COLORADO AGGIES VS. UTAH AGGIES

This is the final game of the season for Logan during the 1914 football season and, from all agnles of the dope sheet, should be the best. Coach Teetzel and his dusky gridiron warriors will need the support of every student of the college on Adams field tomorrow afternoon without fail.

The Fort Collins eleven has been playing remarkable football all season and a victory over the visitors tomorrow will mean much for the Utah Aggie reputation in the Rocky mountain conference. It will be of even greater significance than a victory over the University Thanksgiving day.

Coach Teetzel has given his team a flock of twentieth century fancy formations and flashy forward passes to be sprung in the contest tomorrow which always makes a game more spectacular and interesting from a spectators viewpoint. Both teams are about evenly matched and it will be a test of skill, more than brute force, and football generalship will play a part in the victory tomorrow afternoon.

All students are requested to prepare for the invasion of Salt Lake City Thanksgiving day by arming themselves tomorrow with flags, pennants and other blue and white decorative matter. This will offer the student body an opportunity—golden opportunity—to practice for the final hurrah in Salt Lake a week from next Thursday.

PERIWIG CLUB TO PLAY FOR RED CROSS BENEFIT FUND

The Periwig Club will play "The Romancers" tomorrow night in Nibley Hall, and the proceeds of the entertainment will go to the Red Cross Benefit Fund. President Jensen of the B. Y. C. has kindly given the free use of the hall for this purpose. Students here's one of the biggest opportunities of the year to show college loyalty and help a most worthy cause. Those of you who saw the play last Thursday night know that it's a "first class show." You'll enjoy seeing it again.

Those of you who didn't see it treat yourselves to a delightful evening's entertainment and help a good cause.

Admission only 25 and 35 cents.

UTAH'S CREDIT MAN DELIVERS VALUABLE LECTURE.

Last Friday under the auspices of the U. A. C. Commercial Club, Mr. Parsons of Salt Lake delivered what proved to be a most interesting as well as beneficial lecture to the eager students who crowded room 302 to hear him. His remarks were directed along the universally important subject, credit; its importance to every man and some of the things which are considered in practical life as constituting credit. There are three fundamental requirements, he pointed out, upon which credit is determined: first, character; second, capacity; third, capital. Without the first, the other two would be almost worthless and to have an

That refunds be made on unused portion of Student Body Fee to students leaving school. Money be appropriated to pay necessary expenses of a representative of A. C. to see the Occidental game at Salt Lake.

Committee be appointed to act with Manager Woolley to have all business houses close from 2:30 to 5:00 during ball game. Also to advertise the game in surrounding towns.

Mr. Woolley and G. Dunford chose one other person to go with them to Salt Lake to make arrangement to excursion rates and passes for Thanksgiving game.

The decision be reversed that all vehicles be allowed to go on to the Adams field free of charge.

The classes in Bot. 2 and 5 scaled Mt. Logan last Monday. They started early and took lunch with them. The flora of the various elevations was carefully studied and the trip was both profitable and enjoyable. It was a tired but happy bunch that returned at night.

While we are extolling Dave Jones for the wonderful game he played last Saturday, let's not forget that he had ten determined "Aggie fighters" back of him who gave us the best that was in them and helped Dave do what he did.

The "shirt tail parade" will be at 7 p. m. this evening. Meet on Main street.

Important—Commercial Club meeting today. Time 2:20 at club rooms.

TEAM COMES BACK

We are proud of our football team. They have clearly shown us that they can "come back." A team that has been downed many times that can come back and win and smile while doing so is the team that will triumph in the end. They are, indeed, worthy of the support of the entire student body and evidence points to the fact that they are getting this support.

Every member of the team meets the requirements of what some one has described as a good sport. "A good sport is the man who not only grins and bears defeat, but also endures a triumph without too much grinning. He is the fellow who would scorn to take advantage of any chance unfairly presented to him. He is frank and above in all things, and does not try to shift the blame where it does not belong. When at work he puts his best into his work and when at play he always plays fairly. He can be depended upon to do what is set before him to the best of his ability."

