Put Your Shoulder To The Wheel."

The band will use a new type of movement in formations. On a chart, each band member's position is plotted, and the band then moves in groups of four to the desired position in each formation.

Heads Cheers

Cheering at the game should reach a new high, as cheerleader Headlee will appear in a swimming suit. It's all part of a Campus Chart bet—someone paid $5 toward the Chest drive for the head yellmaster to perform in the swim outfit.

Tickets for the game are available at the basement ticket office, with the "body card good for reserved seat, daily from 10 a.m. to noon, and 2 to 5 p.m.

According to Vere Miner, manager, groups who have asked blocks of seats to be reserved must pick up their tickets by Thursday evening, or they will be sold to the general public.

Incidentally, tickets for the Turkey Day game with the University of Utah at Salt Lake City on sale next Monday at the ticket office—same hours, officials announced.

Student Directory Now on Sale; Jens(e-o)n's Lead

By MARIE MERRILL

Student directory for 1952 is now being sold in the main hall, according to George Mitton, in charge of sales. The directory, published by Blue Key service unit, is selling for 25 cents per copy.

It looks as though the Jensen's, or Jensen's—whichever you prefer—carry the heaviest enrollment this year. They lead with a total of 37. However, the Smith's run a close second with 34 of them listed in the directory.

A variety of names ranging from emotions such as "Bliss" to "Bitters," to occupations such as Crook, Huntsman, and Judge. From surnames found in the book, one might build a "Woodhouse," and furnish it with a Furniss, some Gates, a Hall, and a Wall.

The directory measures 7 by 10 inches, and contains 68 pages. Editor of the volume was Vern Bailey. Aiding him were Marlan Haslam, associate editor; Keith Anderson, business manager; Rod Jensen, circulation; Mr. Mitton, sales; and other members of Blue Key who sold advertising.

Group to Accept New Members

Applications are now being accepted for membership in Blue Key, honorary men's organization. Graduation last spring left a few openings in the "top 20" group, and these will be filled by new members this fall, according to Rod Jensen, president.

Any junior or senior male student with above average grades may apply, and his application must be accompanied by a theme suggesting some prospective project which Blue Key could promote in the interest of a better Utah State.

The forms may be obtained from the Dean of Students' office, and must be returned there not later than Dec. 1.

Letters To Editor

Election Cost

Editor, Student Life:

In view of the quantity and type of election material which is displayed on campus during freshman elections, not to speak of the studentbody elections in the spring, I am wondering if students aren't going to a lot of needless expense. On other campuses it is mandatory that expense accounts be limited to a certain amount, and expense accounts must be filed with the studentbody office. Any amount over a specified figure automatically disqualifies the candidate.

Some students obviously can't afford to spend as much on pictures, printed signs, and other advertisements as their competitors spend. A limit of five dollars for primaries, and two dollars for finals, on a similar amount, should be passed by Student Council, and placed in the Constitution.

Eleanor Knowles

Dangerous Area

Editor, Student Life:

One of these days somebody's gonna get killed. I mean it. The intersection in front of the 'Bird, and between Widtsoe Hall and the Union Building is getting unsafe both for humans and automobiles. Why can't buildings and grounds work out some system of underpass, or over-pass for students? That particular intersection is one of the worst on the campus, and unless something is done about it, Utah State will be on the black-list of death.

I love life, and I want to live it — let's do something about that intersection.

Name on Request.

Aggie Dies

Word has been received that Samuel N. Gangwer, a graduate in wildlife management of the class of 1952 was killed in an automobile accident on Friday, Nov. 7. Mr. Gangwer, a promising student, accepted the position of assistant study leader with the Indiana Conservation department last June. He is survived by his wife Jean, and two children, and his parents who live in Weatherly, Pennsylvania.

HUBBARD'S CUPBOARD

Factors For Consideration During Greek Rushing Season

By DEON HUBBARD

We are in some Hellenic Weeks.

No I really didn't swear—maybe I should say Greek weeks, but even then all might not understand, so to further clarify I'll say Fraternity rushing periods. (Fraternity in this sense is interpreted to mean all greek letter social units, men's and women's.)

All groups have been unofficially rushing since school began, however men's scheduled rush parties began two weeks ago with each frat holding three. They end this week, with down the hill coming Monday.

The women begin with an open-house rush tea on Sunday, parties all week, and end by taking out bids Saturday, to be followed by the Sig Derby.