AG. CLUB DANCE MONDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 16

The annual Ag. Club Ball to be held next Monday evening in the Gymnasium, promises to surpass all previous Ag. Club balls in every way.

The decorations will be different from any used before and will be characteristic of the Ag. Club spirit.

Good music and good refreshments will also be provided, and a good time is promised to all.

WAR AND CAPITALISM.

When I ask my friends why the way is being fought, some say that the Germans are crazy and others say there is a racial animosity between the Slavs and the Teutons.

If only the Germans were crazy about war, the Kaiser might have conquered the world. The fact that the allies are able to check the Germans effectively, goes to prove that all have been crazy and all have been preparing for it equally.

If racial animosity has been the cause, war must have been limited between the two nations—the Slavs and the Teutons. The fact that in America the Slavs and the Teutons are friendly to each other, shows that racial animosity is not to be blamed for it. Since the Germans prefer to kill the English, rather than the French and the Belgians, racial animosity is not at all the cause.

What else can be the cause? The residents in the London slums, and the starving people in Berlin cannot be expected to have anything to do with the war. The French farmers did not believe that the war was declared, until they were driven from their homes. The German cultivators only know that their sons are either wounded or killed, but do not know as yet why their sons have been asked to sacrifice their lives. The Russian farmers can publicly ask the question: "Why the war is fought; only at the expense of their lives.

Nor are kings to be blamed. They are related by blood. They did not have any personal quarrel among them; and, if they had, they might have fought a duel and decided the trouble. If the Kaiser and King George were to meet on the battlefield, they would kiss each other as they did recently. So, they are all right; only their armies and navies are destroying each other.

If the workingman and kings are not at the root of the war, who else can be? Let us see if the capitalists are to be blamed. They can afford to meet the expenses of the war; they can contribute to build navies and organize armies; they can supply bread to the philosopher, to prostitute his intelligence; they can pay amply to the scientists to invent better machines for human destruction; they can also buy literary men to create an artificial patriotism and racial hatred. Even the church has its share in the bribery. It is the rich that contribute to the construction and maintenance of the church. So, the minister, with all his holiness and solemnity ordains that the people must be loyal, honest and dutiful to their masters. "Money makes many things." It has been misdirecting the activities of all fighting nations.

So, capitalists want money, for their personal luxuries, and for misdirecting the activities of their nations. War is one of the many gambings which take place in the commercial world. The foreign commerce depends upon the Armadas and invincible legions. With their help they can subjugate other countries, can rob the trade of other nations, and enrich their own pockets. Wherever these robbers dominate the destinies of a nation wars cannot but occur. In this war, the German capitalists are aggressive, because they have been refused a share in the booty, by the English capitalists.

The mass of the population must understand this gambling of the capitalists; they must realize that they are the victims of deception. Then the true war-cry of Europe will be "Down with Capitalism."

D. C.

A most unusual thing happened at the dance Saturday evening; Eli Lee took Miss Morrison.

The Misses Allen and Midgley spent the week end in Richmond, as guests of the Woolley's.

Miss Fogg's mother visited here during the week.

The Sig Alphs raided the Sorosis house Saturday evening and tore things up in general. You just wait!

Tryouts for "Milestones" will be held next Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in room 359.

Hip: Dr. Titus wore a roll collar last Tuesday.

Little Brother: "Vera, are you a refreshment or a sophomore?"

"WAR CONTINUES"

Boom! Boom! Biff! Bang! Wow!
Scream! Screech! Cry!
Grunt and Yell!

The enemy in the shape of the Sig Alphs invaded the Sorosis stronghold after a fierce battle upon the Tabernacle lawn on Sock Day. The enemy, after numerous attacks reached the Sorosis fort and entered upon a diligent search for their captured seige gun.

Results: They were baffled in the attempt as the foe had hidden all of the war material available. However, a large A. C. banner on being taken unaware, was captured and carried back to the invader's retreat.

Later during the evening an invading Sig Alph, while pretending a friendly call at the girls' house, made a break. He was grabbed, seized, scratched and held on all sides by seven irritated young ladies and one married woman.

After a fierce struggle of over 15 minutes he was bound feet and hands and placed on the floor where he was mocked, scorned and tormented by his wretched enemies. However, our hero was far more cunning than his captors realized, and by skillful manipulations he managed to free himself of his torturous bonds.

With a cry of triumph he made a bold dash for liberty and his allies' fort. His story was quickly told and a new attack was commenced. At press time the attack had been unsuccessful.

A MONOPLY ON MUSIC.

The man's hopes were high. He had never attended a U. A. C. Student body dance. Alas! he wishes he never had. Did you ever see a care free jolly crowd associated in a dance hall with funeral music? Did you ever see any one put up the best they have when they have a monopoly?

The music last Saturday night was the poorest I have ever heard in a dance hall. The high school orchestra that could not do better ought to be hung at sunrise. Every town north of Logan has better music. One person told me that he heard even better music in Cove where the principle musician was the town fiddler. The worst is yet to be told.

The "musicians" charge their school more than they can get down town. Now I believe they can do better if they want. I don't want to knock a student dance but I want them to improve and the first improvement to be made is in the music. Let us improve and make our dances the envy of all dance hall managers. Heres to a better U. A. C. Student Body Dance.

CADETS.

One of the most flourishing departments of the school this year is the Cadet work.

The present organization has been drilling now for over four weeks and has accomplished a great deal of work.

The department is under the temporary charge of Mr. H. R. Hagan. The battalion is the largest in the history of the school, there being five companies of over five squads each, a band of over thirty pieces, a trumpet corps of 8 members and a signal corps of 10 members.

Every rifle that is owned by the college is in use and before long new equipment will be required in order to fully equip all of the men.

The work is progressing rapidly among the men and a spirit of enthusiasm seems to prevail more than ever before. At present the school of the soldier, squad, and company are being practiced daily at drill and at each drill some new movement in the manual of arms is mastered. No field work in the extended order will be undertaken until spring.

A new system to promote interest in the drill work is being successfully carried out. It is the idea of having more companies and fewer men in each company. This gives a greater number of men a chance for the position of officers, and causes more competition and brings better results.

The band is well under way and is at present ready to play a number of pieces.

The trumpet corps has 7 old men out of its 8 members, all of whom have had experience in bugle work before.

The signal corps is a new department just created at this school, but promises to be one of keen interest and usefulness.

The first shipment of uniforms is due here in about two weeks. Officers for companies A, B, C and D, were appointed last week. In company E the newer and less experienced men will be given a chance in competition for the positions in the company, the appointment to occur in about one month.

"TENNIS"

Tennis is usually called one of the minor sports. I do not think that is the right way to view Tennis. I heard one student say "Oh, that is a girls' game, you cannot even get warm." If some of these "cold" students would try the game I think that it would be plenty warm for them. We have two good cement courts and one clay court. These are not enough, we ought to have at least two more cement courts. Then there would be room for everybody. The cement courts are excellent but the gravel that surrounds them is very bad. I think that this could be remedied by raking the rocks off and placing about two inches of clay on the top, as it is tiresome and hurts the players feet. L. G. N.

IS 1000 ENOUGH?

The announcement made by Dr. Thomas last Saturday, that Dr. Widtsøe's last wish before leaving was to have 1000 go to Salt Lake on Thanksgiving, seemed to meet with hearty approval by the student body.

Are we to be satisfied even with 1000? Two years ago we took about 1500 rooters with us. We have grown since then. Has our spirit grown with us. The townspeople will be back of us if we are awake. Why not boost for 2000—better still 2001. We are not confined to the college campus. Everyone in Cache valley wants to see that Thanksgiving game. They will be with us and boost for us if we boost for our team. Let our slogan be "We will do Utah with eleven players and 2000 rooters."

PACKARD GREATLY APPRECIATED.