Besides being Hellenic weeks they are hectic weeks. Pressure is strong, it is like gauging the force of an atomic bomb. Some freshmen men and women are under tremendous pressure. Should I join a fraternity? Which one should I join? Which one will I get a bid from? Is it necessary to join the same one that Dad or brother, or sister belonged to.

"Darling how nice you look today," and luncheon appointment; have you ever had so many?

A few weeks ago in connection with homecoming I commended the Greeks for their friendliness and contributions to our campus. I'm not changing that position now. However, rushees, don't be rushed off your feet.

Life won't end if you don't join a fraternity. College and life after college won't be a failure if you don't. You will still have dates and be able to get them, in fact unless you get the good and can reject the bad you are probably better off.

Let's get down to earth and be realistic for a moment. Do you have an extra hundred or so dollars a year besides an initial fee of from 50 to 100 dollars?

Do you have an extra one to three nights a week for your fraternity?

Will Be Seeing You? Is Guest Editorial

YOU were killed today. YOU, the student "most likely to succeed" were killed today. And your diploma was found on the seat beside you. How did you die? I'll tell you. You died needlessly. You died carelessly, irresponsibly, foolishly, and you have no one to blame yourself.

(Oh, am I tired? I should have taken a nap before starting home. But Jean is waiting for me. We have a dancing date tonight.) It was your car, wasn't it? A graduation gift from your parents, new car, bought by proud parents to reward you for fulfilling trust in you.

(Gee, it was swell of Mom and Dad to give me this new car. wonder how they could afford it on top of all the other expense they have had putting me through school. Gosh, I'm weak. should have stopped for something to eat.)

Now look at the car! Look at you! You didn't know when you asleep at the wheel that you'd never wake up again, did you? So then! But there remain those who cannot sleep.

(I wonder why I feel so groggy. I can hardly see the road any more. I'll stop and rest as soon as I get around the next turn.)

You were lucky at that. More lucky than you know. You only killed yourself. You might have killed many others, but by some miracle you were alone on the highway. Thanks for that much!

You are probably wondering why I'm "crying over spilt milk." I not milk I'm crying over—it's blood. Your blood. And my tears cold. It's too easy for you to say, "It was an accident; it couldn't be helped." "I guess it was my time to go." "Everybody's got to sometime." . . . right! Everybody has got to go sometime . . . but now!

What about me? I'm your friend, Harry. The one whose cap I off just when the President handed him his diploma. I'm the one whom you yelled, "I'll be seeing you" as you drove off. You were able to kid me about the way I put my cap on backwards after the President stooped down and picked it up for me. But you certainly have given me something to razz you about!

Why did you kill yourself? After all, that's what it amounts to, isn't it? The long years of study were behind you. You were ready for marriage, a home, and a family. You were at the doorstep of life when you slammed the door in your own face! That's what makes the whole thing so unfortunate. You had no reason to do it!

It isn't enough that you keep within the speed limits, yield the right-of-way, keep the proper distance between you and the other drivers, stay on the right side of the road, give the proper signals, turn properly, regard signals, and start and park properly. YOU MUST KEEP AWAKE, TOO. You must have control of your reasoning power at all times, and keep alert and attentive. Otherwise you have no business on the highway!

(Stop! Who do you think you are? It's time someone gave you a few facts of death! I killed myself, yes. It was my fault; that's true too. But get this straight, Harry! NO ONE IS IMMUNE FROM CARELESSNESS. It isn't always the other guy who is getting crippled or blinded or killed in an accident. IT'S YOU EVERYTIME. Oh, I felt like you do when I was alive. I was angry when someone fell asleep at the wheel of his car and endangered his passengers and the other motorists on the highway. It was easy to kick a guy when he was down. I called him a fool. And you see what happened to me!

If you are a friend of mine you will take seriously the advice of safety organizations that admonish drivers to drive at safe speeds, to yield the right-of-way, and to drive on the right side of the road. It's your responsibility to pay close attention to such things as vehicle defects, vision obstructions, highway defects, darkness, road conditions, and weather. But above all you should make sure you are FIT TO DRIVE before you take the wheel. And by that I mean sober, awake, and alert.

There are many precautions which you must take, Harry, if you would be a safe driver. You must be aware that you are driving a wonderful machine which requires your complete control at all times, or else it becomes a dangerous menace. An automobile's behavior is determined by such things as friction, momentum, centrifugal force, and gravity. You, the car's driver, must be aware of these forces.

The bully, the show-off, the egoist, the law-resenting driver has no place on the highway. Only the courteous, the tolerant, the cooperative driver, who realizes his moral, social, and legal responsibilities to other drivers, to pedestrians, and to himself, should be at the wheel of an automobile.

The automobile industry does all it can to make its cars safe for you, but the ultimate responsibility of safety rests with you. CARELESSNESS IS COMMUNICABLE. Be careful, Harry, or I'll be seeing you!

IK's Deserve Support During Campaign For More Members

We dropped in last week at the meeting of the Intercollegiate Knights, and frankly, the IK's need membership.

However, their lack of members isn't due to a lack of interest—it's just that Uncle Sam, and also comely brides have taken away their membership.

To bolster their membership, they've planned a campaign which will begin next week. A table will be in the main hall, and applications can be made Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday.

The IK's have a purpose on campus, and male students should take interest in this, and other organizations. In addition to running the used bookstore, an important function in itself, they aid in selling football game programs, and in building school spirit.

They are a service organization, and stand ready and willing at all times to aid campus groups.

One other thing—the national IK convention will be at Utah State this spring, and 200 or 300 Knights will be on our campus. Utah State should have an active unit to play host to this convention.

Student Life is anxious that male students investigate the IK's and join if at all possible.

Accident Helps Student Learn Citing Hobby

By MARIE MERRILL
An accident, two years ago, confined Arthur Smart to bed, was responsible for the beginning of a fascinating and special hobby.

When Arthur, now a freshman at Utah State college, broke his leg in an accident, he spent much of his time listening to pianists on radio and resolved to teach himself to play.

Never Had A Lesson
Never having had an actual lesson in his life, Arthur played mostly by ear. Lately, he has joined forces with a drummer, saxophonist, and a bass horn player to form a dance band which played on the average of once each during the last year.

Among Arthur's many accomplishments is a radio program which he and Wally Budge, another freshman at Utah State, presented over K.V.N.U. The program tape recorded and two recordings were made, one for practice and one for actual broadcast. The radio technician became greatly confused and sent the wrong transcription over the air. Arthur and Wally, along with their entire listening audience, were understandably amazed when, in the midst of a rendition of "Blue Moon", Arthur stopped and said, "Well, Budge, I can't remember the words!" Oh well, as Arthur says, it's all in a day's work.

Hubbard's Upboard

fills a basic desire to belong and be accepted. It provides a close association and a bond of brotherhood, an opportunity for activity, friends, and service.

If I may for what they are worth, here are a few do's and don'ts for freshmen.

DO
Do plan to add something to the fraternity, as well as get something from it.
Do plan to spend some time with

Do have friends outside your chosen group.
Do take part in activities outside your fraternity.
Do continue to study and get good grades.

DON'T
Don't let your fraternity become, or take the place of your religion. Stay active in your church.
Don't take on a sense of false pride. Be yourself. Just because you join a unit doesn't make you any better than one who doesn't.
Don't take on a sense of false friendship.

Don't join if you can't honestly afford it.

These fraternal units have a lot to offer if, as I stated before, you make the best of them. However, it depends on you. You are not going to be able to ride through college on the laurels of a fraternity. You, by taking the good from them will become better. You by taking the bad from them will become worse. So it's up to you. Think and act wisely.

Shadow Shadows Sigma Kappa Tea

A bunch of the frats were whooping it up
At a Sigma Kappa Tea.
And the kid who hammered the music box
Wore the pin of SAE.
While back in the lounge on the davenport
Sat the Dangerous Sig Chi's Al
And luring him on with her bright red hair
Was the Kappa who's known as Sal.

The music was soft with a rhythmic beat
And it left you without regret.
Like the Alpha Chi who tossed the Sigma Nu pledge
Aside, like a cigarette.
When out of the night that was ten above
And into the alcoholic air,
There stumbled a pledge from the IK group
With Crisco smeared on his hair.
He looked like a goon who had danced his last dance
And he knew he was nobody's pal.
But they drank to his health and the last to imbibe

Was the dangerous Sig Chi's Al.
Were you ever out behind red hill
When the moon was bright and clear
And the light of the city hemmed you in
With a silence you could almost hear?