One of the largest crowds ever in attendance at one of the Lyceum numbers, crowded into the Tabernacle Monday night to hear Alton Packard and see his wonderful drawings. Although the entertainment was rather long, it was enjoyed by every one present. Expressions of wonderment and awe were on the faces of all as he created almost perfect pictures with just a few strokes of the hand. All phases of life from childhood to old age, also illustrating the seasons of the year were pictured and the final picture represented the "Valley of Death". His theme was "Vanity Fair" and the wonder of his work was in his skill in picture evolution. Aside from his cartooning he proved himself to be a pianist and a comic singer of no mean ability. All pronounced him a very excellent entertainer. We hope he will come again.

The committee, charged by the student body to get the Red Cross fund of the college started, wishes to thank the students and faculty for the royal manner in which they banded to the support of the cause. The box in the main hall of the college building, labeled with a sign for popular collections to purchase sugar and other raw material for the girls to make 200 pounds of candy, gathered $12.70. This is sufficient for the candy making and the girls of the institution will see to the rest.

It was decided that the apple question was impracticable and for the boys of the College to purchase the raw material for the girls to make the candy was the most feasible plan. This was sanctioned by the student executive committee.

The candy will be sold in Salt Lake, a week from tomorrow. Boxes and everything will be secured and it will mean that every student of the college must do his share if called upon. The affair must be pulled off without any flaws.

There is still a chance for those who have not contributed to do so. We need boxes for the candy.

Don't forget the production of "The Romancers," in Nibley hall tomorrow evening, either. Every student should attend this and see to it that he induces at least two of his friends outside the college to be present. This money will assist in the national movement of helping the homeless Belgians.

Admission of 25 and 35 cents will be charged and every stu-

"He says it looks good to him.

"He says he feels just that way, too.

HOW WE DO IT

Well, we met 'em
And we set 'em
Back a notch or two, you know;
And we roughed 'em,
And we cuffed 'em,
And we trampled down their row;
And we rushed 'em,
And we crushed 'em,
And they didn't stand a show.
Yes, we blocked 'em,
And we knocked 'em,
Off their feet with every blow.

So we think they'd better ramble
Back to sage-brush covered plains
Where, in fighting with coyotes,
They could make far better gains;
Leave to us the task of training
Football men for victory,
Aggies now are in the limelight
Nothing like our U. A. C.

Soon we'll show our Salt Lake neighbors
What we've shown Wyoming's best
Crimson knows she'll have to rustle,
That we'll put her to the test.

Aggies! don't forget Thanksgiving!
Down to Salt Lake every one,
While we trim the U. of Utah
Show them how the trick is done.

Bon fire and speeches tonight.

Class Notes

FRESHIES ARE CLASS CHAMPS

Talk about real football and stubborn playing. The game Tuesday between the Seniors and Freshies for class championship was all this and more. Injured men was the order of the game. Subs were used freely and "Time out" was the oft repeated cry. The game was hard fought at all stages and the final result showed not so much the superiority of the victors as it did the lack of training on the part of the defeated, who were weakened in the last quarter after having held the Freshies to one lone touch down for the first three periods. Three touch downs were made during the game giving the lower classmen a 20 to 0 victory over the Seniors. Two of the touch downs were made on fumbles but the best team came out ahead and we can be proud of our Freshmen bunch. There is some good material for the first team next year. Kapple and Judd starred.

We wonder if there is anything in the rumor that the Seniors are to treat their conquerors to a two-class party.

unquestioned credit one must possess the three combined. Under the second division a great deal of importance was placed on one's knowledge of accounting, i. e., if a manager of a business; his judgment, which of course would greatly be determined by his knowledge of economic conditions, law and other courses which we are able to get at this institution. The third, of course, would be a consideration, but of the three, the least important.

The subject of this lecture, we think, concerns every student in the institution and we hope to have as hearty an attendance to those which are to be given in the future as we had at this one.

The "Grafters" hold their opening session one week from this evening at Murdock's. All Hort. students are expected to attend. Bring your most congenial smile and come prepared to have a good time.

Freshie: No sir! I don't seem to get those ideas into my concrete head.

Prof.: This is no more important than whether Olof here is 999,997 or 999,997 hairs high. Which are you, Olof?

Olof, with a grin: Six of one and a half a dozen of the other, I guess.

Freshie, hearing Dr. Titus talking to himself as he went along the hall: "Gee, I'll bet he's practicing upon his college yells."