With only the squawk of a Graveley Hawk
A solemn and dismal call.
And your heart was sore for the day of yore
At the annual Inter-frat brawl.
The tension grew in the smoke-filled room.
You longed for a place to meet,
The music rose with a mighty boom
And suddenly stopped with a heavy beat.
The lights went out I grabbed my watch,

Two pins snapped in the dark,
A woman screamed—the lights came on.
Accompanied by a Sig Ep's bark.
All that was left or my Alpha Chi date.
A girl that I hold most dear,
Was a strip of charming petticoat T at hung from a chandelier.
While the SAE's " " was pinned to the chest
Of the Kappa that's known as Sal,
And the Women's Dean wore a startled look,
And the pin of the Sig Chi's Al.
Well that's the low down on the case,
I was there, the Shadow ought to know,
Some say that the IK was crazed with tea,
And I'm not denying it's so.
I'm not so wise as these pharmacy guys
But strictly between us, pal,
They say that the Women's Dean eloped,
With the dangerous Sig Chi's Al.

Union Building Doors Open For Christmas Ball Dec. 12

Two huge glass doors will welcome Aggies to the first student activity in the new Union building on Dec. 12.

Announcement that the Christmas Ball will be held in the new activity center was made this week. No other events are planned for 1952.

Al Sedgley's 16-piece orchestra will furnish music from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., and dress will be semi-formal.

Responsibilities of the Union board of directors, formed several months ago to establish policies for the new building, are mounting as completion nears.

This group has the responsibility of recommending a union building director to the Board of Trustees. Until a director is chosen, they must make all decisions.

The board is now waiting for a decision from the attorney general as to whether institution funds can be used to purchase cafeteria equipment. Additional money may have to be raised if they cannot, the board reports.

Furnishings for the lounge, sky room, and ballroom are expected soon. It is hoped, also, that a sound system will be installed by Dec. 12. The board states that they have recommended that an appropriation from a student fund, which has been built up over the years, finance the project.

Suggestions or special problems connected with the Union building should be taken to a member of the Union board of directors, according to Harold Dance, chairman.

Members of the 1952-53 board are: Dean Hubbard, Joseph N. Symons, Leah Farr, Harold Dance, Prof. C. D. McBride, Dick Merrill, Bonnie Reese, Preston Thomas, and Lloyd Clements.

Mr. Dance reports that careful consideration was given to the choice of members of the Union board of directors.

'Messiah' Date Changed To December 7

Handel's "Messiah," Christmas cantata now being prepared by the vocal music division, will be presented Dec. 7 in the Logan tabernacle. It was previously planned for Dec. 14, but was changed because of a conflict with a stake conference.

"A fine array of soloists, backed by a strong chorus of 130 voices, have been selected," stated Walter Welti, director. "Rehearsals are being held regularly and everyone concerned is working toward an outstanding performance."

Union Program Board Positions Now Open for Application

Positions on the Student Program Board and its various committees are now being accepted, according to the Union Building Board of Directors.

It will be one of the busiest and most important of all campus organizations, the board stated.

"The position of Student Program board chairman is, in other schools, equal to that of student body president," stated Harold Dance, chairman of the union board of directors.

The Student program board will be the governing board of all activities in the Union Building. It will consist of the student council socials chairman, four students appointed by the Union board of directors, two members of the faculty and the chairmen of the socials, cultural and club service committees.

Applications must be left at the student body office on the main floor, Commons building, not later than Dec. 12.

Three committees now being formed are the socials committee, cultural committee, and club service committee.

'Corn Is Green' Production Cast Announced

"The Corn is Green," three-act comedy by Herman Shumlin, will be presented the week of Dec. 8, according to Prof. Floyd T. Morgan, director.

Vern Coleman, veteran Utah State performer, will portray John Goronwy Jones; Neeltje Eggen and Gayle Probst, in double casting, will play Miss Ronberry; Gerald L. Speth, Idival Morris; Mary Helen Tweedie, Sarah Pugh; Ralph Cluff, a groom; Jarvis Anderson, the squire.

Ruth Green will portray Mrs. Watty; Sydney Reading, Bessie Watty; Carmie Coshaw, Miss Moffat; Arnold Stringham, Robert Robbath; Phillip Faller, Morgan Evans; Edwin Rogers, Glen Thomas; Cecil Wells, John Owen; Eldon McLatchie, Will Hughes; and Jay Meservy, old Tom.

Others in the cast include Richard Heckman, Weldon Hyer, Barbara Jensen, Lori Burnham, Betty Barker, Delbert Killian, Harry Brunson, and Carolyn Conover.

Setting for the play is a Welsh mining town, with Welsh people as characters. The play is written and spoken in dialect.

Tickets for the Barter Theater's production, "The Merchant of Venice," which will be presented Dec. 1, will go on sale four days before the play is presented. Tickets for "The Corn is Green" will go on sale around Dec. 5 in the ticket office on the basement of Old Main.

Library to Begin Books Program

Annual great books program at the Cache county library will be held at 7:30 p. m. the third Monday of each month during the school year. First program will be held Monday, Nov. 17.

Richard Thurman, graduate student, is chairman for this fifth annual presentation.

Among the books which will be reviewed this year are the following: Medea by Euripides, Parmenides and Theaetetus by Plato, Aeneid by Virgil, The Divine Comedy by Dante, Mathematic Principles of Natural Philosophy (Selections) by Newton, The Wisdom of Dr. Johnson by Boswell, Moby Dick by Melville, and Relativity; the Special and the General Theory by Einstein.

Students Present Radio Broadcasts

Radio students, under the direction of Prof. Burrell Hansen, are presenting a series of transcribed radio broadcasts over local station KVVU this week.

The programs, which are directed and produced by students, deal with phases of American Education week, November 10 to 17. Sponsor is the Cache county school board.

Directors of the program are: Charles Tate, Ken Hayes, Don Spainhower, Darrell Atkinson, and Pat Casey.

Members of the class participate in the casts. The broadcasts may be heard on KVVU every afternoon this week, Prof. Hansen said.

New officers of Independent Students Association are Barbara Farrell, Eleanor Knowles, and Glen Haddock, seated, and Jean Ricks.

Manuscripts to Be Accepted For Fall Issue of Scribble

Attention, all would-be Hawthornes, Poes and Thurburs! Scribble is looking for manuscripts for the fall issue, which will be distributed during the latter part of the quarter. Non-fiction articles, poetry or prose will be accepted.

Students who wish to submit manuscripts may place them in the Scribble box in the Main hall between Nov. 10 and Nov. 26, which is the deadline, according to Vern Bailey, editor.

Staff positions for copy editors and readers and proof readers, typists, circulation staff, business staff, and other jobs are still open. Students who wish to work in the staff should contact Mr. Bailey as soon as possible.

Independents Elect Officers and Council

Glen Haddock was elected president of the Independent Students association Monday night. Other officers are Barbara Farrell, vice president; Jean Ricks, secretary-treasurer, and Eleanor Knowles, publicity manager.

In addition to the officers, an ISA executive council, consisting of a representative from each of the four classes, was elected. They are Don Cook, freshman, Larry Porter, sophomore; James Mortimer, junior, and Lu-Deane Thurston, senior.

Among the planned activities will be sponsorship of a student-body dance and assembly and parties and socials for independents.

Some 2500 Members

"We want to emphasize that we are not in opposition to Greek social organizations," Mr. Haddock said. All students, regardless of affiliations, are invited to participate in ISA activities. All independent students on the campus, some 2500 in number, are members of the organization, with the officers and executive council leading the activities and policies of the group.

Outgoing officers are Keith Anderson, president; Deon Johnson, vice president; Bernadean Tomlinson, secretary-treasurer, and Miss Knowles, publicity manager.

Ex-officio members of the council, who will act in an advisory capacity only, are Joyce Barkle, Anna Marie Heyrend, Nora B. Thurgood, and Vera Stevens. They will keep ISA members posted on studentbody problems and activities.

Advisers To Speak

Next meeting of the group will be held Monday, Nov. 24, at 7:30 p.m. in the women's lounge. Prof. Wells Allred and Dean of Students Joseph N. Symons, faculty advisers to ISA, will speak on the purposes and problems of the organization. Fall and winter quarter activities will also be discussed.

Utah Aggies Keyed For Cougars

All Campus Champs Selected; Wrestling Schedule Announced

The All Campus tennis doubles, golf and horseshoes have completed the tournament for 1952 fall quarter schedule.

In the tennis doubles semi-final match Lee Hale-Bruce Clyde met Don Larson-Clinton Hales on the Quad courts to determine the all-campus championship. The final score 6-1 2-6 8-6 crowned Lee Hale and Bruce Clyde the undisputed champs for the 1952 All Campus tennis doubles.

Golf's last round found DeLay Wilson pitted against Fred Golding for the All Campus golf crown. The scene of competition was the Logan Golf and Country club with its nine hole thirty-seven par course, the final score 40-41. The 1952 champion of the All Campus golf tournament, Fred Golding.