SEEING the Difference Between the DE LAVAL and other Cream Separators

IT DOESN'T TAKE AN EXPERT knowledge of mechanics or a long working test to tell the difference between the De Laval and other cream separators. ON THE CONTRARY, WITH A 1914 De Laval machine placed beside any other separator the difference is apparent at first sight to the man who never saw a separator before.

IF HE WILL THEN TAKE FIVE minutes to compare the separating bowl construction; the size, material and finish of the working parts, particularly those subject to wear and requiring to be occasionally taken apart and put together; the manner of oiling, and everything which enters into the design and construction of a separator as a simple durable machine, he will still further see the difference.

IF HE WILL GO A STEP FARTHER and turn the cranks of the two machines side by side for half an hour, particularly running milk or water through the bowl, he will see still more difference.

AND IF HE WILL TAKE THE two machines home, as every De Laval agent will be glad to have him do, and run them side by side in practical use, the De Laval one day and the other machine the next, for a couple of weeks, he will see still greater difference in everything that enters into cream separator practicability and usefulness.

THE MAN WHO TAKES EVEN the first step indicated in seeing for himself the difference between the De Laval and other cream separators doesn't put his money into any other machine one time in a thousand. THE COMPARATIVELY FEW buyers of other separators are those who merely read printed matter claims or listen to the argument of some dealer working for a commission, and who do not think it worth while to see the difference for themselves.

THE WISE BUYER OF A cream separator today does see this difference when buying his first separator, while the unwise or careless one usually finds it worth while to do so when he comes to buy a second cream separator a year or two later.

EVERY DE LAVAL AGENT considers it a privilege to show the difference between the De Laval and other separators, and to afford every prospective buyer the opportunity to try out and prove the difference to his own satisfaction, if on first examination he feels the slightest doubt about it.

THAT'S THE REASON WHY four buyers out of five are buying De Laval Cream Separators in 1914, and why the use of De Laval machines will, before long, be nearly as universal on the farm as already is the creamery and milk plant use of power or factory separators.

STUDENT BODY LEARNS TWO LESSONS

The First Lesson.

Last Saturday afternoon we won the first football game of the Intermountain Conference. The wonderful work done by our football team as a whole and by some members of the team in particular was partly due to the hearty cheering of the students. Did you hear the yelling and cheering for our team? Why, you could have heard the shouting blocks away. We have at least learned the effects of hearty cheering and also how to perform it. We have learned that cheering is the stimulant that has led many a small army to victory against tremendous odds. Let us for a few moments read the war events of a few months ago. On August 2nd a small Belgian army probably never more than 100,000 men, and seldom more than half of that number, at any one point, fought heroically 500,000 men in the well organized German army. Their heroism was greatly due to their strong unselfish patriotism aroused in them by the hearty cheering of those they left behind. The figure of the young Belgian King has appealed strongly to the world's imagination as that of a heroic winning personality.

Just stop for a moment, loyal student, and see what a real warm cheer has accomplished. The team has proved to the Utah football fans their courage and tenacity and their real loyalty to their college. To the Wyoming cowboys, they showed that the Aggies play a clean sportsman-like game. To the student body here, above all, they proved that we have a fighting machine of which we may be proud. The cool judgment of some of our football men has been admired by every bystander of the game. The Aggie spirit has come back with much more enthusiasm than that with which it went away.

The Second Lesson.

The success of our last student body dance was due to the victory we gained last Saturday afternoon. Were you to that dance, loyal student? If so, you surely noticed how jammed the hall was. You surely did not fail to observe the smiling and happy countenances of those present. You could read the word 'victory' in their faces. It was a wonderful effect that victory had on our student body. Every body felt that other victories are in store for us.

From the above two lessons, we can learn only two things: first, that the student body is the direct cause in helping our boys to win and that it is the one to enjoy the fruits of victory; second, that enthusiasm, hearty cheering, and smiling faces are the tools to be used by the student body to bring about that unconquerable "Aggie Spirit" which makes victories probable.