The field house was the place for the all campus horseshoe pitchers to test their skill. The two finalists in the horseshoe showdown were Marvin Wolfe and Jim Cochrane. The lucky horseshoe went to the champ of the 1952 all campus horseshoe tournament Marvin Wolfe.

Wrestling has been going strong in the field house at noon as many of the student spectators congregate. All the young fighters are grappling for berths in the intramural wrestling championship at the field house Tuesday, Nov. 25 at 7:30 p.m. Admission will be student cards.

The previous victories and coming schedules at the field house for the men's intramural wrestling are:

This in Sports

GARY R. BLODGETT

Saturday is the big day! Saturday will mark the first of the two big games with the other two Utah universities. The Utah Aggies will tangle with the Brigham Young Cougars in what is expected to be a slam-bang affair in the Aggie stadium. Game time will be 1:30 p.m.

The Aggies with a "victory throbbing heart" will give the Cougars everything they have, in search of their first victory since the opening encounter of the grid season when they edged past the Montana Grizzlies. The Utahs fought to a 14-14 tie last week with Wichita.

Basketball Round-Up
Coach Cecil Baker has his basketball hopefuls working hard and long in hopes of producing a conference championship squad. The Aggie basketballers haven't won a conference title since 1936.

Seven lettermen are back to try and recapture starting positions held last year, but of course with the practice season but a few weeks old—it is still anyone's game.

The L.D.S. Mutual association, along with other church functions, are preparing for another season of basketball. It will involve boys of most religions. For other information you are invited to attend the church of your choice for further information.

Both Squads Will Be at Full Strength

After a weekend of rest and a season of pointing for the Cougars, the Aggies are bound and determined to make the BYU boys' stay in Logan as unpleasant as they can.

With both squads up to full strength and keyed up for this game it looks to be one that could go either way, but one that will have excitement aplenty till the final gun.

"We didn't have to key the boys up for this one, they have been waiting for it all year," was the comment of Ev Faunce, backfield coach. He also pointed out that the Cougars will be ready for this one too, but "we were the ones that lost last year" which makes a difference.

Hal Garner, Farmer back, has been improving by leaps and bounds and could be the man to watch Saturday. He proved to be the big ground gainer against Wichita after they bottled up Campbell. Garner has developed into a hard runner that must be hit square to be topped.

The starting backfield is not definite yet. John Roning and Company are still looking for a scoring punch that can push over points. Reports have it that he has developed a new pass pattern to use against the Brigahms. All he has needed in the past has been a passer, and now he might put Earl Lindley or Hal Garner or maybe both of them to work pegging the pill.

For receivers the farmers have some pretty classy material. George Hotchkins has been leading the league right along in pass reception.

The Aggie defensive unit, which has been a standout all year, will show up with some hard rushing and tackling to pester the Cougar offense. By the same token, the

Basketball Prospects Look Up; Darrell Tucker Named Captain

BY GARY R. BLODGETT

Utah State's basketball hopefuls, coached by H. Cecil Baker, last year's "Coach of the Skyline Conference," are drilling hard and long with hopes of another successful hoop season.

"It is hard to say at the present time just how our team will develop, but I think we will have a pretty fair team," said Coach Baker. "I will say this: we will be in there trying all the time."

Tucker Selected Captain

Darrell Tucker, returning letterman and outstanding defensive player, has been selected to act as captain of this year's squad. Other lettermen trying for posts on the 1952 squad are: Bill Hull, Bob Harbertson, Jack Clark, Don Tuft, and Nate Done.

Transfers and Juniors

Handing out plenty of hustle and competition for this year's team are Frank Condie, transfer from Utah U., Bob Springman and Ivan Allred, transfers from Snow J.C., and Don Budge, up from Weber J.C. Allred and Budge won All-Conference honors while at Snow and Weber Junior Colleges.

Juniors who show a lot of promise are: Cordell Brown, Lee Boothe, Bart Johnson, Glen Weight and Jim Erz. Erz is a war veteran of Korea.

Harbertson Injures Wrist

Bob Harbertson, who broke his wrists while playing in Kansas last year, put a scare in the A.C. coaching staff's first day of practice when it was feared he had rebroken his wrist. It was later revealed that it was only a sprain.

Harbertson has been working out the past few days with braces on both wrists.

WAA Intramural Program Offers Many Girls' Sports

By CAROL BIRD

Last spring the members of the Women's Athletic Association elected new officers to direct the intramural program this year. Palma Lundahl wields the gavel of president with Carol Slater as vice president. Nena Rae Hawks carries the secretary's notebook. JoAnn Calderwood and her assistant, Carol Rae Brown, manage intramurals and Carol Bird reports the news. Miss Lois Downs is the faculty director and she is assisted by Miss Helen Clark.

The intramural program, which plays such a large part in making college life interesting, is sponsored by the Dept. of Physical Education and Recreation. They carry on a varied slate of activities which has evolved under one purpose; that is, to stimulate interest in physical activities among the women students of Utah State and thereby cultivate ideas of hygienic living, physical efficiency, and sportsmanship.

To be a member of the WAA, a girl must participate in at least one sport two-thirds of the time during each quarters activities. Members have the right to vote for officers and be managers of activities.

Many of the activities are purely recreational while others are competitive. On the agenda for this year may be seen tennis, volleyball, water baseball, softball, and others. Probably the most popular events are the winter carnival and the spring dance contest. For the winter carnival, we journey up Logan Canyon to beautiful Beaver Bowl where, amid spills and cold fingers, everyone enjoys a day on the waxed boards or just watching.

The dance contest is held spring quarter and untold hours are spent by sororities and independent groups polishing their performances in the hope of winning the coveted trophy. Last spring the independents won as a full house looked on.

The last event of the year is the awards banquet where trophies and sweaters galore are awarded.

Next spring let your face be among those lining the long tables. Everyone is invited to join in the program of activities for fun and recreation.

Aggie-BYU Game

up may provide the speed and offensive hustle that the Cats need at this point.

The Brighams have long had a nifty pass defense and now they are trying to develop a passing offense for use against the Aggies. They decided that their passing attack needs some polishing because aerial power might be the big "it" that could determine the outcome of the game.

Brigham Young seems to have plenty of depth this year. On that point they will have it over the Aggies. John Roning's big headache has been lack of depth for his offensive and defensive squads; 28 lettermen returned to the BYU gridiron this fall with a loss of only 12. While Utah State has 27 returned lettermen, not all of those are seeing action.

Especially in wingmen is BYU strong. Owen Skousen is at present leading the conference in pass reception. Dewey Brundage is a big, fast end that saw lots of service in the Cat forward wall. Deraey Eyre plays some nifty defensive end for the Cougars.

QUICKIE

Freshmen football players will meet in the Stadium Monday at 3:30 to have their pictures taken.

New WAA officers for the year will be, first row: Carol Rae Brown and Carol Bird. Second row: Palma Lundahl, Miss Lois Downs, Carol Slater and Nena Rae Hawks.

Fraternity Bid Day Monday Sorority Rush Week to Begin

Fall quarter bid day is scheduled for Monday at noon when all men who are joining fraternities will go "down the hill."

As for the girls, final house parties and a state of complete confusion as to choice of sorority will start Nov. 16. This initiates the official commencement of rush-week for campus feds.

Every girl interested in Panhellenic should investigate the situation thoroughly to find out her own sentiments about belonging to one of the Greek organizations. The handy little booklet, edited by Carol Bird, was issued upon registration and will prove an invaluable aid.

Alpha Kappa Psi, Honorary business fraternity, will hold a banquet Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the Zanavoo lodge.

the program for all girls involved to observe the rules and regulations of rushing. Failure to do so can involve unpleasant consequences for both the rushee and sorority.

"Each rushee should carefully consider the sorority rushing program. She should not pledge unless she ultimately intends to be initiated and to become a diligent member of the group. Joining a sorority means assuming a lifetime relationship with an organization. If you become a member of one national sorority, you may never join another."

"Sororities, as any organization, change and differ on every campus. Do not be influenced by the opinion of your associates, relatives, or boyfriends."

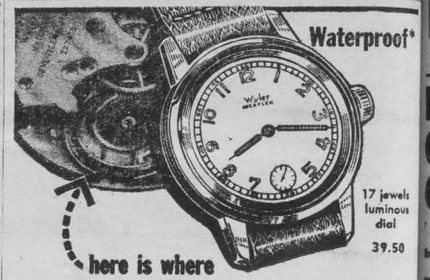

"Remember yours is an individual choice. You alone should choose what will be the right sorority for you," advises the Rushes Handbook.