Therefore, students, let us not stand aside in the future and assume that victories are ours without having to call for them. But let us assist our team in capturing those winning laurels. Let us be right behind them, all the time, with a ready smile and warm cheer. Then and only then, we shall have our hall crowded when we celebrate those victories. D. A. F.

On election night everybody was happy. The counter in the bakery shop had a bun on, I came home and the stewed prunes were on the table, while all of the water in the house was tanked and in some instances badly polluted.

A very bad example has been set by some persons around the college. The Sorosis room was entered last week and all of their penants taken. At first it was regarded as a joke, but as no penants have turned up and no clue to their whereabouts is known, the matter should be considered serious. No person has a right to any other than his own property and the penants should be returned to avoid trouble later. Let's have no sneaks and hoodlums in the U. A. C., but act as ladies and gentlemen.

It is claimed that a rolling stone gathers no moss, but becomes shiny and smooth. Our school spirit should not be as a rolling stone, but should be a rock of Gibraltar. We should try some of that "High Life" and see if our enthusiasm cannot be worked up to the proper point for our football games. Let's all help to revive the corpse.

On November 5 the Sigma Theta Phi sorority held a birthday entertainment for all members and pledges together with a few invited guests. Among the guests were "Godfather" Arnold, Miss Kyle, Miss Sanders, Miss Williamson, Miss Elizabeth C. Smith and Professor Carroll. Mr. Carroll gave a very interesting talk to the girls about sororities and what the word should mean to a girl. Luncheon was served afterward. The Thetas are now two years old as a sorority.

AT LAST THE TIDE HAS TURNED.

Utah Agricultural college, 24; Wyoming university, 3. This was the result of the last Saturday battle, as all are aware, but it denotes the swinging point in the football team. After an early season of rather doubtful football, Coach Teetzel's warriors showed up in remarkable form against the Laramie visitors and displayed flashes of brilliant football which denoted the possibilities for the Thanksgiving battle against the University of Utah.

Dave Jones, the gritty and chunky halfback, carried off all the honors Saturday, scoring every point made in the game for the Blue and White eleven. He was ably assisted, however by Capt. Godbe and Harry Green, who were ever in the interference to help "Davie" over the gridiron.

The team went through the battle without an injury. The condition of the Aggie team was remarkable, while the Wyoming bunch were somewhat sufferers from lack of wind during the latter part of the contest. The visitors made a strong start and the game promised to be a fast, furious, close-fought affair. While it lacked none of the qualities of football, our team soon began to stretch the margin and towards the last interest was in the length of the score, more than dread of a defeat.

The University of Utah suffered another defeat at Boulder last Saturday, falling down before Coach Folsom's warriors by a score of 33 to 0. The University of Colorado and Colarado school of Mines will battle Saturday for the Rocky mountain conference title. The game gives promise of one of the greatest conference championship struggles ever staged in this neck of the woods.

In the first half of the Boulder game, the University of Utah team made a strong showing and threatened to score in the first few minutes of play. The two first periods ended with the score of 7 to 0 in favor of the Colorado state institution. In the last two periods, however, Coach Folsom must have whispered some thing about "turning loose" for the Crimson team was decisively trimmed in the last half.

Hugh Peterson, may yet be able to get into the Thanksgiving day battle. His knee is recovering in excellent style and the coach has an idea he can use the speedy fullback. This will enable Harry Green to get back at his old tackle and greatly strengthen the defense of our team and not cripple the offense.

* * *

Arthur Caine, who played a plucky and game little battle against Montana university at Missoula, is promenading with the aid of a pair of crutches. His knee is also battered and Coach Teetzel has lost a worthy football player from his squad.

* * *

"Happy" Van Pelt, end for the University of Utah football team, was injured in the Boulder game last Saturday. Up until his mishap, "Happy" was the star for the visitors, say the Colorado sporting critics.

Some idea of the strength of the Missoula team, which defeated the Utah Agricultural college 33 to 0, can be gleaned when it is taken into consideration that the Montana Aggies (the first team to appear on Adams field against our eleven) was trimmed by Montana university 26 to 9.

team from California that has been bold enough to brave the high altitude of the Rockies.
